

THE PRINTER PRESIDENT.

ALL CLASSES UNITING UPON THE FARMER OF CHAPPAQUA.

The Glorious War of Good Old Farmer Greeley—Uncle Horace's March to Victory—Greeley Forever, Hurrah, Boys, Hurrah!

Forty years has farmer Horace worked on mighty little pay. Forty years has farmer Horace worked on mighty little pay. Forty years has farmer Horace worked on mighty little pay.

While corruption was marching on! But now through all the country I hear the people say, But now through all the country I hear the people say, But now through all the country I hear the people say.

It is time he was marching on! Greeley—Greeley—Greeley! Greeley—Greeley—Greeley! Greeley—Greeley—Greeley!

Farmer had a world of trouble ploughing up corruption's stable. Farmer had a world of trouble ploughing up corruption's stable. Farmer had a world of trouble ploughing up corruption's stable.

But he ploughed and he ploughed right on! Greeley—Greeley—Greeley—Greeley! Greeley—Greeley—Greeley—Greeley!

There's lots of tars and stable yet to plough below the ground. There's lots of tars and stable yet to plough below the ground. There's lots of tars and stable yet to plough below the ground.

Good farmer, good farmer, plough on! Good farmer, good farmer, plough on! Good farmer, good farmer, plough on!

Brave brambles, thistles, thorns, and nettles to be found. Brave brambles, thistles, thorns, and nettles to be found. Brave brambles, thistles, thorns, and nettles to be found.

And it's a lot of best links, farmer! And it's a lot of best links, farmer! And it's a lot of best links, farmer!

There's the Alabama thistle—it's a very nasty thing. There's the Alabama thistle—it's a very nasty thing. There's the Alabama thistle—it's a very nasty thing.

THE DEADLY SUMMER HEAT.

ANOTHER FRIGHTFUL EXHIBIT OF CASES OF STROKE.

Relief from the Clouds—The List of Deaths Greatly Diminished.

The refreshing rain that fell on Thursday night did not bring all the relief to the city that was hoped for. At intervals the rain came down, and the atmosphere was pleasant, until the sun rose clear and bright.

The day continued extremely hot until about 6 o'clock, when another storm came up, and the luxuriant rain showed that the fever had subsided. The luxury of being cool was enjoyed during the night.

There were three new cases of stroke at Bellevue Hospital yesterday—Michael Brogan of 32 East Twenty-fourth street, and his wife, and Michael Cops. They are not fatal. A young woman and Sarah Forby, who were taken to the hospital the day before yesterday suffering from stroke, died yesterday. There were three cases in the Park Hospital—John Macdonald, Jersey City, an unknown man, aged about 45, and an unknown man, aged about 40.

They all died. Since the 1st of July Bellevue Hospital has had a total of three strokes, and 21 were discharged, 16 remaining yet under treatment.

John Mayer, a young Irish woman, who has been but a month in this country, and was taken to the 1st of July suffering from a stroke, lost her power while looking out of a window in the hospital and fell, and her brain was paralyzed.

C. Hiler 174 Grand street, was taken to the hospital, having cut his throat during a fit of anger, and was taken to the hospital.

The list of strokes is very greatly diminished. The following names are gathered from various sources: MORTALITY BY STROKE.

Wm. C. O'Brien, 41, at 41 East Twelfth street, on Thursday, July 5, at 10 o'clock.

A WIFE KICKED TO DEATH.

Tragedy in Nassau, Long Island—The Murderer Commits Suicide.

On Wednesday afternoon last Deputy Sheriff Pettit of Newtown, Queens county, received information that John Kerrigan, a Massachusetts man, had murdered his wife. The Constable went in search of Kerrigan and found him sitting on Newbaum's stoop, just after having taken a drink.

When the Deputy Sheriff arrived he asked for his corduroy, and he showed him his badge, telling him he suspected him of having murdered his wife. He denied having beaten his wife, but admitted that he pulled her by the arm from her house to the street, and then jumped on her.

Coroner Evans was first informed. He saw Kerrigan on his own stoop, take his wife by the hair and drag her about 100 yards into a grassy lot. He then jumped on her.

Coroner Coleman saw him strike his wife and drag her by the hair.

Kerrigan was arrested, and about two weeks ago he was allowed to see his wife before the Fourth of July. Mrs. Kerrigan was admitted to the hospital, and her husband was kept in the cell.

For a few hours the din was terrible. At last, while the wife was sleeping, they sought their comfortable couches and slept.

The early risers' breakfast. At sunrise today the air was cool and bracing. The early risers' breakfast was a most interesting affair.

After breakfast followed company drill, and the men were put through their paces.

The destruction of the Fannie Confirmed—A Victim of Greasy Food—Capt. Speed, Gen. Ryan, Capt. George Brown, the agent of the steamer Fannie, and twenty-two of the crew of the Fannie have arrived here.

THE SEVEN MEN IN SARATOGA.

THE GRAND COMPLIMENTARY BALL LAST NIGHT.

The Roaring Fun of the Boys in Camp—Swelling on the Grand Union Verandahs.

CAMP SHERMAN, Saratoga, July 5.—When the gun had been fired last evening and the flags lowered many of the regiment looked about for a few minutes, but they were disappointed.

The boys were in good humor and heartily applauded. Corporal A. D. W. Baldwin singled out Dan Edwards, the armorer, who was among the assemblage, and when the last notes of the "Star Spangled Banner" had died away, he presented to him a handsome gold chronometer valued at $80, which had been gotten up for him by the regiment.

Dan delivered a brief and very appropriate speech in reply, and amid tremendous cheering he was borne on the shoulders of his comrades. A serenading party, in fantastic dress, which had just formed, played what was supposed to be "Hail to the Chief."

For a few hours the din was terrible. At last, while the wife was sleeping, they sought their comfortable couches and slept.
