

Announcements To-Day. Academy of Music, 7 o'clock. Boston Opera House, 7 o'clock.

Terms of the Sun. For one year, $10.00. For six months, $6.00. For three months, $3.50.

Advertisements. For one square, 10 lines, 10 cents. For one square, 10 lines, 20 cents.

For the accommodation of up-town residents, advertisements for The Sun will be received at our regular office.

The Boston Fire. The great fire which scorched away the heart of the business portion of Boston.

In Boston all the conditions were different. That city has imported direct, bulk of the foreign commodities required for its own consumption.

This assault from all points the existing Education act is certain to be replaced by one which can at least command a portion of the popular support.

The Approach of the Cholera. The announcement that the cholera has appeared in Dresden, two Americans being among its victims.

So long as the large majority of travellers from the East, and between Turkey and Russia, came by sea, it was possible to place them under effective supervision.

The British National Education act of 1870, which was intended to secure elementary education for all children of all classes.

The friends of educational reform, who for many years previous to 1870 had been battling for a system of free schools.

The destruction of the most substantially built portion of Boston by fire is calculated to again direct the attention of the public to the lesson taught a little more than a year ago.

But although it appears to be an impossibility to construct a street of contiguous buildings which shall be absolutely fire-proof, every citizen can do something to prevent the recurrence of such calamities.

are ignited by being stepped upon, or stored away in closets where the rats and mice can nibble them, form the cause of innumerable fires and a vast destruction of property.

The subject of the improper committal of persons to lunatic asylums is attracting attention in other parts of the country than New York.

Mr. Drexel—No, not many. Boston is so rich that their paper is all discounted there.

Mr. Drexel—The insurance companies and the Boston capitalists. There will not be among the poorer classes as much suffering as there is among the rich.

Mr. Drexel—Will money become scarce? Mr. Drexel—Yes, money will become a little scarce for the time being.

Mr. Drexel—Why, I think the whole fire will be a great benefit to the city.

old school, received the reporter very politely, but seemed to be afraid to say anything.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

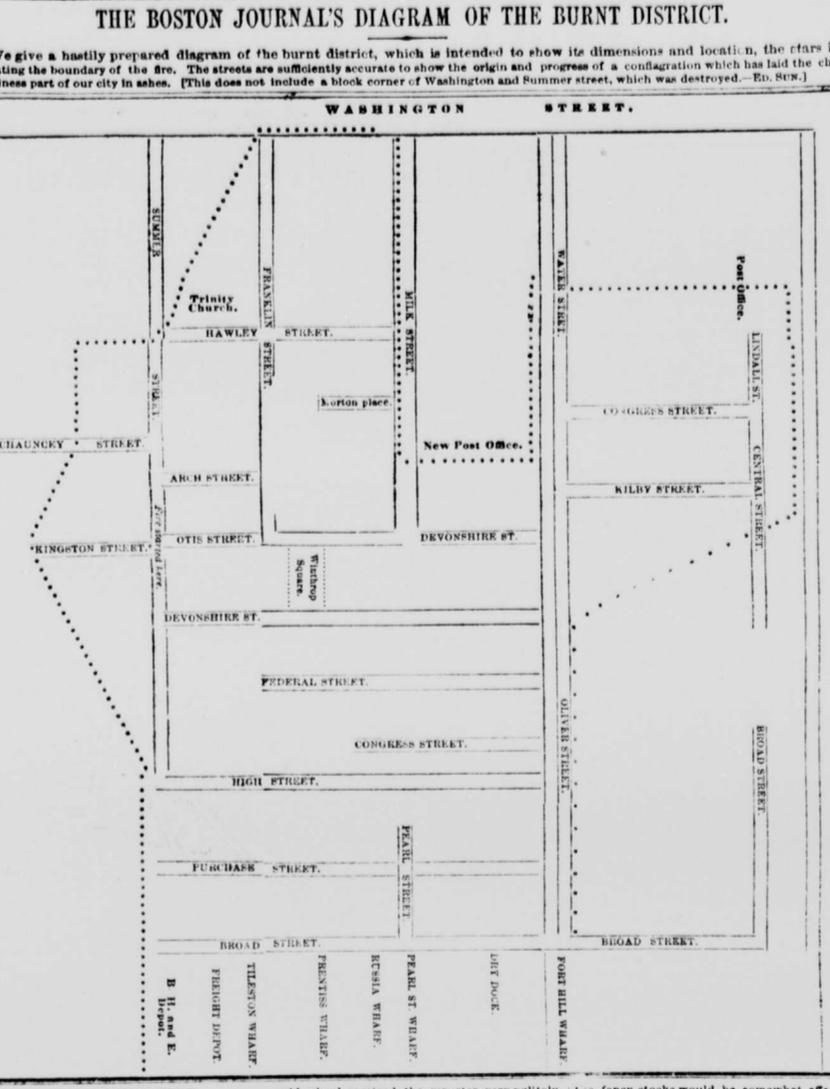

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

THE BOSTON FIRE. Continued from First Page.

Chicago fire were felt in Chicago. This loss, you see, falls altogether on the rich men of Boston.

Mr. Drexel—No, not many. Boston is so rich that their paper is all discounted there.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

Mr. Drexel—The fire was a great benefit to the city.

question that we feel that there is greater danger of loss by the probable failure of many of our city fire insurance companies than from the fire itself.

The reporter then called at the wholesale store of Arnold, Constable & Co., where he was shown by one of the members of the firm that through they sold a very large amount of goods.

Several unsuccessful attempts were made to find some one belonging to the firm of Lord & Taylor, gentlemen, however, prominent in position in the house informed the reporter that they were not in the city.

The reporter next called upon Mr. Frederick G. Clark, of the house of C. G. Clark & Co., and inquired of him as to the effect of the fire upon the furrers of this city.

The reporter next visited the Cotton Exchange building, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling cotton.

The reporter next visited the stock exchange, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling stocks.

The reporter next visited the fire insurance companies, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling fire insurance.

The reporter next visited the fire insurance companies, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling fire insurance.

The reporter next visited the fire insurance companies, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling fire insurance.

The reporter next visited the fire insurance companies, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling fire insurance.

The reporter next visited the fire insurance companies, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling fire insurance.

The reporter next visited the fire insurance companies, where he saw a large number of speculators who were buying and selling fire insurance.