ASTORIA, August 5, Almyquist, on the charge of poisoning his family, was continued yesterday. Mrs. Almyquist, in her testimony, said that her husband had repeatedly made attempts to take her life by poison during the past few years.

MRS. ALMYQUIST'S SUSPICIONS. I have been haunted by my mind for years that my husband had been administering something to me, but I did not know what it was.

IN CONSTANT FEAR OF BEING POISONED. She often brought home candies and sweets and handed them out to the children.

ALLEGED ATTEMPT TO POISON THE CHILDREN. No one was in the room that night but my husband, and he was seen to go to the kitchen.

HAD A BURNING SENSATION. On my lips, in my throat, chest, and stomach, and felt as if I was burning.

AN ONSET OF POISON FOUND. I saw my husband after the tests, that she was taken from the stomach of the child.

ASKEW. It is a very heavy substance, and when thrown into water it will rapidly sink to the bottom.

THE DEFENSE. offered no testimony. Mr. Payne, for the prisoner, in an argument lasting nearly three hours, moved that Almyquist be discharged on bail.

THE WIFE'S STORY. Almyquist was a very handsome woman, 24 years of age. She has luxuriant black hair, large, expressive eyes, a clear complexion, and regular features.
