

MAKING LAWS IN ALBANY. THE LEGISLATIVE HALLS BRISK WITH BUSINESS.

The Chamberlain ship Canal and its Relations to the East and West—The Brooklyn Fire Ladder—A Bill for the Gas Companies—New York's new bill for the gas companies—Railroad Companies.

ALBANY, Feb. 7.—The Senate spent most of the morning in discussing a proposition for a recess. It has been customary to take a recess of ten days to cover the 22d of February, but this year the desire to see Ulysses take his new departure led to an effort to extend the recess to the 21st of March. This was accomplished by the most two-fifths from even the truly loyal senators, and after a long discussion the subject was finally dropped. It is generally understood, however, that Speaker Cornell, Lunt, Gov. Robinson, and Boss Murphy have expressed a desire to attend the grand opening of the inauguration, and it is very likely that a recess covering the last of March will be taken.

THE POLICE JUSTICES. Learn that at the hearing on the Police Justices bill Mr. Dorman B. Eaton proposes to make some startling statements. It is said that he will make a statement on the bill, and that he is having appropriated fines and received bribes in ball cases where some of the most notorious criminals in New York were interested, and that those parties are now walking the streets with impunity, the papers in their cases never having been sent to the District Attorney's office. He will name some of them who he says have delayed examinations for consideration in order to give an opportunity for the compounding of felonies. Mr. Eaton would, it is said, have made these charges at the hearing last Tuesday had the Justices put an appearance at that time. If the impeachment magistrates should be present on Thursday a lively time may be expected. The opinion seems to be that they are convinced that the bill will pass, and that their days are numbered, and will be ready to go to the wall.

BROOKLYN'S EXEMPT FIREMEN'S FUND. For four years a fight has been going on between factions of the Brooklyn Exempt Firemen's Association, the result of which has been a side being to get control of the fund, amounting to $100,000. The fight has been a long one, and the factions have been unable to agree. The fund is now in the hands of the court, and the factions are still fighting. The fund is now in the hands of the court, and the factions are still fighting.

WHAT THE FEES IS ABOUT. The whole matter seems to be a fight on the part of the Exempt Firemen's Association to turn out the greedy mechanics, who, they claim, are taking the fees out of the fund. One of the gentlemen who appeared in favor of the bill was so indiscreet as to say that he had a conversation with the Exempt Firemen's Association, and that he had a conversation with the Exempt Firemen's Association, and that he had a conversation with the Exempt Firemen's Association.

THE PROPOSED CANAL. The bill introduced by Mr. Weed of Clinton for the improvement of the Hudson river, from Troy to Fort Edward, and the West Kill, from West Kill to Fort Edward, has attracted much attention, and it is said that the bill will be passed. The bill is for the improvement of the Hudson river, from Troy to Fort Edward, and the West Kill, from West Kill to Fort Edward.

DIRECT COMMUNICATION WITH NEW YORK. It is claimed that the completion of these lines will result in a saving of $1,000,000 to the State of New York without breaking bank, and that the State will be able to pay the cost of the lines. It is estimated that the entire cost cannot exceed $3,000,000, and Mr. Weed contends that the State will be able to pay the cost of the lines.

THE BOARD OF COMMERCE BILL. The bill introduced by Mr. Campbell to facilitate travel in the streets and avenues of New York is now in the hands of the committee. The bill is for the improvement of the Hudson river, from Troy to Fort Edward, and the West Kill, from West Kill to Fort Edward.

BLOODGOOD & CO.'S CLERK. THE UNEXPECTED TERMINATION OF A WEDDING TOUR.

Repentance in St. John, N. B.—In Jail in Bangor, Me.—A Railroad Accident—The Romantic Adventures of William C. Murray and his Schoolgirl Bride.

Yesterday morning, at 7 o'clock, Detective Dilke and Tully arrived from Boston with William C. Murray, late the cashier of Bloodgood & Co., bankers, and his bride. They were both taken to the Central office. After a short examination Murray was sent to the Tombs, and Mrs. Murray was permitted to return to her parents, but finding nothing of any value about him, she returned to her home in Boston.

Murray and his wife left Boston on Tuesday night, the 21st of January, and arrived in Boston the next morning. They immediately took a train for Portland, Me., where they remained one day. From Portland they proceeded to Bangor, where they stayed until the following Monday. While in Bangor Mrs. Murray was told that her husband had a note to the bank and changed it for greenbacks; but when he returned to the hotel he began to cry bitterly and told her that he wished he had not left New York.

Murray was taken to the Tombs on Tuesday night, the 21st of January, and arrived in Boston the next morning. They immediately took a train for Portland, Me., where they remained one day. From Portland they proceeded to Bangor, where they stayed until the following Monday.

ANOTHER WIFE SLAYER. A Husband's Return to his Starving Family—In Thirteenth Street—Dying Her—Accusing Her Husband of Shooting Her.

About 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Charles Hoy, 38 years of age, entered his apartment on the third floor of the tenement at 649 East Thirteenth street, where one of his children were. He ordered his wife to lock the door. As she turned toward him, after having done so, he drew two pistols and discharged the contents of one of them into his wife's right breast and neck. She fell upon the floor, and three hours later she was found dead.

A boy hearing the noise of a scuffle and the discharge of the pistol, raised a window and screamed "Murder." Officer Mayer of the Union Market police station, saw the man and ran and gave chase. He overtook the woman at 649 East Thirteenth street. There they found the woman lying on the floor covered with blood and insensible, and the husband standing over her with a pistol in his hand.

The pistols were found in a wash tub, where they had been thrown. The woman had been shot in the breast and neck. The husband was arrested and taken to the Tombs. The woman was found dead.

THE WRESTLING EXPERTS. A NEW YORK ATHLETE COMING WITH BOSTON'S MONEY.

Something rather livelier than a Cattle Market in Brighton—Homer Lane Wins $2,000 and the Championship—The Dublin Champion Discomfited.

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—The long-pending wrestling match for $2,000 and championship of America, between Homer Lane of New York and Lang Dolan of Boston, was decided at Brighton, Mass., to-night, in favor of Lane. The match was arranged on the 14th of January last, when articles of agreement were duly signed for the men to wrestle collar and elbow, best two three fall, for $1,000 a side, Lane to wrestle 150 pounds, Dolan's weight not to be limited. On Wednesday Homer Lane arrived here from New York, accompanied by a number of sporting men. The match created a lively interest here, and for the past two weeks at the numerous sporting houses speculation was brisk, Dolan having the call at $20 to $40. Both men have many admirers. The Brighton sports are solid for Dolan, while Lane is the choice at all places. Dolan stands five feet nine inches, weighs 150 pounds. He is a native of Dublin, Ireland, and has won many matches. He has won numerous matches here, and his backers suppose him invincible. He is stout, muscular, and well formed, a model for a scouper. Lane stands five feet eight inches, weighs 100 pounds when in condition. For this match he had to reduce himself ten pounds below his weight. He has been in the ring for 113 matches, of which he won 84. He was born in Lewis county, N. Y., and began wrestling when he was seventeen years of age. He is the recognized champion of the world.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT. Another Discussion on the Washington Treaty—The Government Accused of Surrendering the Dominion of the Canal Zone.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—In the House of Commons yesterday night was given of the introduction of bills providing for the abolition of capital punishment, looking to the establishment of a protectorate over the Feejee Islands, providing that all treaties made between Great Britain and foreign powers must receive the ratification of Parliament, legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister, and providing for the purchase of the English railways by the Government.

The Hon. Percy Wyndham followed in condemnation of the treaty and its results. He pointed out the fact that the Government had made a great change in international law, and that the treaty was a surrender of the Dominion of the Canal Zone.

A MONSTER IN EXETER JAIL. CONFESSION OF THE MURDERER OF THE JOYCE CHILDREN.

A Nice Killed in Derry, N. H.—A Girl Killed in Augusta, Me.—A Woman Killed Near Fitchburg—The Joyce Children Killed—The Killing of Georgiana Lovering.

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—According to the confession of Evans, in 1858 he stole away and killed a little niece in Derry, N. H., aged five years. In 1861 he assaulted and killed the throat of a girl of fourteen years, in Augusta, Me. (for which, by the way, another man died in prison. In 1865 he outraged the person of Isabella Joyce, aged fourteen, and then killed her and her brother John, a boy of twelve, in Bussey's Woods, near Boston. In 1872, June 10, he is charged with a similar crime upon the person of a woman found dead in the woods near Fitchburg, Mass.; and during the year he outraged, mutilated the person of, and murdered Georgiana Lovering, a girl of twelve years, near Exeter, N. H. He is charged with the murder of the Joyce children, and the killing of Georgiana Lovering.
