

THE BUFFALO CONVENTION.

PURCELL DEFEATED BY MAYNARD FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

The County Democracy Again Recognized as the Regular Democracy of New York City—Chapin Nominated for Comptroller—A State Committee Favorable to Manning.

BUFFALO, Sept. 27.—The Democratic State Convention completed its work to-night with peace and harmony all round. Tammany, Irving Hall, and the County Democracy took part in the proceedings. The "slate" ticket was successful, and after the defeat of Purcell for Secretary of State, on which the best of strength was made, there was little animosity in the contest for other places. The new State Chairman, two-thirds of its members being his warm supporters.

The rival city organizations kept up a pretense of contest after the State Committee disposed of them last night. The County Democracy delegates were in session until 1 o'clock this morning, discussing the same, and voting in the County Democracy. They decided to appeal from the decision of the State Committee to the Convention's Committee on Credentials, but at the same time appointed a committee of five to select the thirty-eight delegates to the State Committee had voted to award them on the rolls.

QUARTER-TON MRS. MOSES.

The Other Bowers' Curiousities Claim that She Has Hurt the Profession.

Mrs. Moses, who is the wife of the late John Bowers, is said to have earned the hearty will of every thinking citizen on the Bowery. They say she has done more to hurt the profession than any other woman in the city.

The trouble is right here, said the living Bowers, in the show further up the Bowery. "I speak for all the other bona fide curiosities. We think that when a man or woman is a real, genuine curiosity nothing more ought to be expected of 'em. The whole business all along the Bowery has been upset to-day. The managers have come to every professional and asked what each was able to do to help things along. The managers here won't speak to our lady because she didn't think of the marriage racket first. They quarrelled about it, and she burst out crying. Says she, 'I'll commit suicide before I'll be talked to that way.' Will you notice the man jumping from the floor? He is a Bowery man, and he is a week if you will.

The Bowery men were green with envy, and kept dropping into the show that had the bride and groom on exhibition. They all congratulated the successful show, so much as to give a Bowery man a dollar. "You don't care for that, though," said one of the showmen in the successful show, so much as to give a Bowery man a dollar.

It was 9 o'clock when Mr. Herick of Albany, Chairman of the Credentials Committee, called on the platform to report to the Convention. The decision of the County Democracy corner, and Tammany, because a volley of hisses, Mr. Herick moved the rural delegates to the front of the hall, and in a few minutes he had secured a list of names for the Convention.

NORMAN AMBLER'S STORY.

HE THINKS LEWIS KNOWS ALL ABOUT ROSE AMBLER'S MURDER.

Lewis Accused of Attempting to Run Her Husband and Rose into the Ground. Her Story as Told to the Experts.

STRAFORD, Sept. 27.—The supply of persons whom there was reason to suspect of having any knowledge of the murder of Rose Ambler or who might possibly hold entertaining theories about the crime has been exhausted. This morning the Coroner's jury adjourned until Saturday morning. The testimony of Norman Ambler, brother of Dr. White, the expert in microscopy, was of little importance. Nothing has been learned that tends to further criminate Lewis, and the evidence of Dr. White is decidedly in his favor.

A Birmingham man came down to-day with a story to the effect that Lewis was about to flee. Inquiry showed that his tale had no other basis than that he saw Lewis standing on the steps of the savings bank in Birmingham, and he jumped to the conclusion that he was about to secure all his money and effect an escape. Lewis was seen in Stratford last evening. The man who looked as if he contemplated staying there.

When Norman Ambler, Rose's divorced husband, walked into the jury room he was eyed curiously by the Coroner and his associates. He gave his testimony in a way that impressed the jury with the successful result of his acquaintance and marriage with Rose, he was asked to tell of Lewis's visit to his house and his conduct toward her wife. He said that the two were married in New York, and that he became aware of the improper intimacy that had sprung up between the groom and his bride. He said that he had seen Lewis on several occasions, but that he did not return until 2 o'clock in the morning. AN BLOPING COUPLE CAUGHT.

The Daughter of a Bar Harbor Hotel Keeper who Ran Away with a Stevedore.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—An elderly man of apparent wealth and respectability arrived here yesterday, and after a short walk along Washington avenue met a young man and woman, who seemed greatly astonished and alarmed at the sight of him. The trio went to the depot, and purchased tickets for the East, but soon afterward went to Police Headquarters, where a complaint was made against the young man charging him with abducting the girl.

The wronged father is E. T. Hamer, proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel at Bar Harbor. The girl is his daughter Belle, aged 17 years, and her alleged abductor is Lewis H. Conners, a young man of about 25 years of age. Conners was previously in the employ of Hamer, but he left the hotel on Sept. 7, and Conners and eloped with him. The father has since been on their trail. Conners is said to be a man with only 20 or 25 years old, but he does not live with his wife, and for the past three years has been devoting his time to the study of the occult. He is not a student of any of the occult sciences, but he is a student of the occult sciences, and he is a student of the occult sciences.

There was unusual activity in the barracks at Fort Hamilton yesterday morning. Sixty soldiers with loaded muskets, under command of Capt. Brinkley, marched to the village of West Utrecht. They came to the village of West Utrecht, and they came to the village of West Utrecht.
