

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1884.

WHEN FOR CLEVELAND AND FOR BUTLER IN BOSTON MEETINGS.

Gov. Cleveland's Course Commended by Bostonians. The Bostonian's Name Evoked. The Bostonian's Name Evoked. The Bostonian's Name Evoked.

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Interviews printed in the local papers to-day show that Gen. Butler's candidacy will cause him to part company with most of the Democratic leaders of the State.

The Hon. P. A. Collins presided, and on taking the platform said: "We are here to-day as Democrats and nothing else."

The Hon. Josiah T. Abbott made a long address. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. Thomas G. Jordan was the next speaker. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. E. P. Pillsbury followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

The Hon. J. W. Foster followed in the same strain. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste. He was too dry and argumentative for the Bostonian's taste.

ABOUT THE HEADQUARTERS.

Success at the Effect of Butler's Nomination—The Republican Safe Ready.

Ex-Gov. Hendricks visited the headquarters of the Democratic National and State Committees yesterday. He expressed confidence in the success of the Democratic ticket. He will go to the seashore to-day or Monday.

Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago was among the prominent visitors to the National Committee's rooms. He is reasonably confident of his election as Governor of Illinois, and thinks that Cleveland has more than a fighting chance in that State.

At the Democratic headquarters the candidate of Gen. Butler is regarded as likely to be chosen. The campaign managers believe that most of the votes will be those of the Butler men.

Another Defiance of Cleveland. A New Haven Independent's Reply to an Issue. The Independent's Reply to an Issue.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 8.—Talbot H. Russell, one of the leaders of the Independent Republican movement here, has written to the New Haven Evening Register in reply to an inquiry upon the Cleveland scandal. Mr. Russell says:

In almost every instance in our politics, where nothing else could be trumped up against the candidate, one of these detestable nasty stories, founded on facts, of course, but facts in themselves comparatively insignificant in each instance as compared with the story which has been invented and circulated. Among those men referred to are George Washington, Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson, Aaron Burr, Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson, and so on.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

Gov. Cleveland's Vacancy. Avoiding Public Demonstrations on his Trip to Saratoga Lake. Prattburgh, Aug. 8.—Gov. Cleveland arrived in Prattburgh last evening in the Montreal train which left Albany at about 1 P. M.

CAUGHT JOURNAN BY ACCIDENT.

A Piece of Luck for Inspector Bryant as He Got Mrs. Tip Little into Trouble.

There was a bright light in the front parlor of 54 Lexington avenue at 9 A. M. yesterday, and Policeman Joseph Johnson, as he passed, saw on the curtains the shadow of a man and a woman who were struggling together. In a moment the woman made an outcry, and the policeman entered the house by the unlocked door. When the woman saw him she let go of the man and cried:

"It's a lie," said the man. "She's jealous of me, and is trying to put a job on me." The woman stamped her foot and vehemently insisted that the man had robbed her. Johnson asked for her name. "Tip Little," she said. "Take him away."

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab. The man was taken to the station in a cab. The woman was taken to the station in a cab.

CARSEY HOLDS A MEETING.

GETTING EVEN WITH KROGH AND QUINN BY A BRICKLAYER.

"Blaine Says You are Fixed at the Other End—Send the Funds—What Kind of Party is This Party?—Bricklayers Talk." A National Labor party was to have held a convention in Chicago on July 30. A number of delegates claiming to represent a majority of the National Committee, and headed by W. A. Carsey, Wilson S. Wolf, and others, went from New York to Chicago and adjourned the Convention until 1885, adopting resolutions that praised Gov. Cleveland.

J. W. Keogh, Mr. Rooney, and others of the Executive Committee declared that Carsey and Wolf had acted without authority, recommended their expulsion from the National Committee, declared that they had attempted to sell out the party, and announced that the Labor Convention will be held on Sept. 1.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

Mr. Carsey called what he termed a meeting of the Executive Committee of the party in New York "to hear the report of the delegates to the Chicago Convention." Twenty-four men who, Mr. Carsey said, represented all the districts in the State, were present.

THE TRIPARTITE ALLIANCE.

All of the Heads Except the Rock Island Willing to Dissolve It.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Some additional details of Thursday's railway conference have come to the surface. In the event that the tripartite alliance should be dissolved for the old order of things, Mr. Cable would demand a larger portion of the pools by virtue of its interest in the tripartite. It was the work of but a moment to knock this idea into a "cocked hat."

Mr. Potter and Mr. Huggitt said that they could not under any circumstances consider such a demand on the part of the Rock Island, and with positive effect further that he should demand the establishment of separate pools on east and west-bound business, and that the Rock Island should continue the tripartite alliance.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

The Union Pacific people, with reference to the alliance, are in a peculiar position. It is positively known that the President has privately condemned the alliance as a failure, and has said that the Union Pacific had realized at its hands nothing but disaster.

ONE MORE NEW YORK NEWSPAPER.

Field Marshal Murat Halted to Start His Next Monday Afternoon.

Mr. Murat Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette has been negotiating for the establishment of a daily paper in this city. The enterprise has at last taken definite shape. On Monday afternoon next the first number of the paper will appear.

"I did not intend to speak of the matter until Saturday," said Mr. Halstead in the Brevoort House last night. "It is quite sure that the paper is to appear. We will make it about the size of the New York Herald, and will be full of news, and will be full of news, and will be full of news."

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

As to whether I shall make New York my home, I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided. I have not yet decided.

THE DEAD ARCTIC HEROES.

HONORS PAID TO THEIR REMAINS IN GOVERNOR'S ISLAND.

The Bodies of Eleven of Lieut. Greely's Command, who perished on the ice of the Arctic, were taken to the Governor's Island. The bodies were taken to the Governor's Island. The bodies were taken to the Governor's Island.

Daybreak yesterday revealed the Groveland relief fleet, consisting of the steamers "Thetis," "Bear," and "Alert," bearing the remains of eleven members of the Greely party who perished in the north, lying off Staten Island. They steamed slowly up the bay at 10 o'clock, watched by hundreds of people on the emerald slopes of Governor's Island, and dropped anchor just above Bleecker's Island. As the vessels passed, the national salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the harbor whistles as their flags and colors blew their whistles as the fleet passed. In the meantime crowds of people from the city were landed on the island by the steamboat Thomas Kiley, which ran from the Battery. The injunction "Keep off the grass" was disregarded, mainly because the pavements were not large or numerous enough to accommodate the throngs of the relief fleet. Commodore Pillsbury and his staff, in a steam launch, accompanied the tug. The cutter "Ordnance" landed Secretary Lincoln, Lieut.-Gen. Sheridan and his staff, and Gen. Hazen. The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."

The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear." The bodies of the eleven men were transferred to the "Thetis" and "Bear."