

A VERY SHORT PROTEST.

ENGLAND'S THREATENED POLICY OF COERCION IN IRELAND.

A Mass Meeting of American Citizens Demands England's Acts of Oppression Toward Ireland—Resolutions Passed. The great hall of Cooper Union was well filled with a representative gathering of American citizens of various nationalities last night, in response to a call by the Municipal Council of the Irish National League to protest against proposed coercion in Ireland. Conspicuous among those seated upon the platform were Judge Reynolds, James P. Farrell, John J. Macklin, ex-Judge Noah Davis, the Rev. J. J. Dougherty, Gen. James R. O'Brien, Major James Hargraves, Algonson B. Sullivan, Judge J. H. McCarthy, the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, and Arthur A. O'Grady. The meeting was called for by John J. Van Name, President of the Municipal Council, who stated the object of the meeting, and introduced the Hon. Charles A. Dana, as Chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Dana was received with great applause. He said the question of coercion in Ireland is one which the citizens of New York had to interfere with England's treatment of Ireland and the Irish. In the name of justice and human rights, he said, we have the right and duty to protest against oppression and wrong everywhere. Then, again, Irishmen form a large and influential portion of our population, and what interests and affects them is of concern to us. Again, we contribute the funds to maintain the great struggle which Parnell is so gallantly making for home rule in Ireland. Where is the Irish treasury? It is in the hearts and pockets of the thousands of our countrymen. It is our duty to maintain the struggle that will come, on the adoption of the policy of coercion, will come from here. Therefore we have every right to enter our protest against England's proposed coercion of the Irish people.

The Rev. Dr. Lloyd was the first speaker, and he made a most rousing speech. He proposed that the policy of coercion be more brutal than any that had preceded it, and he pictured in glowing and eloquent terms the horrors which would be visited upon the Irish people. He said that the policy of coercion was a crime against the rights of the Irish people, and he called upon the American people to stand up to the tyrant. He said that the policy of coercion was a crime against the rights of the Irish people, and he called upon the American people to stand up to the tyrant.

Ex-Gov. Abbott of New Jersey received an ovation, and he said that the policy of coercion was a crime against the rights of the Irish people, and he called upon the American people to stand up to the tyrant. He said that the policy of coercion was a crime against the rights of the Irish people, and he called upon the American people to stand up to the tyrant.

Senator William M. Everts was the last speaker, and he said that the policy of coercion was a crime against the rights of the Irish people, and he called upon the American people to stand up to the tyrant. PROBABLY NOT WEEKS' MURDERER.

How the Alleged Identification of Peter J. Ingalls Came About.

Peter J. Ingalls, who was arrested on the Bowery on Thursday for shooting at Policeman Hinloth and Roundsmen Donnell and of the Tremont squad on the night of Feb. 18, had an extraordinary story to tell. He said that he had been in the market square at the time of the shooting, and that he had seen the man who shot at him. He said that the man who shot at him was a man of about 30 years of age, and that he had seen him in the market square at the time of the shooting. THE FIRE FIGHT AT WORK.

FIFTY-FIVE SUMMER COTTAGES BURNED IN CHAUTAQUA.

The New Hotel and the Assembly Buildings have been destroyed by a fire which broke out in the Theatre in Troy-Bait Works Burned. BUFFALO, March 21.—By the fire at Chautauqua Assembly grounds on Sunday night, fifty-five cottages were burned, causing a loss estimated at $75,000. The fire started at about 10:15, and it was daylight before the flames could be reached. The fire was caused by a gas stove in one of the cottages. THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

AN IMPORTANT BILL SLIPPED UNNOTICED THROUGH THE ASSEMBLY.

It Allowed the Cable Road to Remedy Defects in its Articles of Incorporation—The Bill Taxing Bucket Shops Passed in the Senate—Justice Murray Retired. ALBANY, March 21.—One of the many cable road bills that have been offered this session was passed in the Assembly this evening without anybody knowing what it really was. It is the first of the series to pass. The bill is an amendment of the code, and was offered by Mr. McIntyre, and on its face it seems innocent and harmless. It provides that any corporation or association that is defectively organized, or that wants to change its articles of incorporation, may do so, and then go on in a legal way. As the courts have decided that the Cable Road Company was improperly organized, and that its articles of incorporation are not good, this act will allow the cable road to remedy the defect and start over again. This would seem to be a rather important matter, but it was so unimportant that the members stopped their chatting, and left writing to see what they were voting on. Mr. McIntyre, in his speech, said that he thought the bill was of great importance, and that it would be a great benefit to the State.

THE GREAT FLOODS.

An Impassable Ice-jammed Torrent Between Bismarck and Mandan.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 20.—Judge Francis, who left Bismarck on Saturday and reached here to-day, says the scene in the flooded river to-day is a fearful one. The ice is a hundred feet across, and is in the air several feet whenever they struck an obstacle. The force of the current snapped cables holding the warehouse to the bank, and they were cotton threads. "In some strange," said the Judge, "to have Mandan in full view only five miles away, you are accessible to communication." Several tons of Western mail have been broken up from Bismarck, and sent around via the Union Pacific. BISMARCK, March 21.—The river is still rising in an hour, but it is already passing a high-water mark of the flood of 1881. All the lowlands are inundated. The only houses flooded are the Bismarck side, and a few square blocks. From the bluffs one can see huge banks of ice up near the streets, and the only method of communication between the towns is by Chyenne and Ogden. The Boston Byndotte property, including a flouring mill, some fifty residences, a grocery, shops, and everything south of the track, is now a desolate waste. The Mandan division of the Northern Pacific says that trains are running through to Mandan from Fort Totten, but that the route is so bad that it is difficult to dislodge the ice gorge above Mandan has been fully.

NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD.

THE FIGHT OVER IRELAND TO BEGIN AGAIN IN PARLIAMENT.

It Will be Precedented by the New Crimes Bill—Many Crowned Heads in Berlin—Preparations to Honor Germany's Kaiser. LONDON, March 21.—The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, intimated in the House of Commons this evening that the Government would introduce a bill making certain provision for the prevention and punishment of crime in Ireland. The Right Hon. W. H. Smith, First Lord of the Treasury, gave notice that the Government would move that the new Irish Crimes bill have precedence over all orders of the day. Mr. John Morley at once gave notice that he would move an amendment to the Government's motion to the effect that the House decline to set aside business in favor of a measure increasing the stringency of the law against the abuse of the law by the exaction of excessive rents. Mr. Morley's amendment was received with loud cheers by the Irish members. Mr. Smith's motion for the Government will be opposed to the utmost by the combined strength of the Gladstonians and the Parnellites, and it is expected that an early statement of the land proposals, but the opposition are determined not to permit the introduction of the bill until the land question has been dealt with. The Parnellites are gratified at Mr. Morley's amendment, and warmly approve it. The amendment was drafted last week by Morley, Balfour, and Gladstone, and is a strong statement of the Government's policy.
