

PELHAM STEEPLECHASERS.

RETURNED YESTERDAY TO THE COUNTRY CLUB. Bad Weather Does Not Prevent Some Good Racing - Heavy Weather, but Exciting Races - Pelham Steeplechase Club.

It was a cold morning afternoon, and the wind on the grand stand whirled and wondered why the races didn't begin. It was very cold comfort seeing the man in the judge's stand...

It was a cold morning afternoon, and the wind on the grand stand whirled and wondered why the races didn't begin. It was very cold comfort seeing the man in the judge's stand...

MARYLAND JOCKEY CLUB RACES.

Bradford, Leland, Linden, Ontario, and Fall Lee the winners. BALTIMORE, Oct. 20.—The third day of the meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club was heavily pelted rain almost entirely destroyed the pleasure of the day...

The Guttenberg Races. The Guttenberg, N. J., race track had a large attendance on the concluding weather. The betting was lively and the bookmakers were happy.

Meeting at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 20.—The track was fast to-day. First Race—Purse $250, all ages; three-quarters of a mile; ten starters. Fisher came first, Paul Diver second, and Fred Hales, Eufaula, and Catherine...

MONMOUTH PARK ASSOCIATION.

All but Forty of its 400 Shares of Stock in the Hands of Resident Owners. FREEHOLD, N. J., Oct. 20.—Country Clerk Patterson received a record this week that amended certificate of incorporation of the Monmouth Park Association. This association was originally incorporated in May, 1873, with a capital of $40,000.

Meeting in England.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—This was the first day of the London autumn meeting. The race for the Queen's Plate was the first of the day.

The Fever at Tampa.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Surgeon-General Hamlin today received a telegram from Deputy Collector Spencer at Tampa, Fla., saying that there have been two deaths and five new cases since last report.

A LOSS WILL.

Mysterious Disappearance of the Late Andrew J. Hall's Last Testament. BOSTON, Oct. 20.—The newspapers to-day contain an offer of $500 reward for the recovery of the will of the late Andrew J. Hall, a prominent business man and politician. Mr. Hall died in March last, and a few days afterward his will, consisting of $20,000 worth of property, mysteriously disappeared from his safe.

It was a cold morning afternoon, and the wind on the grand stand whirled and wondered why the races didn't begin. It was very cold comfort seeing the man in the judge's stand...

It was a cold morning afternoon, and the wind on the grand stand whirled and wondered why the races didn't begin. It was very cold comfort seeing the man in the judge's stand...

It was a cold morning afternoon, and the wind on the grand stand whirled and wondered why the races didn't begin. It was very cold comfort seeing the man in the judge's stand...

THE DEMAND FOR PLAYERS.

THE RELEASE ORDERED IN JANUARY LAST, and the Order Rescinded in Oct. 15. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20, 1887. To Judge Lafayette Dutton and W. D. Ball, Jr., Esq., Attorney, Alaska. I am directed by the President to instruct you to discontinue all further proceedings in the matter of the release of the British vessel, and to direct the officers of the United States to see that the vessel is released, and to discharge all vessels now held under such seizures, and release all persons that may be under arrest in connection therewith.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

SHOT DEAD AT HIS BENCH.

A GERMAN SHOEMAKER KILLED BY A FELLOW CRAFTSMAN. The Murderer was a Wife in Brooklyn who shot her husband dead at his workbench. The victim was a German shoemaker, and the murderer was a fellow craftsman.

THE SHIPPER'S BROTHER.

THE RELEASE ORDERED IN JANUARY LAST, and the Order Rescinded in Oct. 15. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day.

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day.

THE SHIPPER'S BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day.

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day.

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day.

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day. The following is the text of the telegram directing the release:

WAS KILLED BY HIS BROTHER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The correspondence between the Department of Justice and its officers in Alaska regarding the release of the British vessel seized during the summer of 1886 for alleged violation of the seal fishing laws, was made public to-day.