

MANAGER HALL'S BOODLE.

HIS THREE LIQUOR LIENS IN THE WALK ATTACH HIS BANK ACCOUNT.

The winners in the Long Walk Meet to Divulge Their Spots—Albert, the Champion, Takes $3,313.70 of the Money, with $1,500 Added.

Manager Hall's troubles had not ended with the race. He is bitterly denominated by many of the walkers and the old accountants of the sale of complimentary tickets will not down. He denies it emphatically, and says again that he does not know where the complimentary tickets that the speculators sold on the sidewalk were procured. Among those who were bitter in talking against him yesterday were his ex-tenants, William F. Corvay, William W. Allen, and James C. Kennedy. Mr. Corvay is the tenant whose Hall sent over to England after the English walkers, and has been active in the management of the walk. O'Brien was an assistant to Hall and a judge, and Kennedy was associated with O'Brien. All three say that they have tried since Saturday night to get Hall to pay them what they are entitled to. They say that they learned that he had all his property in his wife's name, and that the receipts of the walk were deposited in the Second National Bank in the name of A. C. Hassitt of Philadelphia, who acted as treasurer at the Garden. They were afraid that Hall intended to get away with the money, and they got an attachment on the bank account. Corvay's claim is for $1,000 and Kennedy's is for $500. The deputy sheriff, with the attachments which were granted by Judge Fishkin in the afternoon, did not get to the bank until late in the evening. O'Brien says that in a few minutes the money had been taken from the bank. But the bank officials declined to pay it over.

Hall said that he had intended to be liberal to O'Brien and to pay the money to the winners to prove their claims dollar for dollar. Of Kennedy, he said he had made no engagement with him at all. His father says that in the Ashland House after they had made the money account, but nothing came of the meeting. Each reported the other to the court. O'Brien says that yesterday morning's Times printed an interview with Hall in which he said that reporters had been told that he had made no engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

Mr. Hall yesterday if this interesting to him was, and he said it was. Then he was asked if he had made any engagement with any of them and that he had been "jumped on" by the newspapers because he would not give up.

THE OUTRAGE ON PATRICK O'BRIEN.

An Effort to Secure Redress in the Home of His Ex-Tenant.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Mr. Piston, Home Secretary, directed attention in the House of Commons to-day to the arrest in London last week of Messrs. Pyno, Patrick O'Brien, and Gilhooly, Irish members of Parliament, which, he asserted, constituted a breach of privilege. The Speaker, in reply, said that Messrs. Pyno and Gilhooly were arrested on a criminal warrant. In the case of a breach of privilege had been committed. The arrest of Mr. O'Brien, however, was a breach of privilege.

Mr. Matthews, Home Secretary, apologized for the indignity to which Mr. O'Brien had been subjected. The occurrence was an unfortunate one.

Sir R. E. Webster, Attorney-General, denied that any privilege existed. Explanations and apologies had been given, and if they did not suffice to satisfy Mr. O'Brien he could try to find a remedy elsewhere.

The Attorney-General moved an amendment of the effect that the House regretted the indignity to which Mr. O'Brien had been subjected, but did not think it necessary to propose any redress.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

Mr. Gladstone admitted that as far as an apology was concerned, the Home Secretary had done his best. He believed that Mr. O'Brien, he said, was not only arrested within the precincts of the House, but was seized by the police on the stairs leading to the House.

SIX PERSONS CREMATED.

FIRE IN A HUNGARIAN BOARDING HOUSE IN THE MINING REGION.

The inmates, Craved with Drink, Begun to Fight, and One Threw a Lighted Lamp, which Exploded and Ignited the Building.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 13.—A large boarding house near Silver Brook, seven miles from this place, was burned to the ground at about 11 o'clock last night, and six persons were burned to death in it, before they had time to escape, and others were seriously burned.

The dead are John Elias, 30 years of age; John Kobinski, 35 years, married; Paul Siskowitz, 31 years, married, whose family are in the old country; John Seddo, 23 years, single; Michael Yankovitch, aged 30, married, and has a family, and Mary Manick, 17.

The injured are Lawrence Manick and his wife and child, all seriously burned about the face and head; Peter Manski, burned out about the body by jumping through a window; Joseph Braako, face, limbs, and body badly burned.

The boarding house was a large double frame building, one side of it was occupied by John Deidinger and his family, and the other side by Lawrence Manick. The latter kept twenty boarders. They were all Hungarians, who boarded in the mines and breaker of J. S. Worts & Co. at New Silver Brook. In the afternoon the whole number of them came to this place to attend a religious service in the St. Peter's Polish Catholic Church. Polish and Hungarian societies from various towns were invited to the church, and they were there when they went to the Hungarian drinking place.

The drinking place was a large room, and the inmates were intoxicated. At 11 o'clock P. M. they left their beds and went back to their rooms. At about 11:30 P. M. a fire broke out in the room known by the stationer. It was then cut off from the burning building. They were then cut off from the burning building.

The escape was made by sawing four bars from the cell door, which led the men into the street. They then ran to the street, and reached the attic by sawing through eight bars forming the roof of the corridor, and then cut through the sheet-iron roof, and a rope made the ground between the jail and the Court House. In making the descent one of the men was killed, and the others were injured.

NO SILVER COIN IN PERU. Great Disappointment to the Silver Mining Districts Over to the Lack of Success.

PANAMA, Feb. 5.—In the rich mining district of Cerro de Pasco, Peru, there is to-day no silver money in circulation, and the paper money question is causing there, as throughout Peru, much consternation. Up to the present the Indian laborers have not attacked the stores, as it was anticipated they would do, on account of the refusal of the owners of merchandise to receive the coin.

This is due to a committee having been sent to Lima to endeavor to obtain sufficient coin with which to recommence paying the laborers in silver. But alarm is still felt, as there are over 100,000 pieces of paper money in circulation, and it is increasing every day, so no one can tell what will be the results when their limited savings are put into circulation.

As it is, no one can enter a mine to work without receiving a sound thrashing when he comes to the surface. The day after yesterday the other day which runs in from the side of a hill, but stones and rocks were showered on the miners, and they were obliged to abandon the attempt after receiving numerous blows.

No one believes it is possible that specie payments can be recommenced within a month. The only way out of the difficulty is to issue new money, and no one who is absolutely without work and without the means of purchasing food?

RIOTS IN ECUADOR. The Priests in Guayaquil Attacked by Citizens—Several Persons Killed.

PANAMA, Feb. 5.—Much excitement has been caused in Guayaquil owing to a Spanish priest in charge of the bishopric having excommunicated the citizens of this city. A mob, in which many of the best-known citizens of Guayaquil were prominent, stoned the bishop's palace. Thence they went to the residence of Dr. Nevia, the legal advisor of the episcopate. On stones being thrown, Dr. Nevia and some friends who were with him fled to the street, and were fired at by the people. Several persons were killed and wounded before a troop of soldiers arrived to disperse the mob.

The Rev. William Miller of New Britain was badly hurt in the affray, and as well as the priest, a large number of the people were injured. Fears are entertained that his injuries may prove fatal. Brakeman Doy was injured about the head, and the expert on the street in the back. Miss Hungerford of New Haven and four Germans living in Collinsville were slightly injured.

MRS. LANGTRY'S GOOD LUCK. She's Bared for Water on her Nevada Beach and Struck Rich.

WATERTOWN, Feb. 13.—Erwin A. Gardner, who, with his cousin, Ephraim Gardner, was arrested and taken to Ogdensburgh on Tuesday last on a charge of smuggling opium, has been released on $100,000 bail, and is now in this city. A mob, in which many of the best-known citizens of Guayaquil were prominent, stoned the bishop's palace. Thence they went to the residence of Dr. Nevia, the legal advisor of the episcopate. On stones being thrown, Dr. Nevia and some friends who were with him fled to the street, and were fired at by the people. Several persons were killed and wounded before a troop of soldiers arrived to disperse the mob.

The rapid rate at which the Potter's Field on Hart's Island is filling up with the unclaimed dead induced Dr. A. E. MacDonald, Chief Superintendent of the Insane, to write a letter to the Board of Health, in which he described the results of such wholesale burial on the island, and recommending cremation of the unknown dead. The Commissioners handed the letter to Corporation Counsel Beekman, asking him if such cremation would be lawful. Mr. Beekman is now preparing a bill to amend the laws in this regard.

Until then he proposes to withhold his ideas on the subject. Dr. MacDonald's present method of burial will be continued in the case of patients whose relatives are unable to pay for their burials. The Board of Health, however, has no objection to the use of the Potter's Field, but insists that the necessary arrangements should be made for the burial of the unknown dead. The Board of Health, however, has no objection to the use of the Potter's Field, but insists that the necessary arrangements should be made for the burial of the unknown dead.

Seven Persons Drowned. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 13.—A party of eight persons, all colored, consisting of Horace Carter and his eldest daughter Eliza and younger daughter Hanna, Pierre and Iko Carter, Francis Smith and Lewis and Iko Carter, a party of eight, crossed the river from La Reussite plantation to Dymond's Fairview place on Saturday afternoon in a small boat. The boat was capsized, and all seven of the occupants were drowned. Iko Carter, the boy, managed to cling to a piece of the broken boat.

Two Girls Assaulted by a Negro. BALTIMORE, Feb. 13.—Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning the house of Mr. Francis Barry on Mulberry street, was aroused by the cry of murder by his two daughters, aged respectively 13 and 15 years. The father ran to the room and found a negro, William Thorne, who had forced an entrance into the house, and was in the act of assaulting one of the girls. He grappled with the negro until a policeman arrived, and took him to the police station. There is an old offender, and has served in the penitentiary for his misdeeds.

Subsided's Warning Creditors. The National Park Bank has brought suit against George H. Lieberman, one of the principal creditors of Arthur Cohenfeld, to set aside a conveyance in his wife's residence in East 134th street, made by Cohenfeld to his wife, Mrs. Lieberman, in 1876, for $2,000 each made by Cohenfeld and endorsed by Lieberman. It wants a receiver of the property appointed.

The Atlantic Sails Away on Business. The Atlantic sailed yesterday morning from the Navy Yard, Port-au-Prince, under the command of Capt. Bouché. She will proceed direct to the port of Cap-Haitien, and will return to New York in about ten days. She has a large cargo of sugar and coffee, and will be a valuable addition to the trade of the island.

Poughkeepsie's Closed Against Pugilists. POGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 13.—The manager of the Casino Rink has declined to allow Jack Dempsey and Frank White and other boxers to exhibit there. The manager has decided to close the rink to pugilists, and will only allow the exhibition of other sports. The manager has decided to close the rink to pugilists, and will only allow the exhibition of other sports.

Fatal Fire in a Hospital. ST. ALBANS, Vt., Feb. 13.—Last night, just before midnight, the St. Albans Hospital was completely gutted by fire. Two out of eight patients were saved, and the two who were saved in a closet in the kitchen, and speedily got beyond control. When the Fire Department got to work the whole interior of the building was in flames, and the smoke was so dense that it was impossible for them to enter the building. The fire was caused by a gas lamp, and the building was completely destroyed.

Abandoned Lawyer Crawley Heard From. BOSTON, Feb. 13.—John C. Crowley, the prominent lawyer of this city who abandoned some time ago, leaving from $75,000 to $100,000 worth of indebtedness, has been heard from. He is now in New York, and has been heard from. He is now in New York, and has been heard from.

Curious Meteorological Phenomenon. ITHACA, Feb. 13.—A curious meteorological phenomenon occurred here to-day, which was noticed by many persons. The morning opened with a perfectly clear sky, except in the north, where there was a heavy bank of light chrome-yellow clouds shading to brown at the base. At 10 o'clock a heavy shower of rain fell, followed by two heavy clouds in the northwest, was succeeded by three heavy banks of rain, the last of which, which fell at 10:30, was the heaviest. The rain was accompanied by a strong wind from the northeast, and resembled the kind of rain which is known as a "rain shower." The rain was accompanied by a strong wind from the northeast, and resembled the kind of rain which is known as a "rain shower."

CHIEF EBERHOLD RESIGNS.

The Head of the Chicago Police Succumbs to a Nervous Breakdown.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—When Mayor Roche awoke this evening he found a note pinned to his pillow. It contained the resignation of Frederick Eberhold as chief of the city police force. Ever since Millionaire Snell was found murdered in his house Chief Eberhold has been mercilessly assailed by the local newspapers. The chief bore the criticism for some days, but when the Mayor began to rail against the force for its apparent inefficiency he set down and wrote out his resignation. Chief Eberhold has been on the city police force for twenty years, and now receives a pension of $2,000 a year on the retired list. He was appointed to the chiefship of the department under the Harrison administration, having succeeded Arthur Doyle. At the time of his promotion he was a Captain.

He had a family, and the note of 1886 did not win him much praise, and it was thought at that time that his head would be out of an easy position. He believed that either Gen. Fitzgibbon of the First Regiment or ex-Commissioner Samuel Raymond would be appointed to his place.

ESCAPED FROM PRISON. Three Notorious Prisoners Saw Their Way Out of the St. Paul Jail.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 13.—Billy O'Connell, the Minneapolis Post Office robber; Frank St. Clair and William Thomas, awaiting trial for highway robbery, escaped from Ramsey county jail last evening. The prospects for a recapture are doubtful, as the delivery was made about 7:30 last evening, and their absence was not discovered until about the same hour this morning. The hour of their escape is known by R. Berkhardt, a United States prisoner from Milwaukee, charged with passing counterfeit money. He was then cut off from the burning building.

The escape was made by sawing four bars from the cell door, which led the men into the street. They then ran to the street, and reached the attic by sawing through eight bars forming the roof of the corridor, and then cut through the sheet-iron roof, and a rope made the ground between the jail and the Court House. In making the descent one of the men was killed, and the others were injured.

NO SILVER COIN IN PERU. Great Disappointment to the Silver Mining Districts Over to the Lack of Success.

PANAMA, Feb. 5.—In the rich mining district of Cerro de Pasco, Peru, there is to-day no silver money in circulation, and the paper money question is causing there, as throughout Peru, much consternation. Up to the present the Indian laborers have not attacked the stores, as it was anticipated they would do, on account of the refusal of the owners of merchandise to receive the coin.

This is due to a committee having been sent to Lima to endeavor to obtain sufficient coin with which to recommence paying the laborers in silver. But alarm is still felt, as there are over 100,000 pieces of paper money in circulation, and it is increasing every day, so no one can tell what will be the results when their limited savings are put into circulation.

As it is, no one can enter a mine to work without receiving a sound thrashing when he comes to the surface. The day after yesterday the other day which runs in from the side of a hill, but stones and rocks were showered on the miners, and they were obliged to abandon the attempt after receiving numerous blows.

No one believes it is possible that specie payments can be recommenced within a month. The only way out of the difficulty is to issue new money, and no one who is absolutely without work and without the means of purchasing food?

RIOTS IN ECUADOR. The Priests in Guayaquil Attacked by Citizens—Several Persons Killed.

PANAMA, Feb. 5.—Much excitement has been caused in Guayaquil owing to a Spanish priest in charge of the bishopric having excommunicated the citizens of this city. A mob, in which many of the best-known citizens of Guayaquil were prominent, stoned the bishop's palace. Thence they went to the residence of Dr. Nevia, the legal advisor of the episcopate. On stones being thrown, Dr. Nevia and some friends who were with him fled to the street, and were fired at by the people. Several persons were killed and wounded before a troop of soldiers arrived to disperse the mob.

The rapid rate at which the Potter's Field on Hart's Island is filling up with the unclaimed dead induced Dr. A. E. MacDonald, Chief Superintendent of the Insane, to write a letter to the Board of Health, in which he described the results of such wholesale burial on the island, and recommending cremation of the unknown dead. The Commissioners handed the letter to Corporation Counsel Beekman, asking him if such cremation would be lawful. Mr. Beekman is now preparing a bill to amend the laws in this regard.

Until then he proposes to withhold his ideas on the subject. Dr. MacDonald's present method of burial will be continued in the case of patients whose relatives are unable to pay for their burials. The Board of Health, however, has no objection to the use of the Potter's Field, but insists that the necessary arrangements should be made for the burial of the unknown dead. The Board of Health, however, has no objection to the use of the Potter's Field, but insists that the necessary arrangements should be made for the burial of the unknown dead.

Seven Persons Drowned. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 13.—A party of eight persons, all colored, consisting of Horace Carter and his eldest daughter Eliza and younger daughter Hanna, Pierre and Iko Carter, Francis Smith and Lewis and Iko Carter, a party of eight, crossed the river from La Reussite plantation to Dymond's Fairview place on Saturday afternoon in a small boat. The boat was capsized, and all seven of the occupants were drowned. Iko Carter, the boy, managed to cling to a piece of the broken boat.

Two Girls Assaulted by a Negro. BALTIMORE, Feb. 13.—Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning the house of Mr. Francis Barry on Mulberry street, was aroused by the cry of murder by his two daughters, aged respectively 13 and 15 years. The father ran to the room and found a negro, William Thorne, who had forced an entrance into the house, and was in the act of assaulting one of the girls. He grappled with the negro until a policeman arrived, and took him to the police station. There is an old offender, and has served in the penitentiary for his misdeeds.

Subsided's Warning Creditors. The National Park Bank has brought suit against George H. Lieberman, one of the principal creditors of Arthur Cohenfeld, to set aside a conveyance in his wife's residence in East 134th street, made by Cohenfeld to his wife, Mrs. Lieberman, in 1876, for $2,000 each made by Cohenfeld and endorsed by Lieberman. It wants a receiver of the property appointed.

The Atlantic Sails Away on Business. The Atlantic sailed yesterday morning from the Navy Yard, Port-au-Prince, under the command of Capt. Bouché. She will proceed direct to the port of Cap-Haitien, and will return to New York in about ten days. She has a large cargo of sugar and coffee, and will be a valuable addition to the trade of the island.

Poughkeepsie's Closed Against Pugilists. POGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 13.—The manager of the Casino Rink has declined to allow Jack Dempsey and Frank White and other boxers to exhibit there. The manager has decided to close the rink to pugilists, and will only allow the exhibition of other sports. The manager has decided to close the rink to pugilists, and will only allow the exhibition of other sports.

Fatal Fire in a Hospital. ST. ALBANS, Vt., Feb. 13.—Last night, just before midnight, the St. Albans Hospital was completely gutted by fire. Two out of eight patients were saved, and the two who were saved in a closet in the kitchen, and speedily got beyond control. When the Fire Department got to work the whole interior of the building was in flames, and the smoke was so dense that it was impossible for them to enter the building. The fire was caused by a gas lamp, and the building was completely destroyed.

Abandoned Lawyer Crawley Heard From. BOSTON, Feb. 13.—John C. Crowley, the prominent lawyer of this city who abandoned some time ago, leaving from $75,000 to $100,000 worth of indebtedness, has been heard from. He is now in New York, and has been heard from. He is now in New York, and has been heard from.

Curious Meteorological Phenomenon. ITHACA, Feb. 13.—A curious meteorological phenomenon occurred here to-day, which was noticed by many persons. The morning opened with a perfectly clear sky, except in the north, where there was a heavy bank of light chrome-yellow clouds shading to brown at the base. At 10 o'clock a heavy shower of rain fell, followed by two heavy clouds in the northwest, was succeeded by three heavy banks of rain, the last of which, which fell at 10:30, was the heaviest. The rain was accompanied by a strong wind from the northeast, and resembled the kind of rain which is known as a "rain shower." The rain was accompanied by a strong wind from the northeast, and resembled the kind of rain which is known as a "rain shower."

MISS TILLIE AND LILLIE.

THE SISTERS TO WHOM LAWYER WILLIS WROTE SPOONY LETTERS.

He Says he Did Not Ever Think he Would be Called to Account for Them—His Pleasant Summer Recreations with the Girls.

R. Stewart Willis, the defendant in the breach of promise suit brought by Miss Tillie Ingersoll of Washington, Pa., said to a reporter last evening in Brooklyn: "I believe that Mrs. Ludlow is Miss Tillie Ingersoll at Mrs. Ludlow's in Livingston street, Brooklyn. Mrs. Ludlow is now in Montclair, N. J. That was seventeen years ago, and I had just got out of the Law School. It was for a half hour only. In 1883 I received two or three anonymous letters from Miss Ingersoll in which reference was made to an article in the Standard in which Mrs. Ludlow's name was mentioned. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note. Now I have had a practice of mine never to write an anonymous letter. I did not think that I was doing anything wrong. I was very deep in debt, and also referring poetically to my acquaintance. I wrote letters, some marked therein, including some passages that enclosed a note.