

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

INGALLS OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

Mr. Ingalls has been elected to the position of Governor of Kansas. He is a prominent figure in the Republican party and has a long record of public service.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The dependent pension bill, which has occupied the attention of the Senate for the past week or two, will be voted on before adjournment to-morrow.

When it came up to-day Mr. Ingalls stood at the desk on the right side of the chamber. He was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was surrounded by a large crowd of people, many of whom were taking notes.

Just as Mr. Ingalls was exalting the achievements of the Union soldiers, the main door swung open, and a little man with a red face and close-cropped gray hair came in. It was Gen. Sheridan. The seats were all occupied, and the hall was filled with people.

When the hour of 3 o'clock arrived Senator Platt was in the chair and Mr. Ingalls was not to be seen. A few minutes after the hour of 3 o'clock Mr. Ingalls emerged from the cloak room. He looked more usually pugnacious. His gray hair was thrown about his small head with studied neglect.

Several times the galleries broke out into applause and these were answered by a cheer from the floor. Mr. Ingalls seemed to be in a state of great excitement. He was speaking with a voice of unusual power and authority.

During the utterance of some of his most important phrases, Mr. Ingalls was interrupted by a loud cheer from the galleries. He paused for a moment, and then continued his speech with renewed vigor.

He said that considerations of decorum and propriety, especially in the case of a man of his position, required that he should not be interrupted in the middle of a sentence. He then resumed his speech.

One Senator who had been in the Union-Kansas State did not seem to be particularly interested in the speech. He was looking at his watch and appeared to be impatient.

Mr. Morgan thought the Democratic party had Gen. Hancock as they all voted for him. He was a prominent figure in the party and had a long record of public service.

Mr. Morgan thought the Democratic party had Gen. Hancock as they all voted for him. He was a prominent figure in the party and had a long record of public service.

amounts to be paid to the mutilated and disabled soldiers. The bill is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

had any interest in this matter. They were pleading only for the privileged classes. The committee had had a hearing yesterday afternoon and the bill is expected to pass.

The session of the committee lasted about an hour and three-quarters, and finally, with a formal adjournment, the question of the bill was referred to the committee on the floor.

The Alabama contested election case of McCreary against Davidson is the subject of the bill. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

Mr. Sherman's bill, which is a measure of justice for the soldiers, is expected to pass the Senate. It is a measure of justice and is expected to pass the Senate.

PROGRESS OF THE STRIKE.

BURLINGTON OFFICIALS SAY THEY DO NOT NEED THE OLD MEN.

The strikers assert that the new engineers are better than the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

CHICAGO, March 6.—Reports are received daily at the engineers' headquarters of the condition of affairs on each line of the Burlington system. The freight traffic, the men say, has mounted to the top of the mountain.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

At the present time the Burlington officials are of the opinion that they do not need the old men. They are more energetic and more efficient. The Burlington officials are of the same opinion.

KILLED BY WOLVES.

A Farmer and His Son Fall Victims to Malignant Animals in Dakota.

MINNEAPOLIS, Kan., March 6.—A horrible story comes from Fort Totten. A farmer and his son were killed by wolves. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

The old man seized his shotgun and rushed into the house. He was followed by his son. The wolves were seen near the bodies of the victims.

GREENBACKERS IN THE FIELD.

They Will Meet at Cincinnati to Name a National Ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 6.—There is a large sprinkling of representatives of the Union party in the National Executive Committee meeting of the National Executive Committee.

A delegation from Pennsylvania brought a letter from Dr. McGowan. He says if the Labor party will adopt George's name as plank in its platform, he will support the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

Mr. Hubbard of the Chicago Express said the members of the party have a higher regard for the party than they have for the Union party. He is a prominent figure in the party.

HARD WORK OF THE FIREMEN.

A VOCATION THAT CALLS FOR TWENTY-FOUR HOURS A DAY.

A Great Strain on the Fireman's Brains. A Great Strain on the Fireman's Brains. A Great Strain on the Fireman's Brains.

Recent great fires have recalled to public attention the distinguished services, never overestimated, rendered to the community by the firemen. They have been saved for and since the first of the year that called for and brought out marked heroism on the part of these men.

These exceptional acts of heroism, however, are not regarded by the intimate friends of the department as really striking indications of superior merit and ability. There is the most arduous and the most arduous of the highest praise is awarded to their endurance and capacity for hard work. It is seldom that any combination of circumstances brings this feature of fire-department life into relief.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.

Every citizen should read faithfully an account of every day's work of the firemen. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day. It is a vocation that calls for twenty-four hours a day.