

LIVE TOPICS IN WASHINGTON

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS' CAUSE MORE WAR IN THE SENATE

Senator Blair catches it on all sides for suggesting that in appointing Confederate wounded soldiers have preference...

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Mr. Blair, who yesterday introduced a bill giving preference for civil service appointments...

Mr. Hale said it was very clear to him that the same discrimination now made by statute for the loyal soldier was to be made under this bill for the disloyal soldier...

Mr. Berry said that the wounded soldiers of the South had not asked for any preference over their comrades...

Mr. Spooner asked Mr. Blair whether he did not think that the wounded Confederate leaders under the present administration were not only protected but also cared for...

Mr. Riddleberger said that he, coming from the South and being a Confederate soldier, would not have introduced this bill...

Mr. Daniel trusted that no ex-Confederate would vote on the question, but he would do so because, in his judgment, it did not become a Confederate soldier had he boldly laid down his arms...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

Mr. Hurd said that the bill was introduced by a distinguished Senator from the North, and he did not feel that he ought to vote on it...

JUDGE HILTON'S AFFAIRS.

MR. CHOATE LOOKING INTO HIS MANAGEMENT OF THE STEWART ESTATE.

But he fails to find any evidence of consequences to sustain the suit of Miss Rose Butler to break Mrs. Stewart's will.

There was a good deal of fun in the Surrender of the Court yesterday in the course of the trial of Miss Rose Butler's suit to break the will of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate made a most of it in the course of his cross-examination of Henry B. Rice and Edward B. Hilton.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

Mr. Choate did all his work yesterday by asking questions, questions that went back as far as the trial of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart.

TO RELIEVE ST. JOHNLAND.

Reports that There May Be Lack of Food at the County Farm.

The Kings County Farm at St. Johnland has been isolated since the blizzard, and the Charity Commissioners, who have the care of the farm and 200 or more inmates...

Mr. Nolan is not more than five feet tall, and not muscular. He does not look capable, either mentally or physically, of committing such a heinous crime.

Every one assented to this, and there were very serious nois and knowing looks. Nolan's house was searched.

It was on Friday, the day before the murder, that Nolan, when accompanied by a twisted jaw and a lumpy forehead, made the bargain.

Commissioner Gott said last night: "I have tried to communicate with the person who had the contract, but so far have not been successful."

St. JOHNLAND STATION, March 20.—The first train from the city left Long Island City at 4:37 o'clock this afternoon, and arrived here at 6 o'clock to-night, a half an hour late.

He will send fac-similes of messages or pictures by wire. CHICAGO, March 20.—Prof. Elshah Gray of Highland Park has just completed an invention...

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

ARRESTED FOR THE MURDER.

LITTLE MORRIS NOLAN UNDER SUSPICION IN BELLE MEAD.

Known to Have Been Very Poor, and to Have Had a Quarrel with Old Mr. Hance, the Murdered Man, About a Cow.

Mr. Nolan is not more than five feet tall, and not muscular. He does not look capable, either mentally or physically, of committing such a heinous crime.

Every one assented to this, and there were very serious nois and knowing looks. Nolan's house was searched.

It was on Friday, the day before the murder, that Nolan, when accompanied by a twisted jaw and a lumpy forehead, made the bargain.

Commissioner Gott said last night: "I have tried to communicate with the person who had the contract, but so far have not been successful."

St. JOHNLAND STATION, March 20.—The first train from the city left Long Island City at 4:37 o'clock this afternoon, and arrived here at 6 o'clock to-night, a half an hour late.

He will send fac-similes of messages or pictures by wire. CHICAGO, March 20.—Prof. Elshah Gray of Highland Park has just completed an invention...

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

A BIG CIRCUS PARTY.

Brother Holbrook Takes 47 of his Friends to See Barnum's Show.

Among the thousands at the circus last evening was one party that lacked just two of being half a hundred strong.

It was on Friday, the day before the murder, that Nolan, when accompanied by a twisted jaw and a lumpy forehead, made the bargain.

Commissioner Gott said last night: "I have tried to communicate with the person who had the contract, but so far have not been successful."

St. JOHNLAND STATION, March 20.—The first train from the city left Long Island City at 4:37 o'clock this afternoon, and arrived here at 6 o'clock to-night, a half an hour late.

He will send fac-similes of messages or pictures by wire. CHICAGO, March 20.—Prof. Elshah Gray of Highland Park has just completed an invention...

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

Mr. Hillon said he had gone to Paris in May, and had been working as an agent for the business there of Sylvester, Hilton & Co.

LONGOBARDI ON THE STAND.

DURING RECESS HE TRIES TO FIND THE SHOP WHERE HE GOT HIS PISTOL.

The testimony in the trial of the Young Italian, charged with the murder of the Rev. Dr. Smith, in the case of the Young Italian, was given in the trial of Longobardi.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

Then a ragged vest was passed up to the witness by Lawyer Curtis, and Longobardi pointed to the upper pockets of the vest, which were torn at the corners, and said that they were the pockets of the vest in which he got his pistol.

Longobardi first testified in his continued cross-examination by Col. Fellows that he was not angry when he fired the pistol.

NEGLECTED SINGERS OF THE PRESS.

Lecture by Actor Harry Edwards on the Fugitive Verse of the Newspapers.

In spite of the rain yesterday there was a considerable gathering of ladies in one of the parlors of the Fifth Avenue Hotel to listen to the fifth lecture in the course of the series...

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Mr. Edwards pointed out that many beautiful poems appear in the columns of the daily press, but are not read by the general public.

Advertisement for a book or publication.

Advertisement for a book or publication.