

WAGNER AT GUTTENBURG.

WAGNER & CO. DISAPPEAR, LEAVING $700 WORTH OF TICKETS UNPAID.

The Hudson County Jockey Club... Everything went smoothly at Guttenburg yesterday until the conclusion of the fifth race, when a number of angry investors were anxious to interview the bookmaking firm of Hampton & Co.

The track was a trifle dead, but quite hard in places. All the events were of the selling order, and, as usual, the favorites and outsiders divided the honors.

Hardship and the maidens that faced the starter for the first race, Pomeroy made the favorite until the fourth race, when the maidens were again in the lead.

There was a terrific plunge on He and Lord Besenfeld in the second race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

There was a terrific plunge on He and Lord Besenfeld in the second race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

Wynwood was the favorite for the fifth race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

Wynwood was the favorite for the fifth race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

Wynwood was the favorite for the fifth race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

Wynwood was the favorite for the fifth race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

Wynwood was the favorite for the fifth race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

Wynwood was the favorite for the fifth race, the favorite made the running with Dr. Jekyll until the final furlong, when he was overtaken by a rush on the outside, and won handily by a length and a half.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

SECRETARY BLAINE EVIDENTLY SICK OF THE CLAMOR FOR OFFICE.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Mr. Walker Blaine is of the opinion that it is desirable to extend the powers of the Civil Service Commission by placing under their control the appointments to the consular places now belonging to the patronage of the State Department.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

There is little use in attempting to conduct a civil service for one set of officeholders and ignoring the just claims of others. This has been brought very prominently before the State Department recently in cases where the State Department desired to go ahead with the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

NEW ORLEANS SUICIDE.

SHE HAS REJOINED LEDERER.

IDA FLORINE NEWCOMBE LEAVES HER FATHER AT CHICAGO.

Lederer had been publishing "Frenzies" and "West With Him to Philadelphia." The triumph of George W. Lederer, theatrical manager, over Richard R. Newcombe, with whose daughter he contracted a runaway marriage, began when Lederer persuaded Clara Chester, who claimed a previous marriage with him, to withdraw her action for abandonment against him.

The day after Christmas Mr. Newcombe, with his wife and Florida, started on a long-protracted trip to Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, and other points in the West. In Chicago Mr. Newcombe was taken ill with a severe cold, and with his family, was delayed in that city.

That Mr. Newcombe saw these persons, and learning from them that his daughter was still in communication with Lederer, bade her choose between her parents and Lederer, is only a matter of conjecture. It is certain, however, that Miss Newcombe did leave Chicago for Philadelphia, where she was met on her arrival by Lederer who took her to Philadelphia the same night.

Lederer has been reinstated by Mr. Herrington as manager of the Hermann Academy of Music during the early part of the evening. He is reported to be in Philadelphia with his wife. It is believed that Clara Chester has been sent back to England.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

George C. Daniel, 16 years old, of 185 Grand street, Jersey City, and James H. Fay of 544 East Eleventh street, were arraigned at the Tombs Police Court yesterday by Detectives Frink and Murphy of Inspector Byrnes' staff, and remanded until this morning.

BEGAN 1890 WITH MURDER.

JAMES SLOUM KILLS HIS WIFE IN A FIT OF DRUNKEN FURY.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

On the top floor of a four-story cheap lodging house at 114 Roosevelt street, and in a dirty room, scantily furnished, the body of Mrs. Ella Sloum was found yesterday morning lying on her bed with her face beaten almost beyond recognition.

The police are looking for Mrs. Sloum's husband, James Sloum, who was a member of the New Year's Quartet. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet and was well known in Cherry Street.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

James Sloum married Ella Perkins about four years ago while he was a base ball player. He was formerly a base ball player and was well known in Cherry Street. He was a member of the New Year's Quartet.

NEWS FROM THE HORSE WORLD.

NEWS FROM THE HORSE WORLD.