KING OF COCOAS—"ROYAL COCOA FACTORY."

Kings are but men, but all men are not kings. Therefore, when the King of Holland says, as he did by deed of August 17, 1884, that he is greatly pleased with

"BEST & GOES FARTHEST," and, entirely unsolicited, grants the manufacturers the sole right of styling their works the Royal Cocoa Factory, a significance attaches to the act which would not were he not "every inch a king."

WHAT THE FIGHTERS ARE DOING.

THE PRELIMINARY HONTS LAST NIGHT WERE AMUSING CONTESTS.

Billy Robertson's gymnasium, in Brooklyn, was jammed to the doors last evening by a miscellaneous crowd of sports gathered to witness the preliminary bouts of the colored boxing tournament.

The bouts throughout the evening were simply side-splitting, and the earnestness and viciousness with which the contestants clothed the gloves round each other lent a peculiar zest to the amusing action.

The tournament was not advertised under any special rules, and so go as you please was the order of the evening. Butting, wrestling, back-kicking, kicking, everything went.

The officials that presided over the boxing entertainment were: Foreman, Tom Evans; Referee, John Williams; Time-keeper, John White; Nonpartisan Athletic Club, and Robert McLaughlin, club doctor; master of ceremonies, Fred W. Hurst.

The first bout was between W. H. Passel, the new champion, and John White. The bout was a close one, but White was the victor.

The second bout was between John White and John White. The bout was a close one, but White was the victor.

The third bout was between John White and John White. The bout was a close one, but White was the victor.

The fourth bout was between John White and John White. The bout was a close one, but White was the victor.
