

THE FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

REPUBLICANS ACCOMPLISH THE STRAIGHTENING OF MONTANA.

The Republican Contention Admitted to Senate in the Senate. The "Chicago" amendment was referred to the Military Academy Bill Passed in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The Montana election case was again taken up in the Senate today, and Mr. Daniel did not claim the floor to continue his speech of yesterday. Mr. O'Brien (Dem., La.) addressed the Senate in favor of the Democratic side of the question. He argued that the reports of the majority and minority of the committee rested alike on a fundamental error, and neither set of contestants had perfect credentials that entitled them to seats in the Senate.

Mr. Keams (Dem., W. Va.) argued against the majority report. He recalled a remark of Mr. Sherman's when the admission of Mr. McKenna was before the Senate, that "anything that will beat down that party and build up our own is justifiable in morals and in law," and reminded Republican Senators that when they reported Montana the foremost maid in the history of the State was the woman who did it under the damnable and damnable pretext that "anything that will beat down that party and build up our own is justifiable in morals and in law."

A motion to commit was made on the Democratic side, and the yeas and nays were called, yeas 48, nays 32. The yeas were 48, and the nays were 32.

As to other Senators on the Democratic side, Mr. Everts said that while the proposed amendment was an improvement on the original bill, it was not a final solution. He said that the bill was a compromise, and that the only way to settle the matter was by a final vote.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa offered an amendment, which was adopted. The amendment provided that the bill should be passed by a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

TEACHERS AT ODDS.

A Valuable State in a New Jersey County School.

Two teachers hold sway in the school room of District 61, at Bloomington, N. J. A crack in the floor is the Mason and Dixon's line which divides their territories. Three years ago David S. Campbell was engaged to teach the school single-handed. He was a teacher, a bookkeeper, and an exhorter among the Baptists. He became a warm friend of District Clerk William Long. Trustee Morscraft acquired a warm regard for him. He finally quarrelled with the District Clerk, but he was employed for the third year mainly through the influence of Mr. Morscraft. He is blue-eyed, small, and of mild manners.

The spring elections resulted in the defeat of Trustee Morscraft by Christopher Waldron. The other two trustees, Mr. Long and Col. G. W. Thomas, had been opposed to Mr. Campbell for some time. The election was a change, being convinced, they say, that the children were learning nothing and that a reform in the order of the school was imperative. As Mr. Campbell had been engaged for the year, they could not remove him immediately. They decided to appoint an assistant teacher who would succeed at the end of the year. Mrs. M. F. Toombs, a widow who lives in Bloomington and has taught private classes at her home for the benefit of the poor, who did not like to send their children to the public school, was appointed. She is a New Jersey woman of middle age, round, and of a cheerful disposition. She was introduced by Mr. Campbell to the trustees on her way out on her Easter Monday. Trustee Long and Trustee Thomas introduced her to the school. She was introduced to the trustees by Mr. Campbell for her. It wanted but a spark to touch off a whole magazine of trouble. The trustees of the school room after that, and the spark came the very next day.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

Mr. Campbell was glad to see a Six reporter when he called. He said that thus far all that had been told had been in the interest of the school. He said that the District Clerk Long had come to her to ask her to teach the school. He said that she had accepted the position, and that she had been teaching next year, and she had refused the place of principal three years ago. She said that she had not wanted the place of principal next year, and would probably decline it, if it should be offered to her. She said that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school, and that she had no objection to her name being used in connection with the school.

THE VOTE AGAINST HIM UNANIMOUS—TREATY BETWEEN LAKE AND ATLANTIC SEASONS.

George Watson Reid, the rejected delegate from the North River Branch, failed to respond yesterday to the summons to appear before the Convention of the Seaside and Lake and Atlantic Seaside Association. The Board of Directors of the Association, Chamber of the City Hall and the Board of Health, were called upon to expel him from the organization. William Lazar, who had been selected to carry the union's invitation to Reid, said that Reid's reply was that he might come and he might not. He did not come. He was expelled from the organization. The vote was unanimous. The Board of Directors of the Association, Chamber of the City Hall and the Board of Health, were called upon to expel him from the organization. William Lazar, who had been selected to carry the union's invitation to Reid, said that Reid's reply was that he might come and he might not. He did not come. He was expelled from the organization.

DELEGATE REID EXPELLED.

The vote against him unanimous—Treaty between Lake and Atlantic Seasons. George Watson Reid, the rejected delegate from the North River Branch, failed to respond yesterday to the summons to appear before the Convention of the Seaside and Lake and Atlantic Seaside Association. The Board of Directors of the Association, Chamber of the City Hall and the Board of Health, were called upon to expel him from the organization. William Lazar, who had been selected to carry the union's invitation to Reid, said that Reid's reply was that he might come and he might not. He did not come. He was expelled from the organization.

MARKET LIQUOR DEALERS.

The Controller Inquiring into Reported Violations of the Rules. An inquiry was begun yesterday by Comptroller Myers into the charges against Thomas Campbell, a brother of ex-Governor Thomas Campbell, and E. F. Burney, two keepers of restaurants in West Washington Market, who are accused of selling liquor regardless of the market regulations. Campbell is permitted to occupy three stands. He is vouchered for by Police Justice Power, ex-Senator Murphy, and other well-known persons. Burney also holds three stands, which he purchased in June last from Thomas F. Walsh for $1,000. The Excise Inspector Thomas Ferris, who was formerly a police detective, but who was retired on a pension of $50 a month, because of illness, reported during the billiard of 1898, that he had seen Campbell and Burney in Campbell's place on April 1. In answer to questions by ex-Senator Ecclesine, Campbell's counsel, Ferris said that at present he was in perfect health, and that he saw no reason why he should not draw his pension from the police department, as well as $50 a month as an excise inspector.

WIFE DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED.

His Wife and Boarder Gruber Locked Up for Further Examination. George Witte, the young man who received a bullet wound in the back of his neck in so mysterious a manner on Tuesday, is lying in a very dangerous condition in Bellevue Hospital. The 38-calibre bullet passed through his neck and came out in his mouth. He is now lying in bed, and his condition is very serious. His wife, Mrs. Witte, is also lying in bed, and her condition is also very serious. She was shot in the chest by a bullet which passed through her heart. She is now lying in bed, and her condition is very serious. She is now lying in bed, and her condition is very serious.

DECLINED BY TALKER VAN LOAN.

Father-in-law Coykendall Testifies in His Own Defense. Nelson H. Coykendall, who is being tried on a charge of conspiracy with his son-in-law, Henry Van Loan, the absconding teller of the Erie National Bank, has declined to testify in his own defense. He has declined to testify in his own defense. He has declined to testify in his own defense. He has declined to testify in his own defense. He has declined to testify in his own defense.

A SCHOONER UPSET.

Fifteen Men Cling to Her Side Until They Reached the Shore. The schooner Bridgewater, already reported with a capsized schooner in tow, has not yet come up to the city, but some of the crew of the schooner Joseph McGill, the overturned schooner is the W. D. Richard of Halifax, bound for Halifax to fit for the Banks, Portuguese Cove, at 5 o'clock last evening. The schooner was overturned by a squall and thrown on her side with all sails set. The crew numbered fifteen, most of whom were below; but they succeeded in getting out and clambering on the vessel's side, where they remained until the schooner was righted. After five hours in the boats they were picked up by the McGill and the Bridgewater, the latter being the schooner which was overturned. Richard's crew of ninety tons register and is owned by the McGill family. A disabled steamer was towed into port this morning. She is the Mark Lane, from New York, which was disabled by a squall. She was towed into port by the McGill and the Bridgewater. She was towed into port by the McGill and the Bridgewater.

DOESN'T CARE ABOUT HIS HORSE.

Mounted Policeman Becker Up Told in Him for Neglecting Him. Mounted Policeman George Becker of Tremont was fined thirty days' pay on Tuesday for abandoning his horse and going on a lark. Yesterday he was accused before Commissioner Voorhis of failing to groom his horse for three days. Capt. Stephenson said that he found mud on the animal's breast, and rebuked him, who answered "I don't care about my horse, and I don't want to." Police Commissioner Westcott said that Becker's horse was in a very bad condition, and that he was neglecting his duty. He was fined thirty days' pay for neglecting his horse. He was fined thirty days' pay for neglecting his horse.

HE HAS A WIFE AND HIS MONEY.

CINCINNATI, April 16.—Mr. W. M. Middleton, a well-to-do citizen of Davis, Scott county, Kentucky, was in Covington today in search of his bride of three weeks and $7,000 in gold. Last Saturday he had drawn the gold from the bank to use in various ways. He had drawn the gold from the bank to use in various ways. He had drawn the gold from the bank to use in various ways. He had drawn the gold from the bank to use in various ways.

NEW DESIGN IN CARPETS.

The manufacture of carpets and floor coverings of every kind has reached such a perfection that the production of rich and soft and beautiful designs in nature and as exquisite patterns that are beautiful to the eye and durable in use. The manufacture of carpets and floor coverings of every kind has reached such a perfection that the production of rich and soft and beautiful designs in nature and as exquisite patterns that are beautiful to the eye and durable in use. The manufacture of carpets and floor coverings of every kind has reached such a perfection that the production of rich and soft and beautiful designs in nature and as exquisite patterns that are beautiful to the eye and durable in use.

AN AERONAUT INJURED.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 16.—Prof. E. B. Craig, aeronaut, was severely injured in an attempt to make a balloon ascension and parachute drop here yesterday afternoon. A strong wind blew and the balloon was carried away by a telegraph wire, throwing him out. He fell forty feet, striking head foremost against a trolley, receiving severe injuries. Stealing Memorable from a Corner Store. LAKE PASS, Tex., April 16.—The corner store of the settlement near Federal building here was burgled last night. The burglar took the bed and its contents, and also a quantity of clothing and other articles. The burglar took the bed and its contents, and also a quantity of clothing and other articles. The burglar took the bed and its contents, and also a quantity of clothing and other articles.

THE FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

REPUBLICANS ACCOMPLISH THE STRAIGHTENING OF MONTANA.

The Republican Contention Admitted to Senate in the Senate. The "Chicago" amendment was referred