

WRESTLING WITH BRODSKY.

Stephenson of Stephenson's Bank... The politicians, some of them, kept Sunday yesterday for the last time until after election.

John E. Brodsky, chief stocker of the B. M. O. Co. for a straight... The politicians, some of them, kept Sunday yesterday for the last time until after election.

To-night's Tammany Convention in the Sixth Congress district was talked about yesterday. Ioeman Turner's friends are confident that he will be renominated, and are dead to the rumors that Col. John H. Feltz, a Democrat, is not now supposed to be a leading candidate.

An interesting bit of Tammany news concerns the candidate for Sheriff. The nomination made by Tammany for a county office from the Ninth ward in forty years. It is true that Justice Gorman lives up town now, but he remains a Ninth warder politically.

Emigration Commissioner Stephenson wrote to Justice Gorman: "I am a Republican from choice and principle, and not for spoils. I prefer to support Republicans and I am a Republican."

Ex-Judge Gannan S. Bedford was called upon to give the address at the annual dinner of the Political and Personal Friends, who had given the announcement in yesterday's Sun of his resignation from the office of Justice.

The campaign of the two Louises, Louis Haffen and Louis Heintz, will be the hottest in the history of the city. It is not only a contest for the nomination, but a contest for the nomination.
