The Sunday Newspaper and The Sun. The Sunday Newspaper must presently assert itself as the most potent vehicle of contemporary English literature.

MARK TWAIN'S new novel has been purchased for $120,000 by THE SUNDAY SUN. In a week or two THE SUNDAY SUN will begin a series of letters by this most popular of all humorous writers.

WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS is easily the first living American writer of polite fiction. THE SUNDAY SUN has just paid him $10,000 for his new novel, "The Quality of Mercy."

A continued story by JOHN CHANDLER HARRIS, "Uncle Remus," a charming narrative of plantation days in Georgia, will presently begin in THE SUNDAY SUN.

The celebrated naturalist, ST. GEORGE MIVART, is contributing now to THE SUNDAY SUN the most important and instructive series of papers on Natural History that has ever appeared in any periodical.

There is no striking contribution to the volume of science but it will first see the light in THE SUNDAY SUN. In contemporary historical literature the most important papers by the first of living writers are first printed in THE SUNDAY SUN.

What Should Be the Limits of the Working Day? At the recent meeting of the British Association an interesting paper was read by Dr. A. H. Huxley on the data available for determining the best physical limits for hours of labor.

A Romance of the World's Fair. Many marvelous schemes are being concocted by the board of directors of the World's Fair, to be held in Chicago, in 1893.

A Pair of Willing Republicans. The Hon. ANTHONY B. WHITE and the Hon. JOHN B. BRADLEY are the two Republican members of the Senate.

Mr. Ingalls on Missouri. The State of Missouri, in its capacity of a free and independent State, is a subject of great interest to the people of this country.

"Romance," however, shows, perhaps, that it is not well founded. The definition to "pretty girl," "my darling," "my sweet love," and such endearing terms, may be traced over as illustrating a species of love-sickness peculiar to Kansas, that Kansas never suggested, with the exception of Poppy-Pete, the names of the participants in the drama—Romance, Ivano, Fefela, Dainty, Norma, Terrell, Magera, Dona for Poppy-Pete, Bandaska, Solandrook, Brusso, Morero, Heoncolino, Golla, and the nymphs, sprites, elves, fairies, naiads, and gentry. The Duchy of Golla, where the play opens, is not known to geographers, but it certainly does not lie between the Mississippi and the Pacific.

The Vacancy on the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The late Gen. WALTER L. BRAGO of Alabama was one of the ablest and most useful members of the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

It is a fact that a majority of the minority delegates to the Trade Union Congress, shortly to be held in Great Britain, have been instructed to vote against a legislative eight-hour day.

These few references, perhaps, justify the conclusion that if WILLIAM B. FELTS intended to present an ideal specimen of a national American drama at the "floating edifice" of Queen Isabella at the World's Fair, he is not widely wide of the mark.

A Threatened Calamity. From beneath the dense and frowning forest that thrives and waves on the upper lip of the Hon. E. FRIEDRICH JONES of Albany and Binghamton flows the stream of menace.

The Park Place Disaster. The Park Place disaster seems to have a great deal to do with the responsibility for the great loss of life and property.

Willard Glazier Redecorates "Min Lake." The Hon. Wm. W. Willard, of Chicago, has just returned from a tour of inspection in the State of Michigan.

ests that Mr. WHITE would find cold and unresponsive. Mr. WHITE knows a good deal about what he calls the warfare between religion and science, but what does he know about the warfare of Congress and the Wicked Grins of the wicked press and the do-Ats? He has read a good deal about GARZANO, but his ignorance about the Republicans below Fourteenth street is great and sad. Does he know how much Mr. JOHN PROCTOR CLARKE's committee of Twenty-first district Republicans think of civil service reform? Of what use will his knowledge of GORDANO BRUNO and NICK COZANICIS be to him when he comes to the floor of the House? He has a great deal to say for himself, but he has a great deal to say for the people of this country.

The Canadian provinces, like the American States, are rejoicing over unprecedented harvests. The fact that the export of wheat from Canada will be more than twice as great as it was last year. We congratulate our Canadian neighbors.

The final failure and breaking up of Mrs. P. A. MANN'S theatrical company at Shamokin, Pa., is another proof, if any were needed, of the inherent good sense and decency of the people. As was said very generally when "The Clemenceau Case" failed to draw anywhere near the expected number, a play which was not successful in this country, it appeals solely to the indolent and the vulgar mind.

Its Possible Influence on the Attitude of Russia Toward the Behring Sea Dispute. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The capture of an American schooner by a Russian war ship in the Behring Sea is an incident of the seal hunting controversy which had hardly been taken account in the previous discussions of the subject. Had the victim been a British Columbian schooner the affair might have become still more important, since Great Britain might contest a right of capture which any Government under its own doctrine and practice would have to concede.

Several weeks ago it was ascertained that many of the sealing schooners, on being warned by the Government vessels not to enter Behring Sea, made for the western side of that sea in order to continue operations there. The prohibition contained in the London award agreement, and the proclamation of the London Convention, were not the "boundary line" of the Russo-American treaty of 1874 as forming the western limit of the forbidden waters, leaving no fear of molestation by American or British war vessels between that boundary and the Russian shore.

The Congress of Brazil has not thus far justified the hopes of the friends of the young republic. The new Constitution of the country is well constructed; the President is a serious and accomplished statesman; he has secured the services of several competent Cabinet officers, and many of the members of Congress are able and patriotic politicians.

Secretary Tracy Retires as a Disappointed Man. From the Philadelphia Record. WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Until recently William E. Field, colored, had been employed as the secretary of Secretary Tracy. Field was the heart of a family, and Mr. Tracy was so pleased with the prospective union that he allowed his daughter to marry the young man. The marriage was celebrated on the 21st inst., and the bride's trousseau was valued at $10,000. The bride's father, however, was not so pleased with the union, and he refused to pay the bride price. VEGETABLES FOR EDITORS. The Season Good, No Subscribers Are Lacking. ANNOTA, CONN., Sept. 7.—This has been a good season for vegetables in this part of the country. John Gilbert of New Haven received a pleasant note in the Register for a tomato weighing 10 pounds 10 ounces, and before the paper had been distributed F. W. Jero of Branford went into Ernest Partlow's garden patch, and picked a tomato weighing 35 ounces, buried in the Register office with the name of F. W. Jero, and the editor, had to give Mr. Jero a seed-off.

A Great Acre Fought Upon Irrigation. From the Globe. ROCKY MOUNT, Sept. 3.—Five thousand long green watermelons of the "Swank" variety were raised on a large acre of land in a low bottom enclosure under the shade of New Cottonwood Grove in the pleasant little village of Rocky Mount, N. C. The melons were small, but very numerous, and were packed in crates for shipment to the city.

It has about 100,000 teeth, and is 40 inches wide and 24 inches deep. The wheel makes 100 revolutions a minute. The shaft on which the pulley hangs weighs 20 tons.
