

The Sun

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1901.

Advertisements for THE WEEKLY SUN, issued to-morrow morning, must be handed in this evening before 6 o'clock.

Vote for FLOWER and SHEEHAN, for the Democracy of New York and for New York's rightful place in the Democracy.

The Great Popular School.

The canvass which the election to-day brings to an end in this State has been short, but the time has been sufficient for its purposes.

The people have received an enormous amount of valuable political education during the few weeks it has continued, and to-day they are as well prepared to vote on its issues as if it had lasted for as many months.

No citizen in all the State has any excuse for voting unintelligently or for not voting at all because these issues have not been put before him clearly and fully for his decision.

The Republicans opened their canvass in hot haste, as their nominations were made at Rochester on the 9th of September, and they have kept it up with vigor and violence ever since.

The Democratic canvass was not actually started until nearly a month after the Republican. It has been therefore a campaign of four or five weeks only; but it has been none the less thorough and effective because of its brevity.

Meantime the great mass of the honest and conscientious people have received the instruction in politics and as to the actual management of public affairs which only such a campaign can afford.

From the first day to the last day of the Republican canvass, PORTER's fraudulent figures concerning New York city have been the backbone and mainstay of the partisan attack on our municipal Government.

Honesty and Justice and Truth meet at the polls to-day to settle with Mr. JACOB S. FASSETT, the responsible utterer of the forged statistics supplied to him from Mr. ROBERT P. PORTER's establishment in Washington.

It will be an orderly election in every voting district of the town. New York has been vilified during this campaign as a conspicuous example of the failure of municipal government under popular suffrage.

On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

The Scattering of the Ships. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

A decided Democratic victory in this State this fall will make plainer the path to a general Democratic victory in 1892. Every Democrat entitled to vote to-day should turn out early and vote for FLOWER and SHEEHAN.

Rest for Jacob. At Albany on Wednesday Mr. FASSETT mentioned with a somewhat tired feeling that he and Mr. VROOMAN had been traveling over the State for three weeks, and "might plead weariness and ask for a little rest."

He seems to be the victim of a sort of mental neurasthenia, and his nerves have started him to his feet to-day. Sunday, and instead of starting to-day, everywhere a "rest" of even a day or two in getting away is eagerly made; and so great is this contrast with the all-summer's dalliance that it is naturally ascribed to the pending affair with Chili.

Still another noticeable point is the hurry of the recent preparations. The Kearsarge, for example, was to have sailed yesterday, but Commander ELMER received orders that started him to his feet to-day.

At Albany on Wednesday Mr. FASSETT mentioned with a somewhat tired feeling that he and Mr. VROOMAN had been traveling over the State for three weeks, and "might plead weariness and ask for a little rest."

He seems to be the victim of a sort of mental neurasthenia, and his nerves have started him to his feet to-day. Sunday, and instead of starting to-day, everywhere a "rest" of even a day or two in getting away is eagerly made; and so great is this contrast with the all-summer's dalliance that it is naturally ascribed to the pending affair with Chili.

In the West Indies was the regular winter prescribed long ago for the North Atlantic squadron, while cruising in our Southern waters was the work assigned to what remains of the Squadron of Evolution.

But the manifest haste of preparation at all the yards indicates that for the moment the complications with Chili are uppermost in thought, and that the whole available navy is practically mobilized with reference, immediate or ultimate, to those complications.

The Fraudulent Census in the New York Campaign. Long before this campaign opened THE SUN charged ROBERT P. PORTER with falsifying the census statistics of municipal expenditure and taxation so as to make a very unfavorable showing for New York in comparison with other cities of the United States.

The evidence of the utter untrustworthiness of PORTER's tables was conclusive. There was no difficulty in demolishing their outrageous misstatements. The reasons for believing that these misstatements were the result not merely of gross carelessness and of incapacity, but of a deliberate purpose to deceive, were strong, but not quite conclusive.

From the first day to the last day of the Republican canvass, PORTER's fraudulent figures concerning New York city have been the backbone and mainstay of the partisan attack on our municipal Government.

Honesty and Justice and Truth meet at the polls to-day to settle with Mr. JACOB S. FASSETT, the responsible utterer of the forged statistics supplied to him from Mr. ROBERT P. PORTER's establishment in Washington.

It will be an orderly election in every voting district of the town. New York has been vilified during this campaign as a conspicuous example of the failure of municipal government under popular suffrage.

On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

The Scattering of the Ships. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

A decided Democratic victory in this State this fall will make plainer the path to a general Democratic victory in 1892. Every Democrat entitled to vote to-day should turn out early and vote for FLOWER and SHEEHAN.

Rest for Jacob. At Albany on Wednesday Mr. FASSETT mentioned with a somewhat tired feeling that he and Mr. VROOMAN had been traveling over the State for three weeks, and "might plead weariness and ask for a little rest."

He seems to be the victim of a sort of mental neurasthenia, and his nerves have started him to his feet to-day. Sunday, and instead of starting to-day, everywhere a "rest" of even a day or two in getting away is eagerly made; and so great is this contrast with the all-summer's dalliance that it is naturally ascribed to the pending affair with Chili.

Still another noticeable point is the hurry of the recent preparations. The Kearsarge, for example, was to have sailed yesterday, but Commander ELMER received orders that started him to his feet to-day.

At Albany on Wednesday Mr. FASSETT mentioned with a somewhat tired feeling that he and Mr. VROOMAN had been traveling over the State for three weeks, and "might plead weariness and ask for a little rest."

He seems to be the victim of a sort of mental neurasthenia, and his nerves have started him to his feet to-day. Sunday, and instead of starting to-day, everywhere a "rest" of even a day or two in getting away is eagerly made; and so great is this contrast with the all-summer's dalliance that it is naturally ascribed to the pending affair with Chili.

Still another noticeable point is the hurry of the recent preparations. The Kearsarge, for example, was to have sailed yesterday, but Commander ELMER received orders that started him to his feet to-day.

At Albany on Wednesday Mr. FASSETT mentioned with a somewhat tired feeling that he and Mr. VROOMAN had been traveling over the State for three weeks, and "might plead weariness and ask for a little rest."

He seems to be the victim of a sort of mental neurasthenia, and his nerves have started him to his feet to-day. Sunday, and instead of starting to-day, everywhere a "rest" of even a day or two in getting away is eagerly made; and so great is this contrast with the all-summer's dalliance that it is naturally ascribed to the pending affair with Chili.

repressed by a period of absolute rest. His strong right hand is weary with being constantly shaken in the face of heaven as a witness against Tammany. His tongue and all the rest of his vocal apparatus are cracked with overwork.

What will Mr. PLATT ask Gen. HARRISON to give Mr. FASSETT as a recompense for the relinquished Collectorship and uncaught Governorship? The Secretary of War when Secretary PROCTOR becomes Senator? Why not? Much can be learned from an outside-the-breastworks position.

A Democratic Assembly has greatly cut down the tax rate. A Democratic Legislature will make a still larger cut, honestly reapportion the State for Congress and legislative districts, deal fairly and squarely with the subject of excise laws, and let the cities govern themselves.

THE HANDS ARE THE HANDS OF JACOB, but the voice is the voice of THOMAS. CHARLES W. SUTHERLAND, the bright and hustling young Democratic candidate for Senator in the Third district, had a fresh incentive yesterday to continue his canvass with redoubled vigor up to the closing of the polls.

Now let the boys whoop her up for the young Democrat in Brooklyn. A vote for FASSETT is a vote for Chicago. A vote for FLOWER is a vote for New York. Heaven pity this town if PLATT were elected Governor.

THE SUN prints interviews with 100 candidates for the New York Legislature—fifty of them Democrats and fifty Republicans—nearly all of whom declare themselves in favor of repealing the section of the Electrical Execution law which forbids the publication of full reports of executions in the newspapers.

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Supreme Court assembled to-day with a full bench, Justice Gray having recovered from his illness. The court advanced and assigned for argument on the second Monday in January the case of Elk vs. the United States, involving the Chinese exclusion act, and the suit of the United States against the Southern Pacific Railroad.

THE POLITICAL FREE MASON. Mr. JOHN W. VROOMAN ought to be ashamed of himself for allowing his Masonic credentials and regalia to be used as campaign documents. The Republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor has been sending out to Democrats and others who are Free Masons a circular letter enclosing VROOMAN posters, appealing for votes against Mr. SHEEHAN.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES. Another View of Their Relations. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN:—Sir: I have read with much interest the editorial in your paper of the 20th of October, "Americans and the Czar," wherein reference is made to the friendly attitude of Russia during the various crises of our country.

Don't forget to vote for the Democratic candidates for Senator and Assemblyman. In the election of a Democratic Legislature lies the only hope of doing justice to New York and Kings and the other districts which are overtaxed and underrepresented by means of the Republicans in the Legislature.

THE HANDS ARE THE HANDS OF JACOB, but the voice is the voice of THOMAS. CHARLES W. SUTHERLAND, the bright and hustling young Democratic candidate for Senator in the Third district, had a fresh incentive yesterday to continue his canvass with redoubled vigor up to the closing of the polls.

Now let the boys whoop her up for the young Democrat in Brooklyn. A vote for FASSETT is a vote for Chicago. A vote for FLOWER is a vote for New York. Heaven pity this town if PLATT were elected Governor.

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Supreme Court assembled to-day with a full bench, Justice Gray having recovered from his illness. The court advanced and assigned for argument on the second Monday in January the case of Elk vs. the United States, involving the Chinese exclusion act, and the suit of the United States against the Southern Pacific Railroad.

THE POLITICAL FREE MASON. Mr. JOHN W. VROOMAN ought to be ashamed of himself for allowing his Masonic credentials and regalia to be used as campaign documents. The Republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor has been sending out to Democrats and others who are Free Masons a circular letter enclosing VROOMAN posters, appealing for votes against Mr. SHEEHAN.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES. Another View of Their Relations. To THE EDITOR OF THE SUN:—Sir: I have read with much interest the editorial in your paper of the 20th of October, "Americans and the Czar," wherein reference is made to the friendly attitude of Russia during the various crises of our country.

Don't forget to vote for the Democratic candidates for Senator and Assemblyman. In the election of a Democratic Legislature lies the only hope of doing justice to New York and Kings and the other districts which are overtaxed and underrepresented by means of the Republicans in the Legislature.

THE HANDS ARE THE HANDS OF JACOB, but the voice is the voice of THOMAS. CHARLES W. SUTHERLAND, the bright and hustling young Democratic candidate for Senator in the Third district, had a fresh incentive yesterday to continue his canvass with redoubled vigor up to the closing of the polls.

Now let the boys whoop her up for the young Democrat in Brooklyn. A vote for FASSETT is a vote for Chicago. A vote for FLOWER is a vote for New York. Heaven pity this town if PLATT were elected Governor.

THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Supreme Court assembled to-day with a full bench, Justice Gray having recovered from his illness. The court advanced and assigned for argument on the second Monday in January the case of Elk vs. the United States, involving the Chinese exclusion act, and the suit of the United States against the Southern Pacific Railroad.

THE POLITICAL FREE MASON. Mr. JOHN W. VROOMAN ought to be ashamed of himself for allowing his Masonic credentials and regalia to be used as campaign documents. The Republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor has been sending out to Democrats and others who are Free Masons a circular letter enclosing VROOMAN posters, appealing for votes against Mr. SHEEHAN.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

LOST AT SEA, IT IS FEARED. The Schooner Uruguay With Fifteen Sailors as a Passenger. E. A. Slosson, the stock broker of 35 Wall street, believes that his 21-year-old son Ed- win has been drowned at sea. Until yesterday he had a glimmer of a hope left. But that went yesterday afternoon. Sir John P. Phinix was judged on account of Mr. Cutting's refusal to pay a personal tax amounting to $115,92, imposed in 1890; but it has no force unless Mr. John G. H. Meyers gets out a warrant, and Mr. Meyers says that he will not do that.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

MR. CUTTING WONT GO TO JAIL. What He Thought for a While Yesterday That That Fate Confronted Him. Mr. Robert L. Cutting, Jr., of 141 Fifth avenue, was considerably startled yesterday afternoon when he saw in the evening papers that Judge Barrett had signed an order for his commitment to the City Prison. Sir John P. Phinix was judged on account of Mr. Cutting's refusal to pay a personal tax amounting to $115,92, imposed in 1890; but it has no force unless Mr. John G. H. Meyers gets out a warrant, and Mr. Meyers says that he will not do that.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on a winter's cruise among the West Indies.

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHIPS. On Sunday the Petrel left New York to reinforce the China station, the York with the auxiliary line crew station in New York for the South Atlantic, and the Kearsarge steamed away on