

QUILTS FOR 200 SHOP GIRLS.

VACCINATION BY WHOLESALE IN TWO BIG DRY GOODS STORES.

Health Commissioner kept busy at it more than three hours. Other stores are to be visited—cases of small-pox.

Yesterday was a red-letter day for J. C. Ryan and Dr. Gessner Harrison of the Board of Health. For more than three whole hours they vaccinated pretty shop girls in two large dry goods stores.

It was about 9:30 o'clock in the morning when Dr. Harrison entered the store of Adams & Co., on Sixth avenue, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets.

Some of them were really, but didn't want to be the first to face the doctor. Others were firmly convinced that they would rather die than be vaccinated.

One of the girls gave a signal, which was almost immediately followed by a fluttering of garments and a general commotion.

Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock. The girls down stairs, who had refused to submit at first, were really persuaded to undergo the operation.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

Dr. Harrison called Dr. Ryan with the intention peculiar to tonsorial artists. Another batch of girls came forward, and the doctor proceeded with his work until nearly 12 o'clock.

DIAMONDS AND JEWELRY WORTH $2,500 THE Spoils of a Mysterious Heist.

Miles Hartmann's jewelry store at 1,631 Second avenue was robbed of $2,500 worth of diamonds and jewelry on Monday night in a most mysterious manner.

At just what time the robbery took place is not known. It was shortly after midnight when Policeman Joseph Lewis found Mrs. Davis knocking at the door.

The policeman listened and hearing groans from the bedroom he went in and found a young Hartmann lying on a bed in the back room, firmly bound to the bed by ropes made out of the subject's hair.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

It is already attached, said Hartmann, referring to his property, but he had nothing to do with it. The deputy sheriff said he would properly seized would not fetch $100.

WHY MISS TEMPEST LEFT.

THE KINGDOM GIVES HER REASONS AND HOME PEOPLE GIVE OTHERS.

It seems that Harlowe Steger's presence in "The Algerians" is due to a Do With It—Mr. Steger's Explanation—The King that interested Philadelphia.

The opinion of those best competent to judge—and the professional frequenters of that stretch of Broadway which flows through the Strand—were wholly devoted to a study of the subject yesterday.

"Oh! I assure you," Miss Tempest said yesterday to a New York reporter, who called upon her at the Clarendon Hotel.

"No," said Miss Tempest, when she had read this letter about "the trouble is not with Hill, so far as I am concerned, and neither so far as Mr. Steger is concerned."

"I could tell you a story about a member of the orchestra, the first fiddler, the one who came to me and said that the orchestra never could tell whether Mr. DeKoven was conducting his wife and awful, his wife and awful, his wife and awful."

"The author and composer," Mr. Steger said, "is not the idea of the prima donna sitting with my father-in-law and saying, 'I did not like it, I did not like it, I did not like it.'"

"The author and composer," Mr. Steger said, "is not the idea of the prima donna sitting with my father-in-law and saying, 'I did not like it, I did not like it, I did not like it.'"

"The author and composer," Mr. Steger said, "is not the idea of the prima donna sitting with my father-in-law and saying, 'I did not like it, I did not like it, I did not like it.'"

"The author and composer," Mr. Steger said, "is not the idea of the prima donna sitting with my father-in-law and saying, 'I did not like it, I did not like it, I did not like it.'"

KILLED BY A TROLLEY CURRENT.

Two Horses Dead in Jersey City—Shocks Received by Several Persons.

John Dalrymple of 60 Harrison avenue, Jersey City, a milkman, was driving across Ocean avenue, a short distance north of Kearney street, on one of the trolley car rails.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

Two horses were dead in Jersey City—Shocks received by several persons. The trolley car was on the ground, breaking the shafts and the harness.

THE JEWELL NURSERY CONCERT.

ARCHBISHOP KENRICK SULLY.

Mr. Palmer Says He's a Lover—Just Five Minutes Too Late to Meet Mrs. Dodge.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

The concert which Mr. Austin S. Palmer arranged for the benefit of the Jewell Day Nursery, against the wishes of the lady managers and on the authorization of the matron of the institution, took place last night at Hartman Hall.

THE ALLEGED HEIR OF AN IRISH FISHERMAN.

Want Money Held by Him in Trust.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—A suit was filed by Bridget Powers against Peter Richard Kenrick, the venerable Archbishop of St. Louis, and John Joseph Kain, his recently appointed executor, in the Circuit Court to-day.

THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTRY BROUGHT DOWN TO THE PRESENT.

THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTRY BROUGHT DOWN TO THE PRESENT.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

The history of the country brought down to the present, in a series of extra sessions, and followed by a careful revision of the World's Fair at Chicago. A work of 700 pages, fully illustrated. Price $3.50.

EVERYBODY CAN DO IT. Send ten subscriptions to MUNSEY'S and we will give you $2—Twenty five, $2—Fifty, $10—One hundred, $20—Five hundred, $100.

EVERYBODY CAN DO IT. Send ten subscriptions to MUNSEY'S and we will give you $2—Twenty five, $2—Fifty, $10—One hundred, $20—Five hundred, $100.