DEPUTY BARRISTER-AT-LAW.

The New Deputy Collector to Tackle the Warehouse Division.

Collector Kilbreth, after swearing in Charles F. King as his latest deputy, started in yesterday to check up things in the custom house. The management of the warehouse division has not pleased him. Deputy Collector Charles F. King has been the head of this division for a couple of years, and the upward methods have called for Kilbreth's attention. King temporarily transferred Mr. King yesterday to the entry division, and assigned Mr. King permanently to the chief of the warehouse division. Mr. Kilbreth has faith in King's abilities to reform the work of this division and make it thoroughly satisfactory to the merchants.

It turned out yesterday that the politicians of the custom house were right as to their conclusions concerning the situation of Mr. King. Collector Kilbreth has promoted Mr. King to the position of deputy collector. The Collector is exceedingly independent about the selection of his staff of deputies.
