Who is the Right Man for the Place. WHEELER H. PECKHAM's nomination is especially and eminently fit and proper if it is desirable and desirable for Mr. CLEVELAND to make use of the influence caused by the death of the late SAMUEL BLATFORD, to bow the seeds of discord more plentifully in the Democratic party, treat even more contemptuously the dignity and constitutional prerogatives of the Senate, and seek personal revenge at the expense of the most exalted tribunal in the world.

Appointments for Malice Only. The business of the Supreme Court required, and requires, that a successor to the late Mr. Justice BLATFORD should be appointed as speedily as possible.

Mr. CLEVELAND's scale of requirements is simpler. His first and last requisite is that the appointee shall be a member of a small political faction and a bitter and virulent enemy of the Senators in Congress from this State. Mr. CLEVELAND's question is not, is the man sound in learning and judgment? but, has he been fierce enough against the men who had the impudence to oppose my nomination?

Too Heavy a Burden. We regret to hear from Washington, that Mr. Wilson, of the Committee on Ways and Means, in the House of Representatives, is much worn by his prolonged efforts in the construction of his tariff bill and in engineering it through the House.

Mr. CLEVELAND is well known to the people, and his party and the people are against him. He is against his party and the people, and his party and the people are against him.

The Case of Kope Elias. The case of KOPE ELIAS, of the Mecklenburg district, North Carolina, as described by the Evening Post, suggests serious opportunities to the friends and supporters of WHEELER H. PECKHAM, of which the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and, indeed, the Senate itself in executive session, cannot deprive Mr. CLEVELAND's candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

party; that he was unwilling to embarrass the Administration and jeopard the future success of his party in this State by any personal ambition he might entertain, or emoluments he might receive from the office to which he had been appointed.

Mr. PECKHAM's nomination came too late for him to plunge into Tuesday's fight in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth districts, but there are nine Congressmen to be elected in New York at the general election in November; and who is to be elected with Bismarck as an antagonist, as KOPE's friends propose to make him? Thus our New York Mugwumps may transfer every embarrassment from the President's shoulders to the broader shoulders of the whole people.

Bismarck and the German Situation. It is natural that delight should be expressed in Berlin and all over Germany at the news that BISMARCK has accepted the renewed overtures of WILLIAM II. for a reconciliation, and that next week he will pay a visit to the Emperor.

There have been a good many changes, and not one of them for the better, during the years that have elapsed since the young Emperor imagined that he could dispense with BISMARCK. Let us look first at the internal situation of the German empire.

We return to hear from Washington, that Mr. Wilson, of the Committee on Ways and Means, in the House of Representatives, is much worn by his prolonged efforts in the construction of his tariff bill and in engineering it through the House.

Mr. CLEVELAND is well known to the people, and his party and the people are against him. He is against his party and the people, and his party and the people are against him.

ful for being called FRANK-GOD by his parents than CLEVELAND will be for being called GOD-HELP-ME by the Evening Post.

The Fight. To-day, perhaps, there will be added another link to the historical chain of first-class dramas of the prize ring. How things have changed since the days of our pugilists, when the pugilist was absorbed in the field of his labor!

Utah's Opportunity. The arguments set forth by Delegate RAWLINS for the admission of the Territory into the Union of States have no little force.

Mr. CLEVELAND is well known to the people, and his party and the people are against him. He is against his party and the people, and his party and the people are against him.

thousand miles away from Yackoland, were Frenchmen. And the unfortunate French lost it, a lot of people of other kinds went there, and during the past half century its population has been increased by settlers from all parts of the world, a good many of them from France.

The survey of the boundary between Mexico and the United States has been in progress for some time, under a commission appointed by the Governments of the two countries. There has not been any reason to suppose that Mexico intended to get possession of territory that belongs to us by treaty, or that there was any disagreement between the American and Mexican surveyors.

Organization Against the Wilson Bill. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—From the beginning it has been foreseen that a motion in the House to recommit the Wilson bill to the Committee on Ways and Means would be made before the debate was ended.

Base Intention as Well as an Astonishing Lack of Judgment. To the Editor of THE SUN.—The appointment of Wheeler H. Peckham as Supreme Court Justice will meet with the decided disapproval of all good Democrats.
