

PRICE AND MARTENS TRIED.

BYRNE CONDUCTS THE CASE AS PROSECUTOR.

Symptoms of Standard Relations Between Him and Some of His Subordinates...

Charles W. Brooks appeared before the Police Board yesterday as counsel of Capt. Price and Martens, accused by Superintendent Byrne of failure to close disorderly houses to which he had called their attention...

Mr. Byrne went on to say that in the early part of January he received complaints about two houses in Seventh avenue, and he directed Inspector McAvoy to see Capt. Price and instruct him to give attention to the places...

Inspector McAvoy reported that the Captain told him that the houses were closed. The Superintendent found out that they were not closed, and returned to the houses to get evidence...

Mr. Brooks objected to hear. "I am ready to prove all I have said," remarked Mr. Byrne. The latter called Inspector McAvoy, and asked him what orders he had given him...

Commissioner Maclean remarked that Inspector McAvoy was not on trial. "Probably I don't know how to conduct a case," said Mr. Byrne.

In answer to questions of the Commissioner, Inspector McAvoy testified that he visited the Seventh avenue houses three times, and each time the Captain told him that they were closed...

Detective Sergeant Titus testified about the visits he made with Detective Valley to the Seventh avenue houses. The first time every body had gone to the Arion hall, they were told, they called again the following night...

Another witness, Annie Brown and Minnie Smith, two loudly dressed young women, appeared as witnesses in the case. They testified that they had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

Mr. Byrne asked the witness if she knew the man who had been taken to the house. She answered that she did not know him, but that she had seen him in the street...

Detective Sergeant Valley corroborated the testimony of the other witnesses. He testified that he had been taken to the house in Lexington avenue on several occasions...

J. C. LULLY KILLS HIMSELF.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM IN FRONT OF A MIRROR.

He Was Secretary of the Aqueduct Board and a Well-Known Among Politicians.

Julius Cesar Lully, Secretary of the Aqueduct Board and one of the clerks of the Democratic State Committee, committed suicide sometime between Sunday noon and yesterday morning by shooting himself in the head...

A servant in the house met Lully on his way to bed and found that he was not well. He called Lully's name and he did not answer. He went to the door and found it locked...

Lully lay on the floor dead, and near his head was a large blood stain on the carpet. It was dry, and the condition of the body indicated that Lully had been dead several hours...

He had a revolver, which was of 38 calibre. In his right hand and about himself in the right hand, he held a piece of paper which was a check for $100.00, payable to the order of Senator David B. Hill...

Lully's friends think that ill-health was the cause of his act. He had suffered much from ill-health for some time. His friends say he had not acted like himself for some time...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

Lully was a member of Tammany Hall. At one time he was a member of the board of directors of the Aqueduct Board. He was a well-known politician...

CAUTION UNDER A FALL OF ROCK.

Four Men Lost Their Lives in a Collision.

Scarsdale, Pa., March 6.—Four men out of a gang of mine shaft sinkers were killed in the Richmond shaft, in the northern part of the city, this morning at 5 o'clock. The accident was caused by the fall of a shaft of rock from the side of the shaft, near the bottom, and a consequent explosion of a blower of gas. The victims are:...

Hughes, Northrup, and Richards were crushed to death by the rock. Northrup and Richards had but recently come here from the copper mines of Michigan and were experienced in shaft work...

Five others of the shift made their escape, though some suffered slight bruises in their search for safety. These were quickly hoisted to the surface. The men were at work at the bottom of the shaft, almost four hundred feet from the surface. They had but recently begun their work at the shaft...

When Turner went out of duty at 11 o'clock last night he was the last man to leave the shaft. He was the only man who was not killed. He was the only man who was not killed...

Inspector Boderick, Superintendent of the city, said that he would reserve his decision in the matter. His manner indicated clearly what his decision would be, and there was no disappointment, yesterday, when it was formally announced at his office that the green flag would be visible this year...

The green flag of Ireland will not fly over the City Hall or any of the other public buildings in Brooklyn on St. Patrick's Day. Mayor Schieren told the delegation of representatives of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Irish societies, who waited on him on Monday and urged him to continue the custom of exhibiting the green flag in honor of Ireland's patron saint, that he would reserve his decision in the matter...

He thought it would be unwise to have the Irish emblem, Mayor Schieren said that he would instruct him to display only the national, State, and city flags on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day. The Mayor reiterated what he had said to the Irish delegation on the previous day. He thought it would be unwise to have the green flag on the Hall on St. Patrick's Day...

WON'T FLY THE GREEN FLAG.

Scratching Boy on fire with eczema will find instant relief and speedy cure by using CUTICURA Remedies.

When the best physicians, hospitals and all other remedies fail. To those who have suffered long and hopelessly from torturing, disfiguring, humiliating humors, and medicines and all things human, the CUTICURA REMEDIES appeal with startling force. Their success has excited the wonder of physicians familiar with the marvelous cures daily effected by them. They have friends in every quarter of the civilized world. People in every walk of life believe in them, use them and recommend them. They are in truth the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of modern times.

Sold throughout the world. Forth and Dreyfus, 111 Broadway, New York, N. Y. "All About the Blood, Skin, Scalp and Hair," mailed free.

Scalp itching, oily skin, falling hair and itchy scalp prevented and cured by Cuticura Soap.

GEORGE WILKES' ADOPTED CHILDREN.

Objections to Appointing the Man as the Guardian of the Daughter.

There was a discussion yesterday before Surrogate Fitzgerald upon the question of appointing George Wilkes as the guardian of the daughter of the late George Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

Another provision read that considering the son's disposition and temperament, the father was satisfied that in order to make him a man who would be respected in the community it would be better for him to feel compelled to support an estate as his sister, Alicia Wilkes, who is about thirteen years of age. George and Alicia Wilkes are adopted children of the late George Wilkes, proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, who died nearly ten years ago. The son, George Wilkes, is about thirty-five years of age. He has been named executor of the will of his father, but the executorship of the will was not given to him. The appointment was revoked, and his interest in the estate was given to his sister. The will contained this clause:

My son George, forgetful of his obligations to me, has lately ignored my authority and treated me with so much insult that I have felt forced to forbid him my house, and such conduct on his part has caused me to centre the most of my affection on his sister.

CHARLES B. REED'S DAUGHTER.

The Supreme Court to Decide Whether He is a Proper Person to Have Charge of Her.

James J. Neale, who was appointed referee by the Supreme Court to take testimony as to the character and standing of Charles B. Reed in proceedings brought by Mr. Reed to secure the custody of his seven-year-old daughter, Jessie, with her, in 1933 Mrs. Reed was granted a divorce from her husband, Charles B. Reed, and the custody of the child was awarded to her. Mr. Reed subsequently paid her $2,000 and secured a general release from her, agreeing also to support the child. Mrs. Reed went to reside with her father, who is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital.

Mr. Reed had been in the employ of Martin B. Brown for twenty years, and derives an income from the business of from $7,000 to $10,000 a year. He and his wife, Mary A. Reed, separated nearly five years ago on account of domestic quarrels. Mrs. Reed was granted a divorce from her husband, Charles B. Reed, and the custody of the child was awarded to her. Mr. Reed subsequently paid her $2,000 and secured a general release from her, agreeing also to support the child. Mrs. Reed went to reside with her father, who is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital.

Mr. Reed had been in the employ of Martin B. Brown for twenty years, and derives an income from the business of from $7,000 to $10,000 a year. He and his wife, Mary A. Reed, separated nearly five years ago on account of domestic quarrels. Mrs. Reed was granted a divorce from her husband, Charles B. Reed, and the custody of the child was awarded to her. Mr. Reed subsequently paid her $2,000 and secured a general release from her, agreeing also to support the child. Mrs. Reed went to reside with her father, who is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital.

Mr. Reed had been in the employ of Martin B. Brown for twenty years, and derives an income from the business of from $7,000 to $10,000 a year. He and his wife, Mary A. Reed, separated nearly five years ago on account of domestic quarrels. Mrs. Reed was granted a divorce from her husband, Charles B. Reed, and the custody of the child was awarded to her. Mr. Reed subsequently paid her $2,000 and secured a general release from her, agreeing also to support the child. Mrs. Reed went to reside with her father, who is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital. Her father now seeks to get possession of his child, and Mr. Reed is now in the hospital.

Mr. Reed had been in the employ of Martin B. Brown for twenty years,