

HANDSPRING'S BIG STAKE.

MR. DWYER'S COLT WINS THE $10,000 TREMONT AT GRAVESEND.

Defeated the Belmont Stable's Refuge by a Head—The Favorite Applegate, Third, Beats a Length—Applegate Was Examined by a Veterinary Expert to Prove that He Was Not a Three-Year-Old—Keanan Takes the Boulevard Handicap—Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester the Other Good Things.

The thousands who fied from the glare of the city hoping to find sea breezes at Gravesend yesterday were disappointed. The heat was intolerable and the racing was not worth the atmosphere that life did not seem worth the living. It threatened to rain about 4:30 o'clock, but the storm swept past the race track, and while New York and Brooklyn streets were running with water the course fairly thrived under the fierce rays of the sun.

The attention was attracted to the racing by the first class, Handspring, owned by P. J. Dwyer, winning the rich Tremont stakes for two-year-olds, while Keanan put up his 110 pounds and won the Boulevard handicap, running the mile and a furlong in 1:53. Applegate was the favorite for the Tremont stakes, but the crushing impost of 123 pounds, coupled with a good deal of crowding and jostling at the backstretch and again on the upper turn, helped to defeat the good colt, third to Handspring and Refuge being the best he could do at the end. In the Private sweepstakes, with even odds, Applegate was to be ridden out all the way in order to win by a length. In the Great American stakes, however, Handspring was most grievous disappointment, and ran so poorly that the race could not be accepted as the true form of the big son of Hanover. He showed yesterday that he was not, in fact, the colt who is the authority for the statement that Handspring, whom he rode, was interfered with quite as much as Applegate, and that while he was to run around his field at the head of the stretch, McCafferty got through on the rail.

For some days past it had been rumored that Applegate was to be ridden out in the hands of the jockey club heard the reports and had the younger examined yesterday by Dr. Hildekooper, when it was found that he is a genuine two-year-old. He was bought last season as a yearling by his owner from Hiram Scobogan of Kentucky.

Applegate was favorite at odds on for the Tremont Stakes, for which there were ten starters. Jefferson, a stable companion, was also named. McCafferty declaring to win with Applegate. P. J. Dwyer ran both Handspring and Azim, putting Doggett on the colt and Dwyer on the other. The race was a close one, but Handspring was the victor, beating Applegate by a head. The other good things were Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester. Handspring was the favorite at odds on for the Boulevard Handicap, for which there were ten starters. Jefferson, a stable companion, was also named. McCafferty declaring to win with Applegate. P. J. Dwyer ran both Handspring and Azim, putting Doggett on the colt and Dwyer on the other. The race was a close one, but Handspring was the victor, beating Applegate by a head. The other good things were Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester.

Handspring was the favorite at odds on for the Boulevard Handicap, for which there were ten starters. Jefferson, a stable companion, was also named. McCafferty declaring to win with Applegate. P. J. Dwyer ran both Handspring and Azim, putting Doggett on the colt and Dwyer on the other. The race was a close one, but Handspring was the victor, beating Applegate by a head. The other good things were Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester.

Handspring was the favorite at odds on for the Boulevard Handicap, for which there were ten starters. Jefferson, a stable companion, was also named. McCafferty declaring to win with Applegate. P. J. Dwyer ran both Handspring and Azim, putting Doggett on the colt and Dwyer on the other. The race was a close one, but Handspring was the victor, beating Applegate by a head. The other good things were Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester.

Handspring was the favorite at odds on for the Boulevard Handicap, for which there were ten starters. Jefferson, a stable companion, was also named. McCafferty declaring to win with Applegate. P. J. Dwyer ran both Handspring and Azim, putting Doggett on the colt and Dwyer on the other. The race was a close one, but Handspring was the victor, beating Applegate by a head. The other good things were Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester.

Handspring was the favorite at odds on for the Boulevard Handicap, for which there were ten starters. Jefferson, a stable companion, was also named. McCafferty declaring to win with Applegate. P. J. Dwyer ran both Handspring and Azim, putting Doggett on the colt and Dwyer on the other. The race was a close one, but Handspring was the victor, beating Applegate by a head. The other good things were Patrician, April Fool, Requisite, and Manchester.

FRESH RECORDS OUT WEST.

Old Figures Wiped Out in Nearly All Events in New Western Intercollegiate Games.

CHICAGO, June 1.—A threatening sky with a slight drizzle of rain just before the time to begin kept many people from attending the athletic championship meeting of the Western Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association this afternoon. There were fourteen events on the programme, all well filled, and the track, directed by J. V. Crum, University of California, was in prime condition. In all there were 200 individual athletes entered, making 400 entries in all. Summary: One hundred-yard run—Final heat won by J. V. Crum, University of California, 12.5 seconds. Time, 10 seconds.

Crum broke the record with the greatest ease, and looked as if he could have done better had he been pushed. J. H. Maybury, University of Wisconsin, defeated J. V. Scoggins, the University of California track by a narrow margin in the first heat. He tied the Western Intercollegiate record of 10.1 seconds, a feat which was duplicated by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final. The Golden Gate champion walked in fine style throughout and clipped two seconds off the record in the final. He was followed by J. V. Crum, University of California, in the second heat. In the run-off for second men Scoggins got into the final.

HARVARD AT NEW LONDON.

Recent gravity to lose a race, will be remedied after experienced coaches take them in hand at New Haven.

Langford, Treadway, Crum, and Holcomb were selected as the men who are to take charge of the Harvard crew. The men behind him out of time. This gives rise to the criticism that Holcomb, Crum, and Langford are not the best material available. Capt. Armstrong is doing this for Yale; not for ourselves.

Harvard's new athletic rule. Higher strength records will be demanded of candidates hereafter. Boston, June 1.—The requirements for athletes at Harvard are to be raised. After Sept. 1 all students desiring to compete in contests will be required to take up their studies by making higher strength records than heretofore.

Two English teams to play in Philadelphia and this city. Cambridge University's famous team of cricketers, including some of the best men of the "pack" will be seen here this season. The four players to be seen here are, however, not the same as those who were seen in England last season.

Harvard's crews arrive at New London. New London, June 1.—The Harvard varsity and freshman crews arrived here at 5:30 this evening from Boston. They are the first aquatic representatives of the colleges to put in an appearance, and will no doubt make a splendid showing at the close of the present month.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

HARVARD AT NEW LONDON.

Recent gravity to lose a race, will be remedied after experienced coaches take them in hand at New Haven.

Langford, Treadway, Crum, and Holcomb were selected as the men who are to take charge of the Harvard crew. The men behind him out of time. This gives rise to the criticism that Holcomb, Crum, and Langford are not the best material available. Capt. Armstrong is doing this for Yale; not for ourselves.

Harvard's new athletic rule. Higher strength records will be demanded of candidates hereafter. Boston, June 1.—The requirements for athletes at Harvard are to be raised. After Sept. 1 all students desiring to compete in contests will be required to take up their studies by making higher strength records than heretofore.

Two English teams to play in Philadelphia and this city. Cambridge University's famous team of cricketers, including some of the best men of the "pack" will be seen here this season. The four players to be seen here are, however, not the same as those who were seen in England last season.

Harvard's crews arrive at New London. New London, June 1.—The Harvard varsity and freshman crews arrived here at 5:30 this evening from Boston. They are the first aquatic representatives of the colleges to put in an appearance, and will no doubt make a splendid showing at the close of the present month.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

HARVARD AT NEW LONDON.

Recent gravity to lose a race, will be remedied after experienced coaches take them in hand at New Haven.

Langford, Treadway, Crum, and Holcomb were selected as the men who are to take charge of the Harvard crew. The men behind him out of time. This gives rise to the criticism that Holcomb, Crum, and Langford are not the best material available. Capt. Armstrong is doing this for Yale; not for ourselves.

Harvard's new athletic rule. Higher strength records will be demanded of candidates hereafter. Boston, June 1.—The requirements for athletes at Harvard are to be raised. After Sept. 1 all students desiring to compete in contests will be required to take up their studies by making higher strength records than heretofore.

Two English teams to play in Philadelphia and this city. Cambridge University's famous team of cricketers, including some of the best men of the "pack" will be seen here this season. The four players to be seen here are, however, not the same as those who were seen in England last season.

Harvard's crews arrive at New London. New London, June 1.—The Harvard varsity and freshman crews arrived here at 5:30 this evening from Boston. They are the first aquatic representatives of the colleges to put in an appearance, and will no doubt make a splendid showing at the close of the present month.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

At the wicket yesterday. Some big scores rolled up—A victory for Kings County St. George. The first game of the New York Cricket Association was played yesterday at Prospect Park. The scoring contest between the Kings County St. George and the Metropolitan Insurance A. C. resulted in a victory for the former by twenty-one runs.

THE HOB COY.

is always given at our old reliable House. It is to that chiefly we owe our success.

155, 157 AND 159 EAST 23D ST., West of 3d Ave., New York.

Furniture, Carpets, Upholstery, &c. Special attention given to the furnishing of FLATS, COUNTRY COTTAGES AND HOTELS and all out-of-town orders.

Easiest Terms of Credit Given.

Final Withdrawal of Three of the Brothers. PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The final retirement at the annual meeting yesterday of the Cramp Shipbuilding Company of the three brothers, William M., Jacob C., and Samuel H. Cramp, has started rumors that the control of the practical workings of the company was about to pass into the hands of a combination of stockholders, and that the Cramps were to withdraw.

The retirement in no way staggers the Cramp family, but it does cause a certain amount of uneasiness among the stockholders. The fact of the matter is that the three brothers who withdrew yesterday practically ceased to have anything to do with the company about three years ago, when the company was sold to a syndicate of capitalists. The company had secured contracts amounting to nearly $20,000,000, and the Cramp brothers had secured an opportunity to purchase the company at a price which was considered to be a very high one. The brothers never had a majority of the shares.

The new articles of incorporation of the company it was to be known always as the William Cramp & Sons Ship and Engine Building Company, and that the Cramp brothers, who were the President of the company, and his two sons, Henry and Samuel H. Cramp, were to be in actual control. That has been followed out. Henry and Samuel H. Cramp were to be in actual control. That has been followed out. Henry and Samuel H. Cramp were to be in actual control. That has been followed out.

COLLEGIANS AT THE BEEM. Annual Regatta of the Yale Yacht Club—Commodore Harris's Triumph. NEW HAVEN, June 1.—The annual regatta of the Yale Yacht Club was sailed over the club course today. The club was from the cove around Charles Island off Milford and return. The wind was light, being keenly a ladies' breeze. The fact that the yachts were all sailed by college men lent much interest to the races.

On Local Tennis Courts. The final games in the invitation tournament of the Hillside Tennis Club of Plainfield, N. J., were decided yesterday afternoon. The contest was between the Decoration Bay fifteen players from the Iliopon Point, Hillside, and Jersey City Tennis clubs, the West Side Tennis Club of New York, and the South Orange Field Tennis Club of South Orange, N. J.

What Killed Sarah Vuolo. Deputy Coroner Weston went yesterday to 165 Mott street, the home of the parents of Sarah Vuolo, a 16-year-old girl, who died yesterday. He found the girl in a state of decomposition, and after making an autopsy, Andrea Vuolo, the father of the dead girl, refused to let the operation be performed, and no death certificate was granted. Dr. Weston will probably insist on an autopsy today. Dr. Weston was notified that the girl had died at the home for some time, and he followed her to the home for some time, and he followed her to the home for some time, and he followed her to the home for some time.

The Weather. The weather in this city yesterday was fair and excessively warm; barometer, official temperature, 90°; wind, S. by E., 10 to 15 miles an hour; barometer corrected to read to sea level at 30.0, 29.95; S. P. M. 90.0. The thermometer at Perry's pharmacy, 8th building, recorded the following yesterday as follows: Average temperature, 90.0; minimum, 80.0; maximum, 95.0.

Deafness and Head Noises. Hair-Health. Beauty. The weather in this city yesterday was fair and excessively warm; barometer, official temperature, 90°; wind, S. by E., 10 to 15 miles an hour; barometer corrected to read to sea level at 30.0, 29.95; S. P. M. 90.0. The thermometer at Perry's pharmacy, 8th building, recorded the following yesterday as follows: Average temperature, 90.0; minimum, 80.0; maximum, 95.0.

CARPETS BY M. STEVENS 326 7th Av., Telephone 1122 3828.