

WHAT WAS THEIR MOTIVE?

THE IVOLI BURGLARS DEPARTED WITHOUT ANY ROPE!

They Picked Heave with Costly Furniture, Silver, and China—Valuable Papers Destroyed—Has Col. De Poyster a Fair Trial?

TROTT, N. Y., July 3.—Various rumors are abroad as to the motives of the burglars who effected an entrance into the summer residence of Col. John Johnston Livingston, De Poyster at the River road on Monday night. That the intruders were not in search of plunder is now generally acknowledged, for there were plenty of valuables and bric-a-brac around the house which they might have carried away without being themselves and they so chosen. But they took nothing so far as can be discovered, contenting themselves with hacking at the furniture, pictures, and ornaments with a cleaver which they found in the kitchen and destroying everything else they could lay their hands on.

They broke down doors and smashed them with a turn of the screw, the sliding of a bolt would have opened them. Private papers which they found in Col. De Poyster's office they tore into atoms, while trunks and boxes were broken open and the contents, clothing and household linen, were scattered all around.

There are few more popular men in this place than Col. De Poyster, consequently no one can understand the attack on his place. He has been President of the village corporation several times, and although he was defeated in the last election by James A. Decker, an employee of the New York Central Railroad, it was not because his popularity had fallen, but because Decker wanted to put one of their own people at the head of the corporation.

Col. De Poyster's father, Gen. John Watts De Poyster, was a summer house on Rose Hill, about a quarter of a mile from his place, where he is now living. Gen. De Poyster is separated from his wife and lives with her in the city. The elder Mrs. De Poyster is now living in New York and has not been here this year, although it has always been her custom to spend the early spring at her son's country home.

One of the trunks which the invaders of the De Poyster mansion ransacked belonged to Mrs. Anne De Poyster. It had been left in a room on the first floor, but the thieves dragged it out in the hall, where they went through it at their leisure. If the thieves were actuated by malice they made a marvellously careful job of it. The contents of the trunk were not touched, but the trunk itself was made up as if it had never been opened. The house was left in a state of confusion, with the furniture and the trunks scattered all over the place. The thieves were seen to enter the house by the front door, and to leave by the back door. They were seen to enter the house by the front door, and to leave by the back door. They were seen to enter the house by the front door, and to leave by the back door.

ARREST OF THE CARBON KING.

Once Known as Part Owner in the Kimberley Diamond Mines.

Simon Dassau, a diamond broker, formerly in business in John street, and known to the jewelry trade as the Carbon King, who, it is said, was once a partner owner of the Kimberley diamond mines in Africa, was arrested late Tuesday night by Deputy Sheriff Frank Walgring upon an execution against him for $2,411.40, represented by Lawyer J. Gould. The $2,411.40 represents an unsatisfied judgment obtained against Dassau in last January by Sarah A. Carson, who sued him to recover $50,000 damages for causing her arrest on a charge of blackmail when she tried to collect a bill from him.

TROLLEY SMASH IN NEWARK.

A Car Crashes Into a Wagon Load of Bottles—Four Persons Hurt.

A wagon loaded with old bottles was struck by an Irvington trolley car at the junction of the Irvington road and the New York and Erie tracks on Monday morning. The wagon belonged to P. J. Foley & Bros., old bottle dealers, and was driven by Charles Foley, one of the firm. On the seat with him was another Charles Foley, a fourteen-year-old boy, who is not related to the driver. The wagon was struck by the trolley car, and the bottles were scattered all over the place. The trolley car was stopped, and the driver was taken to the hospital.

FOUR TROLLEY REPAIRMEN HURT.

A Repair Car of the North Hudson County Railway Trolley Line Jammed the Track at Woodcliff, Half a Mile Beyond Guttenberg, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

The repair car was being pushed along the south-bound track by a motor in charge of George Roth. The trolley car was jammed against the track, and the four repairmen were hurt. The trolley car was stopped, and the repairmen were taken to the hospital.

MURDEROUS RUSSIAN REFUGEES.

Mrs. Besseley Wants When She Hears the Details of the Fatal Shooting.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 3.—A sensational case occurred today during the examination of Ivan Kovolev, the Russian refugee from Saghalian Island, against whom strong evidence has been advanced showing that he murdered old Greener Weber and his wife in December last. Kovolev denied that he had anything to do with the murder, and his lawyers are endeavoring to prove that he is innocent. Mrs. Besseley, Weber's wife, is very anxious to hear the details of the murder, and she is being kept in the hospital.

STRIKERS' FAMILIES EVICTED.

Eighteen Turned Out Yesterday and Fourteen More to Go to-morrow.

Eighteen families of strikers' Bohemian cigar makers were evicted yesterday afternoon from their homes at 303 to 400 East Broadway street, owned by Josephs & Co. and the Liberty Cigar Company, their employers. The strikers have been on strike for several weeks, and the owners have decided to evict them. The families were given twenty-four hours to leave, and they are being taken to the streets.

Willing to Pay $6 for a Brass Watch If It Was Stolen.

A well-dressed German called upon Mrs. Emma Kaufman of 774 Middleton street, Williamsburgh, yesterday, and offered to sell her a gold watch for $6. She told her that the watch was made in Switzerland, and that he was willing to pay $6 for it. She was suspicious, and she called the police. The German was taken to the station, and he is being held for further investigation.

Mrs. Brookfield and the Aldermen.

Commissioner of Public Works Brookfield says that he is not much worried over the action of the Aldermen in refusing to pass general laws which would stop the work of the department and keep Mr. Brookfield's men out of jobs. He says that he has plenty of work in the way of improvements and repairs to keep his men busy all summer.

Miss Florence Panco.

Miss Florence Panco, a daughter of Albert Panco of Philadelphia, a guest at the Elberon Hotel, fell while riding on her wheel at Elberon last night and fractured her left ankle. The accident occurred about 10 o'clock, and she was taken to the hospital. She is now recovering from her injuries, and she is expected to be discharged in a few days.

AMERICAN FARRIELLES.

They Denounce the English Liberals and Call for the Arrest of the English Ministers.

The Irish Independent Party of America last night issued a manifesto attacking the late Liberal administration in England and calling for support for the party in Parliament. The manifesto was prepared by the Executive Committee, and was promulgated at a meeting of fifty Irishmen at 1473 Broadway, New York.

He Begun by Establishing a Factory for Giant Torpedoes.

Two weeks ago last Sunday a man carrying a black satchel rapped at the door of Carpenter Barr's house, at Second and Monroe streets, Hoboken. He said that he had a very important proposition to make to Barr. Barr opened the door, and the man entered. He said that he had a very important proposition to make to Barr. Barr opened the door, and the man entered. He said that he had a very important proposition to make to Barr.

ARREST OF THE CARBON KING.

Once Known as Part Owner in the Kimberley Diamond Mines.

Simon Dassau, a diamond broker, formerly in business in John street, and known to the jewelry trade as the Carbon King, who, it is said, was once a partner owner of the Kimberley diamond mines in Africa, was arrested late Tuesday night by Deputy Sheriff Frank Walgring upon an execution against him for $2,411.40, represented by Lawyer J. Gould.

TROLLEY SMASH IN NEWARK.

A Car Crashes Into a Wagon Load of Bottles—Four Persons Hurt.

A wagon loaded with old bottles was struck by an Irvington trolley car at the junction of the Irvington road and the New York and Erie tracks on Monday morning. The wagon belonged to P. J. Foley & Bros., old bottle dealers, and was driven by Charles Foley, one of the firm.

FOUR TROLLEY REPAIRMEN HURT.

A Repair Car of the North Hudson County Railway Trolley Line Jammed the Track at Woodcliff, Half a Mile Beyond Guttenberg, at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

MURDEROUS RUSSIAN REFUGEES.

Mrs. Besseley Wants When She Hears the Details of the Fatal Shooting.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 3.—A sensational case occurred today during the examination of Ivan Kovolev, the Russian refugee from Saghalian Island, against whom strong evidence has been advanced showing that he murdered old Greener Weber and his wife in December last.

STRIKERS' FAMILIES EVICTED.

Eighteen Turned Out Yesterday and Fourteen More to Go to-morrow.

Eighteen families of strikers' Bohemian cigar makers were evicted yesterday afternoon from their homes at 303 to 400 East Broadway street, owned by Josephs & Co. and the Liberty Cigar Company, their employers.

Willing to Pay $6 for a Brass Watch If It Was Stolen.

A well-dressed German called upon Mrs. Emma Kaufman of 774 Middleton street, Williamsburgh, yesterday, and offered to sell her a gold watch for $6. She told her that the watch was made in Switzerland, and that he was willing to pay $6 for it.

Mrs. Brookfield and the Aldermen.

Commissioner of Public Works Brookfield says that he is not much worried over the action of the Aldermen in refusing to pass general laws which would stop the work of the department and keep Mr. Brookfield's men out of jobs.

Miss Florence Panco.

Miss Florence Panco, a daughter of Albert Panco of Philadelphia, a guest at the Elberon Hotel, fell while riding on her wheel at Elberon last night and fractured her left ankle. The accident occurred about 10 o'clock, and she was taken to the hospital.

HOBOKEN'S GREAT BOOM.

CHARLEY THE MYSTERY WAS GOING TO MAKE EVERY ONE RICH.

He Begun by Establishing a Factory for Giant Torpedoes. He Paid the First Week's Wages, and He Disappeared. Two weeks ago last Sunday a man carrying a black satchel rapped at the door of Carpenter Barr's house, at Second and Monroe streets, Hoboken.

"I see," said he, "that you have a nice little shop in the rear of your house. I'll give you $20 a month rent for it, although it's not worth $2. But I'm just going to make things hum over here, and the Hoboken folks won't know what's struck 'em until they find themselves living in brick-oven fronts with their servants and carriages. I have more secrets in that black bag than there are more schemes than any man who is a hired hand. But rent your shop to me, and I'll own a factory in the morning. Here's $5 to deposit."

Carpenter Barr accepted a new five-dollar bank note, and asked the stranger what he intended to manufacture. The stranger's answer, "principally torpedoes. I have secrets of manufacturing the greatest explosives known to science. To-morrow morning I will give employment to all the girls living in the neighborhood. I'll begin by making giant torpedoes for the Fourth of July. I can manufacture them at a cost of 2 cents, and sell them for 75 cents a hundred. I have orders for a hundred million, and with the aid of a dozen girls, I can turn out 20,000 a day, each torpedo being as big as an ordinary sized apple. My own profits will amount to $150 per day, and at the same time I'll be making a nice little money for you."

FOOD FOR TROUT.

Insects and Crustaceans Propagated in Waters Where Fish Are Cultivated.

One of the State Fish Commissioners was talking the other evening about fish protection and culture, and referred to some common fallacies. "Some people," he said, "seem to have the idea that all one has to do is dump young fry into a stream by the thousand for a few years and glorious trout fishing will be an infallible result. As a matter of fact more streams are depleted and ruined by the fish being dumped than are improved by the same method."

ENRIQUE COLLAZO HERE.

He is Looking for Men Who Will Help Him Liberate the Cubans.

Enrique Collazo, one of Cuba's most influential leaders, arrived here with his brother Tomas, on Monday from Tampa. His arrival was kept secret, and nothing was known until yesterday. Collazo is about to organize and take charge of a large expedition which will be landed in Cuba soon. Several times the newspapers have reported that Collazo had been in Cuba, but they were false. Even yesterday a dispatch descriptive of his supposed landing in Cuba was published in the newspapers.

THE HEDGES MEN STILL ON TOP.

Their Foes in the Blaine Club Outvoted on the Negro Question.

The Blaine Club of the old Eleventh Assembly district again struggled with the question of the admission of colored men to the club at its meeting last night. The club is a social organization, and it has been the subject of much discussion. The Hedges men are the ones who are in favor of admitting colored men to the club, and they have been successful in their efforts.

PUFFERS FEAST ON CRABS.

Fate of Fiddlers or Blue Crabs that Get Into Their Tank at the Aquarium.

When pursued by an enemy the puffer, or swell fish, which is common along this coast, distends itself with air or water into the shape of a globe, to make itself too big to be taken into the mouth of its pursuer. In its ordinary shape it is almost flat, and when it is inflated it is as round as a globe. The puffer is a very curious creature, and it is very common along the coast. It is very common along the coast, and it is very common along the coast.

A New Catholic Church for Jersey City.

St. Lucy's parish in Jersey City is to have a new church. Ground has been broken at the corner of Grove and Fifteenth streets, and the cornerstone will be laid by Bishop Wilton on Sunday, July 21. The new church is to be a very fine building, and it is very common along the coast.

Zella Nicolaus's Suit Against Mr. Gould.

Zella Nicolaus-Rithman's lawyers, in her suit to recover $40,000 from George J. Gould, made application to Justice Lippicott in Jersey City yesterday for an order to permit an examination of Mr. Gould before the trial, which is argued for July 22. Lawyer Lippicott, who was not among those who succeeded, but who argued the case down for Monday.

A Great Fourth of July Exhibition.

No finer display of fireworks has been ever witnessed at Manhattan Beach than that prepared for the Fourth of July in the outdoor arena of the Metropolitan Hotel. The exhibition is to be a very fine one, and it is very common along the coast.

MOTHERS.

And those soon to become mothers, who are interested in the health of their children, should know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is the best medicine for the system. It is very common along the coast, and it is very common along the coast.

WOMEN AS BANK CUSTOMERS.

The Progress of a Widow from Crises to Marriage Sometimes Seen in Her Checks.

Up-town banks found it necessary to provide special accommodations for women. Much of the business that women transact personally with banks is done with the up-town Twenty-third street companies. These banks have down-town branches through real estate brokers and business agents, and there are a few business women that visit several of those banks personally. Women not engaged in business and having fixed incomes from investments are partial to the trust companies because they usually pay interests on considerable deposits at a great rate. Women who have business relations with the up-town safe deposit companies. They have at such places the advantages and conveniences of a club, a room where they may cut coupons, writers, or make business appointments.

Two sisters much alike, one of whom had a very fine apartment building, made an excellent test of the vigilance of the other whose business it is to scrutinize all persons coming with keys that open safe-deposit boxes. The sister that had no deposit came with the key to the other's safe-deposit box and sought to pass her on as the renter of the box. The key was not the same as the other's, and the sister who had the key was very suspicious. She asked the other sister to sign her name in order that it might be compared with the true signature.

There is on a conspicuous corner of Fifth avenue a great deal of business. Any one that watches the street door of the Miers window will gain a pretty clear notion as to the character of the company's female patrons. Considerable more than half of them wear black. Some are in decent morning, with heavy veils, so that one suspects that they are for the first time after their husbands' deaths. Some are in half mourning, and many in bright, fashionable dresses. Some are in black, and some look as if they were stop-over women, and some look as if they were in mourning. Some are in mourning, and some are in mourning. Some are in mourning, and some are in mourning.

Wounded in the Abdomen by One Italian While Assaulting Another.

Giuseppe Fogarty, 25 years old, of 1170 Second avenue, an convict, got lately returned from prison where he served a three and one-half years' term for burglary, is at the point of death in the Presbyterian Hospital. Nicola Paresini, 44 years old, of 139 Mulberry street, an Italian laborer, is in prison without bail awaiting the result of a stab wound that he is alleged to have inflicted upon Fogarty while the latter was in the street.

ENRIQUE COLLAZO HERE.

He is Looking for Men Who Will Help Him Liberate the Cubans.

Enrique Collazo, one of Cuba's most influential leaders, arrived here with his brother Tomas, on Monday from Tampa. His arrival was kept secret, and nothing was known until yesterday. Collazo is about to organize and take charge of a large expedition which will be landed in Cuba soon. Several times the newspapers have reported that Collazo had been in Cuba, but they were false. Even yesterday a dispatch descriptive of his supposed landing in Cuba was published in the newspapers.

SMUGGLED CIGARETTES IN FRUIT BARRELS.

In the cargo of the Ward line steamer Orizaba, which arrived from Havana on Saturday, were fifteen barrels of pineapples consigned by Leopoldo Dominguez to R. D. Jackson, a Custom House broker in this city. During the moving of the barrels about the wharf yesterday one of the barrels was opened, and the contents were found to be a large quantity of cigars. The cigars were found to be of the brand of the Cuban revolutionaries, and they were found to be of the brand of the Cuban revolutionaries.

THREE NEGROES HANGED AT ONCE.

MARYVILLE, Miss., July 3.—Bob Purvis, Griff Hubbard, and Grant Wilson, three negroes, were hanged here to-day for the murder of D. R. King, a flat-boat trader, last March. The execution was public and attracted a large crowd. The three negroes did not intend to kill King. They planned to scare him and rob the boat. A shot from Hubbard's revolver struck King in the head, and then the negroes endeavored to carry out their purpose. They were all hanged at once, and their bodies were left to rot on the gallows.

Surrender of a Cuban Raad.

HAVANA, July 3.—The insurgent band that was commanded by Zayas has surrendered to the Spanish commander at Remedios. Zayas and some of his men were surrendered, and his fate is unknown.

Christian Miller Lost Four Fingers.

Twenty-year-old Christian Miller of Farnham avenue, West New York, was playing about the quarry pits on Bergeline avenue and found one of the primer caps used for exploding dynamite. He placed the primer in his pocket, and it exploded, and he lost four fingers. He is now recovering from his injuries, and he is very common along the coast.

The Gayoso Hotel in a Receiver's Hands.

MAMPHIS, July 3.—The Gayoso Hotel went into the hands of a receiver to-day with obligations amounting to about $180,000. The property was sold to a receiver, and the hotel is now being managed by a receiver. The hotel is now being managed by a receiver, and the hotel is now being managed by a receiver.

A Brooklyn Paper's New Manager.

The management of the Free Press, the only German daily paper in Brooklyn, has passed from Col. Henry Edward Roeder, who established it in 1852, to his son, Edward H. Roeder. The new manager is Edward H. Roeder, who is a very fine man, and he is very common along the coast.

WILL SAVE YOU FROM A LIFE OF SUFFERING IF YOU ARE AFFLICTED WITH THE LIQUOR OR MORPHINE HABITS OR NERVOUS DISEASES.

Address: THE WILSON INSTITUTE, 69 N. 3rd St., N. Y. City.

HAWAII'S NEW MINISTER.

MR. W. R. CASTLE WILL REPRESENT THE REPUBLIC AT WASHINGTON.

He Received a Large Support from the Native Element, Who Believe He Will Not Neglect Their Interests in This Country.—The Government Settles Honolulu, June 27, via San Francisco, July 3.—The Senate yesterday confirmed the appointment of William R. Castle as Minister to Washington. The closest secrecy is observed as to the nature of the committee's report, the ensuing discussion, and the vote.

There is good reason to believe that the committee reported unanimously in Mr. Castle's favor. Undoubtedly there was a warm contention by Senators. Minister Hatch is said to have urged strong reasons for the confirmation. There was 10 to 10 vote that the vote in his favor was 10 to 10.

Mr. Castle has a large body of warm friends and admirers. The opposition to him has been very strenuous. The opponents have been extremely cautious about specifying in print any particular grounds of objection to him. President Dole has named the five remaining members of the council of state as follows: Charles M. Cook, American; Joseph Mendonca, Portuguese; John L. King, American; R. B. Murray, American; Henry Smith, Hawaiian.

EX-CONVICT FOGARTY STABBED.

Wounded in the Abdomen by One Italian While Assaulting Another.

Giuseppe Fogarty, 25 years old, of 1170 Second avenue, an convict, got lately returned from prison where he served a three and one-half years' term for burglary, is at the point of death in the Presbyterian Hospital. Nicola Paresini, 44 years old, of 139 Mulberry street, an Italian laborer, is in prison without bail awaiting the result of a stab wound that he is alleged to have inflicted upon Fogarty while the latter was in the street.

ENRIQUE COLLAZO HERE.

He is Looking for Men Who Will Help Him Liberate the Cubans.

Enrique Collazo, one of Cuba's most influential leaders, arrived here with his brother Tomas, on Monday from Tampa. His arrival was kept secret, and nothing was known until yesterday. Collazo is about to organize and take charge of a large expedition which will be landed in Cuba soon. Several times the newspapers have reported that Collazo had been in Cuba, but they were false. Even yesterday a dispatch descriptive of his supposed landing in Cuba was published in the newspapers.

SMUGGLED CIGARETTES IN FRUIT BARRELS.

In the cargo of the Ward line steamer Orizaba, which arrived from Havana on Saturday, were fifteen barrels of pineapples consigned by Leopoldo Dominguez to R. D. Jackson, a Custom House broker in this city. During the moving of the barrels about the wharf yesterday one of the barrels was opened, and the contents were found to be a large quantity of cigars. The cigars were found to be of the brand of the Cuban revolutionaries, and they were found to be of the brand of the Cuban revolutionaries.

THREE NEGROES HANGED AT ONCE.

MARYVILLE, Miss., July 3.—Bob Purvis, Griff Hubbard, and Grant Wilson, three negroes, were hanged here to-day for the murder of D. R. King, a flat-boat trader, last March. The execution was public and attracted a large crowd. The three negroes did not intend to kill King. They planned to scare him and rob the boat. A shot from Hubbard's revolver struck King in the head, and then the negroes endeavored to carry out their purpose. They were all hanged at once, and their bodies were left to rot on the gallows.

Surrender of a Cuban Raad.

HAVANA, July 3.—The insurgent band that was commanded by Zayas has surrendered to the Spanish commander at Remedios. Zayas and some of his men were surrendered, and his fate is unknown.

Christian Miller Lost Four Fingers.

Twenty-year-old Christian Miller of Farnham avenue, West New York, was playing about the quarry pits on Bergeline avenue and found one of the primer caps used for exploding dynamite. He placed the primer in his pocket, and it exploded, and he lost four fingers. He is now recovering from his injuries, and he is very common along the coast.

The Gayoso Hotel in a Receiver's Hands.

MAMPHIS, July 3.—The Gayoso Hotel went into the hands of a receiver to-day with obligations amounting to about $180,000. The property was sold to a receiver, and the hotel is now being managed by a receiver. The hotel is now being managed by a receiver, and the hotel is now being managed by a receiver.

A Brooklyn Paper's New Manager.

The management of the Free Press, the only German daily paper in Brooklyn, has passed from Col. Henry Edward Roeder, who established it in 1852, to his son, Edward H. Roeder. The new manager is Edward H. Roeder, who is a very fine man, and he is very common along the coast.

WOMEN AS BANK CUSTOMERS.

The Progress of a Widow from Crises to Marriage Sometimes Seen in Her Checks.

Up-town banks found it necessary to provide special accommodations for women. Much of the business that women transact personally with banks is done with the up-town Twenty-third street companies. These banks have down-town branches through real estate brokers and business agents, and there are a few business women that visit several of those banks personally. Women not engaged in business and having fixed incomes from investments are partial to the trust companies because they usually pay interests on considerable deposits at a great rate.

Two sisters much alike, one of whom had a very fine apartment building, made an excellent test of the vigilance of the other whose business it is to scrutinize all persons coming with keys that open safe-deposit boxes. The sister that had no deposit came with the key to the other's safe-deposit box and sought to pass her on as the renter of the box. The key was not the same as the other's, and the sister who had the key was very suspicious. She asked the other sister to sign her name in order that it might be compared with the true signature.

There is on a conspicuous corner of Fifth avenue a great deal of business. Any one that watches the street door of the Miers window will gain a pretty clear notion as to the character of the company's female patrons. Considerable more than half of them wear black. Some are in decent morning, with heavy veils, so that one suspects that they are for the first time after their husbands' deaths. Some are in half mourning, and many in bright, fashionable dresses. Some are in black, and some look as if they were stop-over women, and some look as if they were in mourning.

Wounded in the Abdomen by One Italian While Assaulting Another.

Giuseppe Fogarty, 25 years old, of 1170 Second avenue, an convict, got lately returned from prison where he served a three and one-half years' term for burglary, is at the point of death in the Presbyterian Hospital. Nicola Paresini, 44 years old, of 139 Mulberry street, an Italian laborer, is in prison without bail awaiting the result of a stab wound that he is alleged to have inflicted upon Fogarty while the latter was in the street.

ENRIQUE COLLAZO HERE.

He is Looking for Men Who Will Help Him Liberate the Cubans.

Enrique Collazo, one of Cuba's most influential leaders, arrived here with his brother Tomas, on Monday from Tampa. His arrival was kept secret, and nothing was known until yesterday. Collazo is about to organize and take charge of a large expedition which will be landed in Cuba soon. Several times the newspapers have reported that Collazo had been in Cuba, but they were false. Even yesterday a dispatch descriptive of his supposed landing in Cuba was published in the newspapers.

SMUGGLED CIGARETTES IN FRUIT BARRELS.

In the cargo of the Ward line steamer Orizaba, which arrived from Havana on Saturday, were fifteen barrels of pineapples consigned by Leopoldo Dominguez to R. D. Jackson, a Custom House broker in this city. During the moving of the barrels about the wharf yesterday one of the barrels was opened, and the contents were found to be a large quantity of cigars. The cigars were found to be of the brand of the Cuban revolutionaries, and they were found to be of the brand of the Cuban revolutionaries.

THREE NEGROES HANGED AT ONCE.

MARYVILLE, Miss., July 3.—Bob Purvis, Griff Hubbard, and Grant Wilson, three negroes, were hanged here to-day for the murder of D. R. King, a flat-boat trader, last March. The execution was public and attracted a large crowd. The three negroes did not intend to kill King. They planned to scare him and rob the boat. A shot from Hubbard's revolver struck King in the head, and then the negroes endeavored to carry out their purpose. They were all hanged at once, and their bodies were left to rot on the gallows.

Surrender of a Cuban Raad.

HAVANA, July 3.—The insurgent band that was commanded by Zayas has surrendered to the Spanish commander at Remedios. Zayas and some of his men were surrendered, and his fate is unknown.

Christian Miller Lost Four Fingers.

Twenty-year-old Christian Miller of Farnham avenue, West New York, was playing about the quarry pits on Bergeline avenue and found one of the primer caps used for exploding dynamite. He placed the primer in his pocket, and it exploded, and he lost four fingers. He is now recovering from his injuries, and he is very common along the coast.

The Gayoso Hotel in a Receiver's Hands.

MAMPHIS, July 3.—The Gayoso Hotel went into the hands of a receiver to-day with obligations amounting to about $180,000. The property was sold to a receiver, and the hotel is now being managed by a receiver. The hotel is now being managed by a receiver, and the hotel is now being managed by a receiver.

A Brooklyn Paper's New Manager.

The management of the Free Press, the only German daily paper in Brooklyn, has passed from Col. Henry Edward Roeder, who established it in 1852, to his son, Edward H. Roeder. The new manager is Edward H. Roeder, who is a very fine man, and he is very common along the coast.

WILL SAVE YOU FROM A LIFE OF SUFFERING IF YOU ARE AFFLICTED WITH THE LIQUOR OR MORPHINE HABITS OR NERVOUS DISEASES.

Address: THE WILSON INSTITUTE, 69 N. 3rd St., N. Y. City.

WE BOUGHT ONE.

Thousand yards of blue and black English Serge recently at a price that we can afford to sell the suits which we made from it for $11.

They're $4 under regular price. Do you want one? Our special sale of Worsted Serge, and Cheviot Suits this season at $11, $12, $14, $15, $16, $18, and $20 has been unprecedented, and the demand for many lines of mixed Cheviot and Worsted Suits for $14 to $23 equals the supply.