

MORE MEN FOR ABYSSINIA.

THE NEW COMMANDER ASKS FOR RE-REINFORCEMENTS AT ONCE.

Managers of the Italian War are authorized to send to Africa at once additional military men and munitions of war. It also reports that the 18,000 men who last Sunday 7,000 have returned to the Italian camp and others are arriving daily.

The Government has received advice from Gen. Baldissera saying that he has sent Major Mena to ask King Menelik for permission to bury the bodies of the Italian soldiers who were killed in the battle of Adua on Sunday.

London, March 7.—It is held in some diplomatic circles that Italy's disaster in Abyssinia will restore the entente between Great Britain and Germany. The pact between Prime Minister Salisbury and Prince Menelek regarding common maritime action in the Mediterranean and the Anglo-Italian arrangement relative to Kassala and the Egyptian Sudan give England special interest in keeping Italy strong.

London, March 7.—The Italian Government certainly received tonight night reports of the fall of Kassala. It is held in some diplomatic circles that Italy's disaster in Abyssinia will restore the entente between Great Britain and Germany.

DESERI THE SALVATION ARMY.

Plainsfield Corps Ready to Repair to Ballington Booth's Standard.

Another desertion from the Salvation Army was reported yesterday. The Plainsfield corps, at a meeting held on Friday night, unanimously voted to repair to Ballington Booth's standard.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

Both sides are ready to repair to Ballington Booth's standard. The rank and file, though determined not to remain in the international organization under any circumstances.

FIGHTING IN CUBA.

The Insurgents More than Holding Their Own in Many Small Encounters.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Feb. 26, via Key West, March 7.—On the 24th inst. the guerrilla of Cuba, together with forces of volunteers from the same place, 180 men in all, had an engagement in Pozo Laje, with patriot forces of the Battalion Crombet, sixty men in number, under Capt. Gilar. The insurgents were well entrenched in splendid positions and made a gallant defence, firing constantly on the Spaniards, who were obliged to make a hasty retreat to the Colera.

The Spaniards left on the field twenty-two dead, thirty-one wounded, and 5,000 cartridges. They had two killed and nine wounded. Dr. Eduardo Padro, who joined the patriots from this city a short time ago, attended the insurgent and Spanish wounded.

On the 25th evening Spanish soldiers left the Colera for the cavalry. When they were half a mile from the town they met an insurgent party of ninety men under commander Abad Reyes, who attacked them so suddenly that the Spaniards retreated to the Colera, leaving ten prisoners in the hands of the insurgents and twenty-five cartridges, and ten 3,000 cartridges, and ten mules. The insurgents had three wounded and the Spaniards six killed and seven wounded.

Col. Planas, with 400 cavalry, met fifty Spanish soldiers in the pasture ground La Guira, between the Colera and Holguin. The Col. Planas attacked the Spaniards with only 100 men, dispersing the troops, killing four and capturing twenty prisoners with their arms and ammunition. The insurgents had one killed and seven wounded.

Guantanamo is in a great state of alarm on account of the arrest of many innocent people and the taking of their homes in the middle of the night and assassinated outside the city.

The Spanish governor of this province not having enough troops to guard the province, he has ordered the garrisons to abandon the posts, burning the places before leaving. These have been the towns of Fernandopolis, Cauto Haire, Venta de Casanovas, and Socorro.

Three miles from here, left last night to join the insurgents.

Last night there were arrested here Dr. E. Tomas Padro, 75 years old, father of Dr. Tomas Padro, and his wife, and his daughter, and the insurgents for some time; Jose Leon Castro and his sister Pilar, and ten or twelve other persons.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents. The people of Mexico, Dr. Ruttan says, are only waiting for a formal declaration of the United States to join the cause of the standard of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

MONTEBELL, March 7.—Dr. Ruttan, dean of the medical faculty of Mexico, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. Damrosch's Company in "Siegfried" at the Academy of Music.

The exquisite beauty of phrase, the effortless poetry of Wagner's "Siegfried" music, impresses itself upon the mind more and more deeply with every successive hearing. So, does the symmetry of the dramatic poem strike one continually with new incentive to admiration the oftener it is considered and pondered.

A wonderful exposition and description of the most desirable and potent thing in the world, the electric light, is given in the play "Siegfried." The other characters display its charm and power, and intimate its struggles. Mime may be supposed to represent those hampering circumstances which beset the pathway of nearly every childhood, either in the form of poverty, prejudice, or the strict narrowness of the parents.

The performance given by Mr. Damrosch's company yesterday afternoon in the Academy of Music was an extremely high order of merit. It was a triumph for the company, and for the "Siegfried" fully to light. It is safe to say that this production is the best ever given in New York, with the single exception of scenery, which is fully dramatic in its nature, and is so full of contentment the cramped appearance of one so much smaller. However, all this has nothing to do with the excellence of the acting, which was upon an exalted plane as to lift the play to a superior to circumscribed surroundings.

In the first place, Herr Alvary's Siegfried is undoubtedly one of the finest characters ever known to the stage. It is, like Wagner's Siegfried, a perfect impersonation, and like Wagner's Siegfried, it is a perfect impersonation. It is a perfect impersonation, and like Wagner's Siegfried, it is a perfect impersonation.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried. The following are the names of the other members of the company: Mr. J. H. McVicker, who returned from a trip to the West Indies and Mexico, says he found the feeling throughout the whole of the West Indies in favor of the insurgents.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

It was a great satisfaction to the tenor's friends indeed, the voice assumed a more powerful and more resonant, more mellow, and in fact, more dramatic and explosive musical treatment than either Tannhauser, Walkure, or Siegfried.

812 TALKING MACHINE.

THAT TALKS TALK.

Great Popular and Scientific Success. Salesrooms Crowded with Astonished and Delighted Listeners to the SONGS AND CHORUSES, CORNET AND HARP SOLOS, RECITATIONS AND DIALOGUES, SCENES FROM THE VAUDEVILLE, ARIAS FROM THE OPERA, &c.

Rendered with marvellous accuracy and distinctness, and with a purity of tone entirely free from the metallic quality so noticeable in other and more expensive reproducers. Simple beyond belief. No battery—no electricity. The "records" indestructible. A child can operate the Gramophone. Hundreds can hear it simultaneously. Unquestionably superior in all respects to any other of the kind.

AGENTS WANTED to sell the Gramophone. It is a new and entirely new article. It is a new and entirely new article. It is a new and entirely new article. It is a new and entirely new article.

FOR AN HISTORICAL MUSEUM. Meeting at the Waldorf to Arrange the Exhibition of Colonial and Revolutionary Relics was held at the Hotel Waldorf last night to discuss the establishment of a museum. There were about forty men and women present.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

Mr. J. L. Duke called the meeting to order, and after a few minutes of preliminary remarks, he called for the adoption of a resolution, which was adopted, setting forth the necessity for a museum to preserve and exhibit the relics of our colonial and revolutionary history.

J. H. McVICKER DEAD.

The Veteran Theatrical Manager Passes Away in Chicago.

J. H. McVicker, the Chicago theatrical manager, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Chicago, after a brief illness. His son, Herbert McVicker, who is manager of Abbey's Theatre in this city, received a despatch from Chicago at 6 o'clock last night announcing his father's death. The son started immediately for Chicago.

J. H. McVicker was the oldest theatrical manager in this country. He was born in this city on Feb. 14, 1822, and had therefore just completed his seventy-fourth year of age. As an actor he made his first appearance on the stage in New Orleans at the St. Charles Theatre as the Sheriff in "The Honeymoon." He first appeared in this city at the Chatham Theatre in "The People's Candidate" in July, 1851, he appeared for the first time in Philadelphia at the Arch Street Theatre as Don Juan in "The Two Grooms." He married Annie Levering many years ago, but he separated from her soon after the marriage.

As a manager he was best known in connection with McVicker's Theatre in Chicago, of which he had been the proprietor for many years. It was in the sixties that he built his first theatre on Madison street, Chicago. It was destroyed by fire in the late sixties, and a few years later it was destroyed by fire. It was controlled by a stock company, in which J. H. McVicker and his wife were interested. McVicker was President of the company.

He had two children, one of whom married Mrs. J. H. McVicker, who is now Mrs. J. H. McVicker, who is manager of Abbey's Theatre in this city. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

WILLIAM PETTIT'S FUNERAL. Attended Yesterday by the Order of the Elks, and a Large Number of Friends. Many of the men whose patronage has helped to make Delmonico's famous—the old guard, as they are called—went out to the Fresh Pond crematory yesterday to pay a last tribute to the memory of William Pettit, the dean of the old guard, who died at Delmonico's on the 24th inst. It was a notable gathering that gathered in the chapel adjoining the crematory while the preacher read the service for the dead.

There were there: Frank Work, Dr. Habershaw, Col. M. J. O'Brien, John Hunter, Washington E. Connor, Peter Marle, Comodore William C. H. Robertson, T. Henry French, and a few others. All were friends of Mr. Pettit, and had been for a quarter of a century.

Mr. Pettit was born in Philadelphia fifty years ago. Twenty-five years ago he came to New York and founded the Pettit Chemical Company, which is now one of the largest and most successful of which Mr. Pettit was the sole proprietor and manager. Three years ago he came to New York he went to Delmonico's to live. He never had any other home in town.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

Mr. Pettit was a man of many acquaintances, who would have been glad to become his intimate friends. He was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago, and was a member of the Grand Old Law of the City of Chicago.

"Greater New York's Greatest Store."

They're Marching in! They're Marching out! Spring Goods March! on the Beautiful Spring Stocks. We open an invoice of Silks, Dress Goods, Laces, or whatever the case may be. It is shown on our counters, and lo! before we are quite acquainted with our own goods they have all marched into the hands of captivated customers.

No Wonder! They represent the noblest—choicest—best efforts of the season, and our prices are so low that they cannot help travelling rapidly. This Week Sees Several New Arrivals!

Pleasing Novelties in Shirt Waists. Are being constantly opened by us. Our Shirt Waist Department is probably the largest in the country. A stylish Shirt Waist of pure linen—white collar—double pointed—detached—extreme sleeves $1.48. Underskirts. Of the beautiful new material, "Chameleon Moire," umbrella shape, value 1.50. 79.

Waist A Great Help to Making Dressmakers. Adjustable Waist Form, 1.98. It can be adjusted to the exact size of the person to be fitted. Made in two Models: Model A measures 32-inch bust when closed; can be easily adjusted to any size up to and including size 38 bust, waist and neck always in proportion. Model B measures 36 inches closed; adjustable to any size. Carpet Sale Extraordinary! A 60c Cordemom Carpet To Go Monday at 29c.

10,000 yards Cordemom Carpets—one yard wide—reversible—strong—remarkably durable—first-class in every way—fully worth 60c per yard—will be offered Monday at 29c per yard. This is less than the cost of the material alone. No yard-wide carpet at anywhere near our present price equal THIS PARTICULAR VALUE. Positively none to dealers. Quilts, Comforters, and Pillows. We will place on sale to-morrow 1,648 of the new satin Damask white Quilts, worth from 4.00 to 5.00 each. Owing to our having bought the manufacturer's entire stock we are able to sell them at... 2.15 Each. Real Ostrich Feather Boas and Collar-ettes for spring, bright lustre, handsomely cured. For Monday and Tuesday Only.

BLOOMINGDALE BROS., 3d Ave., 59th and 60th Sts.

FISHING UP GOLD. The Treasure Box of a Sunk Spanish Cruiser Recovered. HAVANA, Feb. 28, via Tampa, March 7.—Yesterday noon the divers at work on the wreck of the cruise Spanish barcluzete, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.

It contains considerable gold as well as many other valuables. The chest was found in the Sancho Hernandez wreck, which was the last of the submerged vessel. After much labor they removed the fastenings of the treasure chest. The chest was then hauled up and landed on the dock.