

MAKING WAR ON THE DUEL.

REPORTS IN GERMANY TO HAVE THE PRACTICE ABOLISHED.

The Feeling Against the Code Has Prevailed... Many Believe Schradar Was Capable to the Matter of Kotze's Troubles.

Prussia, April 18.—The party of the Centre in the Reichstag have decided to put some questions to Chancellor von Hofenlohe in regard to the recent German duels, and ask to be informed what measures the Government proposes to take to prevent similar encounters in the future.

This movement of the Centre finds support in the highest social quarters, and is also championed by all of the leading Berlin and provincial newspapers. It is significant that a journal of the character of the Cologne Gazette, in a series of articles on the subject, deprecates the injury to its prestige which the court would incur to suffer from its supposed sympathy with duelling, and appeals to the Emperor to intervene and rigorously put a stop to the practice.

The increasing public agitation against duelling has prevented a series of duels which had been expected to arise out of the Kotze-Balfoeur affair. The meeting which was arranged between Barons Lanchen and Hahn has been stopped, and several other impending encounters are off.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies. In spite of the stand which the Emperor had taken, however, a large contingent of court society testified their respect for the dead duellist.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

THE TRANSVAAL DISPUTE.

Kruger Says It Won't Be Settled If Troops Are Sent to South Africa.

LONDON, April 18.—Mr. Chamberlain has obtained the assent of his colleagues to add 1,500 more troops to the permanent garrison in South Africa. Gov. Robinson says that President Kruger has sent word to him that the negotiations between the Transvaal and Great Britain will be hopeless if troops are sent to Cape Colony.

The Globe and other London papers and also many Liberal organs protest that the Government is to send troops to a country which is to suffer from its supposed sympathy with duelling, and appeals to the Emperor to intervene and rigorously put a stop to the practice.

The increasing public agitation against duelling has prevented a series of duels which had been expected to arise out of the Kotze-Balfoeur affair. The meeting which was arranged between Barons Lanchen and Hahn has been stopped, and several other impending encounters are off.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

There has also been a complete change in the attitude of the Emperor. For a long time his Majesty placed the greatest reliance upon Schradar, but latterly he turned against him, and his studied contempt for him was shown by his omission to send to his funeral, and by his refusal to permit the use of the Friedrichskirche or the Garrisonkirche at Potsdam for the deceased Master of Ceremonies.

SPAIN'S HOPELESS WAR.

RUIN STARES HER PEOPLE IN THE FACE IF IT GOES ON.

The Feeling Is Growing in Spain that the Bad Better Abandon Cuba—One of Her Leading Statesmen Gives a Graphic Picture of the Desperate Situation.

HAVANA, April 18.—A great sensation has been produced here by a letter from Madrid, written by Senor Gorostegui, a Deputy to the Cortes, a prominent man in Spanish politics, and some years ago Governor of the provinces of Havana and Matanzas. Senor Gorostegui writes to one of his friends, who is a high official in the Spanish Administration: "On here."

"We have no credit in foreign countries, and we can only afford with our own money to pay the expenses of the war until next August. From August to December we will support the operations in Cuba by means of paper money. But after that time, what shall we do?"

"Our effort in the past year to crush the revolution has been a failure. We have no resources to stand against the insurgents for two years more. Our intelligent political leaders think that we will be obliged to have taken some abandoned step, such as Domingo in 1864. The circumstances are the same."

"Only the merchants of Barcelona, who would be deprived by this step of the Cuban markets in which they have enjoyed such a great monopoly, would be against the proposed step. Every other sensible Spaniard would rejoice, and it would delight the Spanish mothers who now weep for their unfortunate sons who are engaged in Cuba in a hopeless struggle."

Private copies of this letter have circulated largely in Havana, but no newspaper dares to publish it, nor even to consult the press censor about the matter. It is said that Gen. Weyler has called to his palace the official who received the letter from Senor Gorostegui and accused him of lack of patriotism in circulating such a document.

Private copies of this letter have circulated largely in Havana, but no newspaper dares to publish it, nor even to consult the press censor about the matter. It is said that Gen. Weyler has called to his palace the official who received the letter from Senor Gorostegui and accused him of lack of patriotism in circulating such a document.

Private copies of this letter have circulated largely in Havana, but no newspaper dares to publish it, nor even to consult the press censor about the matter. It is said that Gen. Weyler has called to his palace the official who received the letter from Senor Gorostegui and accused him of lack of patriotism in circulating such a document.

Private copies of this letter have circulated largely in Havana, but no newspaper dares to publish it, nor even to consult the press censor about the matter. It is said that Gen. Weyler has called to his palace the official who received the letter from Senor Gorostegui and accused him of lack of patriotism in circulating such a document.

Can You Afford to Throw Away 95 Cents Out Of Every Dollar YOU SPEND FOR FOOD?

IF YOU CANNOT, THEN CONSIDER CAREFULLY THESE TWO ILLUSTRATIONS:

The dark portion shows the percentage of nutriment in the ordinary white flour and bread. The rest represents absolute waste, so far as nourishment is concerned. Out of every dollar you spend in purchasing white flour or bread you waste ninety-five cents if it is bone and muscle making, nerve and brain nourishing food you wish. If you simply desire a filler, you get your nourishment's worth.

The dark portion here shows the percentage of PROPER FOOD, NOURISHING food, and STRENGTHENING food which is contained in SHREDDED WHOLE WHEAT BISCUIT, made from the entire wheat berry. The most delicious, wholesome, and easily digested of all cereal preparations.

The Great Proper Food Exhibition, Broadway and 13th St., is open daily. The interesting process of making SHREDDED WHOLE WHEAT BISCUIT may be seen here and the product tried. It is served to all visitors free. All enterprising Grocers sell Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit.

John D. Hart, as "managing owner," to have the Bermuda cleared from Philadelphia. He is the manager for the owners of the steamer.

It is said that the British Government is to have the Bermuda cleared from Philadelphia. He is the manager for the owners of the steamer.

It is said that the British Government is to have the Bermuda cleared from Philadelphia. He is the manager for the owners of the steamer.

It is said that the British Government is to have the Bermuda cleared from Philadelphia. He is the manager for the owners of the steamer.

It is said that the British Government is to have the Bermuda cleared from Philadelphia. He is the manager for the owners of the steamer.

It is said that the British Government is to have the Bermuda cleared from Philadelphia. He is the manager for the owners of the steamer.

RUSSELL AS A CANDIDATE.

DEMOCRATS IN WASHINGTON WOULD BE SATISFIED WITH HIM.

They Think That There Is No Hope of His Being Any One That Russell Would Do as Well as Any Man to Meet a Defeat—Mr. McKinley Predicts a Split.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—What appears to be an authorized announcement that ex-Gov. Russell of Massachusetts intends to become a candidate for the Presidency at Chicago, was made this morning as coming from Boston. As the ex-Governor of Massachusetts is the first Democrat to come out boldly and declare his Presidential aspirations, the announcement naturally caused some political gossip at the capital.

Those Democratic Congressmen who were willing to discuss Mr. Russell's Presidential prospects said he would suit them about as well as anybody else, because none of them appears to have the slightest hope of electing the nominee of the Chicago Convention.

It appears that the Russell boom had its start at the recent celebration at Monticello, where he was the guest of honor. It is believed that the gathering at that place was not intended to be a Democratic party, but an anti-Republican one.

It appears that the Russell boom had its start at the recent celebration at Monticello, where he was the guest of honor. It is believed that the gathering at that place was not intended to be a Democratic party, but an anti-Republican one.

It appears that the Russell boom had its start at the recent celebration at Monticello, where he was the guest of honor. It is believed that the gathering at that place was not intended to be a Democratic party, but an anti-Republican one.

It appears that the Russell boom had its start at the recent celebration at Monticello, where he was the guest of honor. It is believed that the gathering at that place was not intended to be a Democratic party, but an anti-Republican one.

It appears that the Russell boom had its start at the recent celebration at Monticello, where he was the guest of honor. It is believed that the gathering at that place was not intended to be a Democratic party, but an anti-Republican one.

It appears that the Russell boom had its start at the recent celebration at Monticello, where he was the guest of honor. It is believed that the gathering at that place was not intended to be a Democratic party, but an anti-Republican one.

THE COLLECTION OF THE BRANDUS SALE.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

The sale by the American Art Association of Edward Brandus's furniture, tapestries, paintings, bronzes, miniatures, and various objects of art was concluded at the American Art Gallery by Auctioneer Kirby yesterday afternoon, with a total of $20,416.60 as the proceeds of the day's auction.

Hood's Sarsaparilla advertisement with logo and text: 'Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists sell it. Hood's Pills cure Liver Ills; easy to take, easy to operate, 360.'