New York Stock Exchange—Sales June 29. UNITED STATES AND STATE BONDS (In $1,000).

Table of stock prices and market activity, including sections for 'Closing Prices of United States Bonds', 'Railroads and Other Stocks', and 'Total Sales of Railway Bonds'.

Government indicates that some foreign Government is still intent upon accumulating gold, and finds the United States the cheapest market.

As was the case the latter part of last week, the most distressing feature of the market was the absence of a legitimate demand for stocks, even at material concessions in prices.

Business today, as officially computed, compares with those of Saturday, June 27.
