

that no office has been offered him, and he does not know that he is to be. It is asserted, however, that he is to be the first Assistant Postmaster.

NEW CABINET CONFIRMED.

INTERESTING AND IMPORTANT SESSION OF THE SENATE.

Mr. Hanna sworn in as Senator Amid a Wave of Applause—Senator Davis Made Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee—No Votes Against Confirmation, but the Silver Men Criticize the Nominations of the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Today's meeting of the Senate, the second one of the special session called by President Cleveland to meet yesterday afternoon, was brief, but very important business was transacted. Marcus Hanna was sworn in as Senator from Ohio, the nominations of President McKinley's Cabinet Ministers were received and confirmed, and Senator Davis of Minnesota was, by resolution, authorized to act as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

During the time before the Senate met, and while the chaplain was offering his opening prayer, the members of the cabinet were seated at the desks of the Senate, and the President's party were seated at the desks of the House.

Mr. Hanna, notwithstanding the reports of his attempted dictatorship over things in Washington, was not in the Senate today.

OLNEY'S ABSENCE EXPLAINED.

Mr. Olney did not go to the inauguration ceremony because he was not provided for him.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The cause of Secretary Olney's non-participation in any of the inaugural ceremonies is being discussed at the cabinet meeting last Tuesday the parts assigned to them in the inaugural proceedings, found no provision in the programme for their seats in the Senate chamber or on the stand in front of the Capitol.

OLNEY AND LILJOKALAN.

The Secretary Not Responsible for Her Presence in the Diplomatic Gallery.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Ex-Secretary of State Olney's delicate and delicate position in regard to the presence of the Hon. Mrs. Liljokalan in the diplomatic gallery of the Senate yesterday, and to her presence there during the inauguration, has been explained.

OLNEY AND LILJOKALAN.

The Secretary Not Responsible for Her Presence in the Diplomatic Gallery.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Ex-Secretary of State Olney's delicate and delicate position in regard to the presence of the Hon. Mrs. Liljokalan in the diplomatic gallery of the Senate yesterday, and to her presence there during the inauguration, has been explained.

CHANGES IN NAVAL COMMANDS.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Important changes in naval commands have been ordered, including that of Lieutenant-Commander Richard Bush, who for the past three years has edited the "Naval War Record" and is now detailed to command the USS Michigan on the Great Lakes from March 31, relieving Lieutenant-Commander E. H. C. Lantz, placed on waiting orders.

CAUSES OF REPUBLICAN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The following call for a caucus of the Republican members of the next House of Representatives was issued today.

WOMAN KILLED BY A TRAIN.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., March 5.—The remains of a woman were found in front of the Netherwood depot to-night at 7:30 by the track walker.

THE EXTRA SESSION'S WORK.

INDICATIONS THAT IT WILL NOT BE CONFINED TO THE TARIFF.

Resident Financier the Big Appropriation Bill Will Be Passed—The Leader Believes That Financial Legislation is Necessary to Usher in the Long Delayed Era of Prosperity.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—It is more than probable that a general session of legislation will be proposed at the special session of Congress, to meet on March 15. Speaker Reed has been asked to call the session on that date, but this was the ordinary call of courtesy by the Speaker upon the President, and it was not, therefore, important as bearing upon public questions.

POCKET VETOS.

Bills Which Failed Because They Were Not Passed in Time.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The "pocketed" bills of the session of Congress ending yesterday, which failed to become law because not signed by the President, exclusive of four great appropriation bills, were forty-five in number.

WOLCOTT'S CORDIAL WELCOME.

Senator Wolcott of Colorado, who arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon from his European trip, received a cordial and hearty welcome that extended to "the big trio."

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.

Free-Silver Men Assert That They Have Votes Enough to Take Control.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Trouble is brewing in the Senate over the reorganization of the committees, and it will probably be necessary to call a caucus to ascertain whether the Republicans have sufficient votes to control matters.

MOVEMENTS OF WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The cruiser Marblehead left Key West yesterday ostensibly for Apalachicola, but in reality to look for filibustering expeditions believed to be fitting out on the coast.

FLORIDA TRIBUTE TO SENATOR PLATT FROM THE "BOO."

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A beautiful floral decoration adorned the desk of United States Senator Platt when he took his seat in the Senate this morning, after an absence of sixteen years.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

THE EXTRA SESSION'S WORK.

INDICATIONS THAT IT WILL NOT BE CONFINED TO THE TARIFF.

Resident Financier the Big Appropriation Bill Will Be Passed—The Leader Believes That Financial Legislation is Necessary to Usher in the Long Delayed Era of Prosperity.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—It is more than probable that a general session of legislation will be proposed at the special session of Congress, to meet on March 15. Speaker Reed has been asked to call the session on that date, but this was the ordinary call of courtesy by the Speaker upon the President, and it was not, therefore, important as bearing upon public questions.

POCKET VETOS.

Bills Which Failed Because They Were Not Passed in Time.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The "pocketed" bills of the session of Congress ending yesterday, which failed to become law because not signed by the President, exclusive of four great appropriation bills, were forty-five in number.

WOLCOTT'S CORDIAL WELCOME.

Senator Wolcott of Colorado, who arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon from his European trip, received a cordial and hearty welcome that extended to "the big trio."

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.

Free-Silver Men Assert That They Have Votes Enough to Take Control.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Trouble is brewing in the Senate over the reorganization of the committees, and it will probably be necessary to call a caucus to ascertain whether the Republicans have sufficient votes to control matters.

MOVEMENTS OF WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The cruiser Marblehead left Key West yesterday ostensibly for Apalachicola, but in reality to look for filibustering expeditions believed to be fitting out on the coast.

FLORIDA TRIBUTE TO SENATOR PLATT FROM THE "BOO."

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A beautiful floral decoration adorned the desk of United States Senator Platt when he took his seat in the Senate this morning, after an absence of sixteen years.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

MR. TELLER'S CASE.

Mr. Teller says that the advocates of the white metal have enough votes to take control of the House, and that he is not prepared to give the floor to the majority.

A YANKEE BOY HERO.

His Pluck and Determination at Point Lookout An Execution of Deeds.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 5.—Col. Buck Candler, the present Georgia State Comptroller, was a company during the war, and in spite of the fact that he is rather small in stature and not at all heroic in looks, he made an excellent soldier.

ROYAL FAMILY CONNECTIONS.

Reigning Monarchs in Europe Much Related by Blood and Marriage.

Attention has recently been drawn to the extent to which the royal family of Denmark is related by marriage to the governing families of other European kingdoms.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

This Spring's suits and overcoats cannot be kept quiet much longer.

But so many men care so little because a suit or overcoat was made last Spring, and the saving of $5 to $15 means so much, that we mention them once more.

Spring overcoats, serge-lined, $8 and $10; silk-lined, $12 and $15—were $15 to $30 last year. Spring sack suits and cutaways, $10 and $12—were $14 to $28 last year.

ROYAL FAMILY CONNECTIONS.

Reigning Monarchs in Europe Much Related by Blood and Marriage.

Attention has recently been drawn to the extent to which the royal family of Denmark is related by marriage to the governing families of other European kingdoms.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.

TO-DAY ONLY.

SPRING DERBYS.

Every fashionable shaver, every fashionable golfer, and every fashionable sportsman, should have a pair of these.

MR. VAN DEUSEN'S OFFENSE.

The Grand Jury to Thicken the Case of Brooklyn's Former Ballot Clerk.

RECENT DESTROYERS FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS.

Within the last few months there have been launched from the shipbuilding yards of Messrs. Laird Bros., Birkenhead, England, no less than eight war vessels, and the speed they have attained at their official trials justifies the name bestowed upon them of thirty-knot destroyers.