NATIONAL GUARD NOTES.
The companies of the Seventh Regiment are paying particular attention to the duties of guards and sentinels at each company drill. It has been established in the library, which opens directly on the main hall, and the sentries are posted in the latter place. There will be a special meeting of the Board of Officers next Tuesday night to decide whether or not the regiment shall visit Boston during the latter part of May next. It is found that a special portion of the men can arrange to get away, the regiment will go. It is proposed to start on Saturday, May 29, and spend two days in Boston. On Monday, May 31, will be celebrated as "Memorial Day" this year, no time will be lost from business. The handsome "Team of Five" Troop, which has been competing for the trophy for the past ten years, has at last become the permanent property of Company F. Capt. Hand, thus adding to the many beautiful prizes which fairly dazzle the eyes of visitors in the company park. The members of the team of five of Company F, which, by the way, have composed the team for the past three years, are Sergeant Comfort, Sergeant Stevens, Corporal Perkins, Corporal Drake, and Private Goodspeed. The regiment will be reviewed in its armor on the evening of March 16 by Brig. Gen. Louis Fitzgerald, and the State decoration for marines will be presented to 25 experts, 140 sharpshooters, and 800 marksmen, a total of 1,027 decorations. Col. Appleton has ordered detailed battalions as follows: Companies D and G, Monday, March 23; Companies E, F, Tuesday, March 24; Companies C and K, Wednesday, March 25; Companies B and I, Thursday, March 26; Companies A and H, Friday, March 27. Assembly at 8 o'clock P. M. Each battalion of two companies will be divided into four commands. Company F have unanimously elected Corporal Alex Stevens a Sergeant. Lance Corporal E. K. Cook of the same company has been appointed corporal. Regimental Adjutant George J. Weaver is laid up with a bad cold, his duties being performed at present by Battalion Adjutant Townsend.

Company H, Twenty-second Regiment, will shoot a rifle match against a team from Company S, Twelfth Regiment, in the armory of the latter next Friday night, and a return match will be shot on the Twenty-second Regiment range. Teams will be composed of five men each. Company H have undertaken a big contract, as three of the most noted shots in the guard are in B Company's ranks. It is the best "sniping company" in the Twelfth.

Capt. Burston, Inspector of rifle practice, Twenty-second Regiment, on Feb. 22 last celebrated the completion of his twenty-fifth year as a member of the regiment.

Col. Seward, Ninth Regiment, has ordered detailed battalions as follows: First Battalion, Companies C, D, E, U, H, March 13 and 21; Second Battalion, Companies A, B, F, I, and K, March 14 and 24. Private Woods of Company H, who was the first to court martial some time ago for being disrespectful to Lieut. Young, has been honorably discharged, under section 230, Military Code. Company D, Capt. Walton, will give a dance at the Twelfth next Thursday night, and there will be presentations of medals to members who have performed 100 per cent. of duty. Company A will give a ball at the armory on the evening of March 17. Company K will probably hold a joint set of games with a prominent athletic club in April next.

Companies G and H, Twelfth Regiment, will be reviewed next Tuesday night by the regimental adjutant by Major Charles F. Roe of Squadron A. An interesting feature of the entertainment will be an exhibition drill by a company from Governor's Island. Company H has elected Mr. Nelson B. Burr second lieutenant. He is from civil life and a graduate from Yale College.
