

CLEVELAND CRIES BUNCO.

TAKES THE REPUBLICAN VICTORS WITH BAD FAITH.

Picture True Democrats as Sitting Between a Scylla of Vicious Turbulence and a Charybdis of Conscienceless Greed—Hopes the National Democracy Will Revitalize the West—Speech to Return Club "All Saints."

Gov. Cleveland, ex-President of the United States, discussed "Present Problems" last night at the tenth annual dinner of the Reform Club, which was held in the ball room of the Waldorf.

Mr. Cleveland read his speech. He has not improved as a reader. With eyes glued to his manuscript most of the time, he delivered himself of what he had to say in a dreary monotone, frequently stumbling slightly at the polysyllables.

Mr. Cleveland was in the house of his friends, however, and the 500 admirers who crowded the banquet hall wildly applauded all his utterances.

The gallery was crowded with ladies, among whom were Mrs. John G. Carlisle and Mrs. Charles S. Fairbank. At 7:30 when the coffee was reached and John De Witt Warner, the President of the club, rapped for order.

He called the dinner an "All Saints' Festival." He arraigned the Republican party for its tariff policy, and declared that it now admits that its sound-money profession of the last year is a bluff.

"We are gathered here to-night as patriotic citizens, anxious to do something toward relieving the prosperity of our country."

"The work of the past year has been a failure. It has not satisfied the designs of ruthless financiers. It has not satisfied the designs of patriotic citizens."

IN HONOR OF DR. DEPEW.

HIS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED AT THE MONTAUK CLUB.

A FEW IN HIS PRISON—RECEIVED A PRESENT OF A Cake Brought Into the Banquet Room by Mrs. Mayhew—In His Speech He Tells an Amusing Story of Emory Storr's.

The Montauk Club of Brooklyn gave a birthday dinner to Chauncey M. Depew at their clubhouse, on Eighth avenue, last night. Mr. Depew has been honored in this way for seven years.

After the dinner one of the members of the club read a poem entitled "Depew Night at the Montauk." There were fourteen verses. One of the verses was as follows:

"America's idol is more ways than one. He prides to-night on his own song; He sings to the gods, and to the world, Of his long life and health."

President Moore introduced Mr. Depew in a short speech. Three cheers were given him by the club.

There have been offered by Presidents Cabinet positions and foreign missions, and my party in the State has tendered me at various times every year, but I have never accepted any of them.

"I do not fear that I shall be accused of sinning, if I insist that the path of duty and the best hope of safety lie in the direction of the rehabilitation and regeneration of the Democratic party, and its return to the principles of its founders."

GOSPEL WORKERS CLASH.

CAPT. COLE'S A. P. A. BEM TOO STRONG FOR LEUT. CONWAY.

A Pretty Row Between God's Volunteers and a Rival Mission—Cole Couldn't Endure Conway, Who Is Irish—Conway Gets Cole's Job and They Call Each Other Names.

William Cole, who was Captain of Post 1, Volunteers of America, at 517 Newark avenue, Jersey City, has abandoned the organization and joined the Gospel Temperance Mission at 805 Newark avenue.

Leut. Conway, who has succeeded Cole as commander of Post 1, attributes his rival's success to the fact that Cole has the support of the Junior Order of American Mechanics.

Ex-Capt. Cole said yesterday: "I have been treated shamefully. The Volunteers dismissed me without cause, and when I was sick in bed, I asked them for an explanation and they merely replied that I was a financial failure."

DAD'S SCREAMERS.

They are giving him a merry time—still he is happy. He has been doing quite some shouting the praises of our tasteful new Spring Suits for $15. To Order to his friends—bringing them in to us—and when those two baby boys grow up they'll also patronize Pa's tailors.

During Grant Week, gentlemen leaving their orders in the morning may have their suits finished same afternoon. All garments made in our building by skilled men tailors, and trimmed in best manner.

No sweat shop work. An inspection of our magnificent window display will verify our assertion that these suits are made from the same cloths for which exclusive tailors charge $40—and more.
