

AIR WAS A SOAKED SPONGE

DRIPPED WARM WATER WHENEVER J. PLUVIUS SQUEEZED IT.

Humid Almost to the Point of Saturation—Temperature Not So High—Promises to Be Lower To-Day, but Prophet Dunn Can Foresee No Immediate Let-Up in the Humidity.

The humidity yesterday reached 92 per cent. Under the circumstances the height of the mercury wasn't so important. You'd perspire with the thermometer at 60 if Gen. Humidity had 92 per cent. of his strength in the field.

It wasn't very hot yesterday, not as hot as it was on Sunday—that is to say, the temperature wasn't so high. The highest temperature recorded up in Farmer Dunn's cage on the roof of the Manhattan building was 78. This was at noon. The highest at the other end of the building, anybody who was out or who looked at the street or at the sides of the big buildings when the shower came shortly after noon can verify that fact.

This shower that let Ellen Murphy to go sit on a cake of ice lasted about fifteen minutes. It wasn't even a shower, it was a deluge. Parts of town where it only drizzled. It was a heavy shower downtown. The heat of the pavement was so hot that the water that fell on it was almost as hot as the pavement.

Key West with '84' was the hottest place in the country yesterday. Marquette was the next. There was a heavy rain in New York, too. It was a fine breeze here in New York, too. It was a fine breeze here in New York, too.

CONY ISLAND FLOODED.

Water Three Feet Deep Around the Ocean House—The Shell Bunk Submerged.

The high tide and heavy sea at Cony Island yesterday afternoon and evening kept the guests of the Oriental and Manhattan Beach hotels indoors. The tide was so high at 5 o'clock that it washed over the bulkheads, and the hotels were obliged to close their doors and windows in order to keep the water out.

FARMERS TO WITHHOLD WHEAT.

State Organization Proposed in Kentucky to Bring About Higher Prices.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 12.—Kentucky wheat growers met here yesterday afternoon to take ground withholding their crop of wheat from the market until the higher prices which they expect to become a certainty.

SOCIALISTS NOT FOR L.O.W.

Will Nominates Next Saturday a City Ticket for Their Own.

Various organizations belonging to the Socialist Labor party held primary elections last night to select delegates to the City Convention, which will be held at the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street, on Saturday evening.

BROTHERS KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

RICHMOND, Va., July 12.—While on their way from church yesterday afternoon Samuel and Oscar Mahoney, brothers, were struck by lightning and instantly killed.

WONDERS OF THE KLONDIKE.

Latest Reports of the Enormous Richness of the New Discoveries.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 12.—Jack Carr, mail carrier between Juneau and Yukon, has arrived in Seattle on the steamer Topka, bringing Klondike news to June 5. He made the trip to the coast in less than thirty days. He reports Circle City and Forty Mile, which had over 5,000 people, to be nearly deserted, two-thirds having gone to the Klondike diggings in one stampede.

He reports that great fortunes are being made, and that gold dust, which is the currency of the country, is as common almost as forty-five foot wide has produced $900,000.

The Berry claim, on Bonanza Creek, has cleaned up $145,000 in a few months. An adjoining claim produced an ounce of gold to the shovel every minute. White wages are $15 a day in the mines and the men can board themselves for $2 a day.

It is estimated that $500 in their wallets consider themselves "busted." Five thousand gallons of whiskey had arrived at the diggings and as much more was en route, so that livelier times are anticipated.

Carr will return on July 25, taking his wife and children with him. He anticipates making a fortune in the Klondike country, and will return within less than thirty days from Juneau with little or no hardship.

HASTINGS AND QUAY OUT.

The Governor intimates That He Will Be a Candidate for the U. S. Senate.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 12.—In a brief and significant interview here to-day Gov. Hastings intimated that Senator Quay's announcement, made here the other day that he would be a candidate for re-election, is accepted as a challenge. The Governor's words are also taken to mean that war is to be declared upon Quay and that the Governor himself may be the Senator's opponent.

The arrival, which may be the prelude of a contest the fiercest in Republican politics, is very simple, as to words. The Governor had been to the Mount Gretna camp, but it is understood that since Quay's declaration of his candidacy for re-election to the Senate, he has been in communication and conference with prominent Republicans, and the few sentences he uttered to-day are the result of those deliberations.

Yes, Senator Quay and Penrose called on the Governor yesterday morning. The purpose of their visit was to induce me to sign the Beckley bill, so-called, relating to Philadelphia, and to make any promises, Senator Quay announced that he would support me for United States Senator.

The Governor is not asked to support him in his candidacy. The subject of my approval or disapproval of the Mercantile tax bill was not mentioned. The Governor is not asked to support him in his candidacy.

Notwithstanding the facts that the secrets of the interview between Hastings and Quay are known, the Governor has declared that the press has prevailed here that it was rather strange to see the Governor in a group away from the city. It is believed that when Quay arrived here he had no intention of declaring his candidacy for re-election.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—The news from Harrisburg this afternoon in which Gov. Hastings throws his hat for the Senate, has caused a great deal of excitement here. The news of his nomination for re-election to the Senate four months in advance of the choice was made known to the public by the arrival of Quay leaders scurrying away to Washington on Tuesday morning.

There were queer cross purposes at work in the minds of the candidates for Quay, Penrose and Harrisburg, first that Quay would resign at the end of his term, which no one believed, and second that he would be re-elected to another term in the Senate before the people had had a chance to elect a Legislature.

There were queer cross purposes at work in the minds of the candidates for Quay, Penrose and Harrisburg, first that Quay would resign at the end of his term, which no one believed, and second that he would be re-elected to another term in the Senate before the people had had a chance to elect a Legislature.

FUSION IN KENTUCKY.

Probable Agreement Between the Republicans and Sound-Money Democrats.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 12.—It is learned here from the Republican Committee on Fusion appointed by the State Central Committee, that the terms of fusion are the national Democracy and the national Democracy for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and the national Democracy for the State Treasurer, and the national Democracy for the State Treasurer, and the national Democracy for the State Treasurer.

ONE LONG, JOLLY CAMPAIGN.

Ohio Silverites to Establish Camp with Oysters and Plenty of Talk.

COLUMBUS, O., July 12.—It became known here to-day that the free-silver forces will colonize their number in different parts of the State, and will set the hills. It is proposed to hold a series of meetings with a view to crystallizing public sentiment in favor of the white metal.

FIREMEN TO WITHHOLD WHEAT.

State Organization Proposed in Kentucky to Bring About Higher Prices.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 12.—Kentucky wheat growers met here yesterday afternoon to take ground withholding their crop of wheat from the market until the higher prices which they expect to become a certainty.

SOCIALISTS NOT FOR L.O.W.

Will Nominates Next Saturday a City Ticket for Their Own.

Various organizations belonging to the Socialist Labor party held primary elections last night to select delegates to the City Convention, which will be held at the Labor Lyceum, 64 East Fourth street, on Saturday evening.

BROTHERS KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

RICHMOND, Va., July 12.—While on their way from church yesterday afternoon Samuel and Oscar Mahoney, brothers, were struck by lightning and instantly killed.

DEADLY BOLT AT THE CAMP.

LIGHTNING KILLS CORPORAL JAMES McDONNELL.

Seated in the Y. M. C. A. Tent Writing to His Mother—He Had Written the Words "You're Still Dead," When the Bolt Struck the Encampment—His Others Are Shocked.

STATE CAMP, PERRYVILLE, N. Y., July 12.—For the first time in the history of the State camp the flag is flying at half mast for the death of a man in the camp, Corporal James J. McDonnell of Company A, Twenty-second Regiment, was killed this afternoon by a stroke of lightning, and this unprecedented mark of mourning is in his honor.

Some years ago one of the men jumped overboard from a boat when the troops were landing at Hoop Hook for the encampment, and his body was found next day. But the death of Corporal McDonnell was the first that had ever occurred in the encampment.

He was sitting in the tent of the Y. M. C. A., and was writing to his mother, shortly after 8 o'clock. There had been a slight shower a few minutes before, the sky had cleared, and although there were clouds about Dunderberg which indicated that another shower might be expected, the sun was then shining brightly over the encampment.

Corporal McDonnell was seated at a table which is stretched across the floor of the tent, writing a letter. Near him were about fifteen other men, some seated at the table writing and others scattered about the forward part of the tent. McDonnell was the second man from the right side of the tent, the sides were up, and the tent was pitched to the right of a tree which was an apple tree about six feet from his chair.

As the sun broke fully over the encampment and the last traces of the previous shower disappeared, a loud clap of thunder was heard. A tree about a hundred yards from the tent was struck. The lightning travelled down the trunk, striking the tent where it settled on the apple tree near which Corporal McDonnell sat. Then it tore up the few feet of ground between the tree and the floor of the tent, struck a board in the floor, tearing and splintering it in a half dozen places, as it travelled across the twenty feet of the tent's floor. There it struck a negro man seated in a chair with such force that he was thrown several feet.

Every man at the table felt the shock to some extent, and it is believed that Corporal McDonnell was instantly killed. He was never conscious after the sound of the thunder was heard. Even the men seated farthest from the table felt stunned and dazed by the shock, and the first of these to recover himself was Secretary Sheffield, who is in charge of the Y. M. C. A. tent. He rushed out on to the parade ground and called for help.

Several physicians were in the tent. The doctor called for help, and was assisted by their comrades, and by the time the ambulance arrived there were only two men left. All of the men were discharged last night.

It was evident that Corporal McDonnell had been struck by lightning, and that his death was immediate, although every possible effort was made to restore him to consciousness. The board on which he was sitting was marked only on the left temple and the left heel. The shoe on his foot was partly torn away, although in other respects it was unharmed. The tent was damaged, Capt. Bell and Major Beach worked for more than an hour over McDonnell before he was pronounced dead. The surgeons were working about the tent for several hours.

The dead man was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit. He was engaged to be married on Saturday, and he had just been to the store to buy a suit.

SUGAR THE CAUSE OF DELAY.

The Struggle in Conference Over the Tariff Bill—Perhaps a Report To-Morrow.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—There was general disappointment in the Capitol to-day at the failure of the tariff bill to pass the House. Although a tentative agreement. The Sunday session of the committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. The committee adjourned with the understanding that a basis of agreement could be reached this morning and the Democratic Senators were notified informally that they probably would be called in for consultation to-night or to-morrow.

NEW SAYINGS OF CHRIST.

TRANSLATION OF THE LOGIA JUST FOUND IN EGYPT.

The Date of the Document is Believed to Be Not Later Than 800 A. D.—Some Sayings That Are Not Found in Any of the Gospels, and They May Give Rise to Controversy.

LONDON, July 12.—Among the discoveries made at Behnesah by Messrs. Grenfell and Hunt of the Egyptian Exploration Fund is a small papyrus, 5 1/2 inches by 2 1/2 inches, containing eight sayings of Christ. The logia consist of detached quotations, each beginning "Jesus saith."

The first saying is: "And then shalt see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye."

The second saying is startling and entirely new. It reads: "Jesus saith except ye fast to the world ye shall in no wise find the kingdom of God; and except ye keep the Sabbath ye shall not see the Father."

This being at variance with the accepted teachings of Christ, it is suggested that it is perhaps a Jewish forgery committed with a view to supporting the Jewish Sabbath. Perhaps it is an erroneous report.

The third saying is similar to that contained in John I, but the form is different. Christ describes Himself as standing in the midst of the world, finding all men drunken and none abstinent. "And my soul giveth over the sons of men because they are blind in their heart."

The fourth saying has perished, only one word remaining. This is the Greek word for beggary. As this was not used by Christ in any gospel, the logia is considered to have been new.

The fifth saying, which contains certain gaps, is of extraordinary interest. It reads: "Christ saith, wherever there are [here occurs a gap] and there is one [gap] alone I am with him. Raise the stone and there shalt find me; cleave the wood and there I am."

The latter part is entirely new, and it is expected that it will arouse controversy. It seems to indicate a pantheistic philosophy, and, perhaps, is a reflection of the mystical occultism of the gnostics in the early Christian centuries.

The sixth saying coincides in part with Luke, iv., 24: "No prophet is accepted in his own country; neither doth a physician work cures upon them that know him."

This is considered to prove that Luke had the same original records as the logia, because the Greek for accepted, here dekteo, was used by Luke only and was hitherto supposed to be one of his mere literary changes on Matthew's collection.

The seventh saying is similar to Matthew v., 14, but is incomplete.

The eighth saying is undecipherable.

It is suggested that the date of the document must be from the year 150 to the year 300 A. D., probably not later than 200 A. D.

The Greek of the logia, which has been seen by the correspondent of THE SUN, is so clear that a dispute as regards words is impossible. A controversy can only arise in regard to the interpretation of the new passages.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S INJURY.

New Details Are Given and the German Public Is Much Alarmed.

BERLIN, July 12.—Yesterday's despatch from Odde, Norway, announcing an accident to the Emperor by the fall of a rope from the rigging, which struck him in the eye, has caused intense excitement here. Despite the fact that reassuring announcements have been given out to the public, the paucity of details of the mishap produces general belief that the Emperor's injury is of a serious nature.

A bulletin received from Odde to-day says that the Emperor's condition is satisfactory, but neither the Ministry of Marine nor the Emperor's private Naval Cabinet has received any news of the accident of the Emperor, and it is said that the Emperor's condition is satisfactory.

An eminent Berlin oculist ventured the opinion to-day that perhaps a permanent visual affection might result from the Emperor's injury.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT IN DENMARK.

One Train Dashes Into Another—Forty Killed and Sixty Injured.

COPENHAGEN, July 12.—A terrible railroad disaster occurred last night at the town of Gentofte, near this city. An accommodation train filled with passengers was standing at a high rate of speed when it dived into and demolished most of the cars. Forty persons were killed and sixty injured more or less seriously.

AUTO-MOTOR WORKS BURNED.

Paris Cabmen Who Object to the New Vehicle Suspected of Incendiarism.

PARIS, July 12.—The works of the Carriage Builders' Society in the Rue Pouchet caught fire to-day, and sixty auto-cars were destroyed. The total damage was $200,000.

The fire is supposed to have been incendiary origin as the outcome of the opposition of the Paris cabmen to the introduction of auto-motors.

ROYAL VISIT TO IRELAND.

The Duke and Duchess of York Will Start on Aug. 15 for a Tour of the Island.

LONDON, July 12.—The Duke and Duchess of York will start on Aug. 15 on a visit to Ireland. They will remain for ten days in Dublin, and will attend the Leopardstown races and the horse show, after which they will make an extended tour in the north and south of the country.

NOTED HORSE THIEF KILLED.

John Addison of Texas and Elsewhere Shot by a Texas Sheriff.

DALLAS, Tex., July 12.—John Addison, one of the most famous horse thieves that has operated in Texas, Oklahoma, and Indian Territory during the last few years, was shot and killed by a Texas sheriff.

SPAIN'S TROUBLES THICKEN.

It Is Admitted at Last That Gona's Forces Are Near Havana.

MADRID, July 12.—A special despatch from Havana to the Herald says that two of the principal battalions of Gona's army are now in the province of Havana, and that arms and ammunition have been landed at various points along the coast.

Upward of 28,000 Spaniards are sick, and there are 7,000 patients in the Havana hospitals alone. There is also a great scarcity of provisions owing to the delay of the authorities in making payments to contractors.

The statement of the Official Gazette in regard to the affairs of the Bank of Spain has caused a great deal of comment. It is shown that the notes in circulation exceed the amount the bank is authorized to issue by 136,000,000 francs.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT DEFEATED.

It Has a Reverse in the Chamber, but Later Obtains a Narrow Majority.

PARIS, July 12.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day the Government attempted to defer discussion of the proposed fiscal reforms, and was defeated by a majority of twenty-five. Subsequently, on another question that came before the Chamber, the Government obtained a narrow majority of thirteen.

After the defeat the Ministers resolved to postpone the summer holidays of the Chamber until certain supplies shall have been voted, motions for which will be brought forward to-day.

The debate was momentous, the Government's reverse implying a change in the policy of Europe in the East.

KILLED HIS MOTHER.

The Crime of Herbert Cornwall, Who Himself Met a Violent Death Last Week.

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—On Wednesday last, as reported in THE SUN, Dr. John Cornwall shot and killed his dissolute brother Herbert as the latter was about to assault his father. Dr. Cornwall said he shot his brother because he was afraid that Herbert would kill his father.

The board has purchased overalls for the workmen, and they will not be allowed to wear their own. The Citizens are criticizing the new order adversely, but this makes no difference with the board.

A $100,000,000 MORTGAGE.

It Is the One Given by the Central to the Central Trust Company.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 12.—A $100,000,000 mortgage was filed in the County Clerk's