

GEN. TRACY ASKED TO LEAD

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS OFFERS HIM THE NOMINATION FOR MAYOR.

Telegram sent to the Ex-Secretary of the Navy at Saratoga—Oleott Withdraws—He Will Probably Be Named for District Attorney—Tracy Helped Make Law Mayor Once.

President Quigg of the New York County Committee presided yesterday afternoon at an important meeting of the caucus members of the Republican County Committee.

At the time the caucus leaders were taking the foregoing action Gen. Tracy was on his way to Saratoga to attend a session of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court.

"Resolved, That the President be requested, in the name of this conference, to ask the Hon. Benjamin F. Tracy to permit his name to be placed before the Republican City Convention for the office of Mayor.

The City Convention, which is to nominate candidates for Mayor, Comptroller and President of the Council, is to meet at Carnegie Hall at noon on Tuesday next.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

It was the opinion that Gen. Tracy would make his position known in a reasonable time, and that he would not be in New York at the time of the convention.

OMAHA MUCH SURPRISED

Proceedings to Enjoin the Live Stock Exchange From Doing Business.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 23.—A big surprise was sprung on the members of the Live Stock Exchange to-day when Attorney-General McKenna proceeded to file in the Federal Court here proceedings to perpetually enjoin the organization from doing business.

The Kansas case is related but remotely to this movement, though Assistant Attorney-General Sawyer, who has charge of the case here, declares that Judge McKenna's decision in Kansas merely indicates what Attorney-General McKenna conceived to be true when he determined to begin the suits.

The effect of the suit, if decided as that at Topeka, will be to perpetually restrain the South Omaha Live Stock Exchange from carrying on its business.

It is alleged that in September last, the Omaha Live Stock Commission Company was organized, but its members had charges preferred against them by the South Omaha Live Stock Exchange, and were excluded from business.

The request for a perpetual injunction is based on the theory that the Live Stock Exchange violates the letter and spirit of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

TAMMANY IS IN TROUBLE.

SHEEHAN EXPERIMENTING WITH BRYANITES AND BROOKLYN.

Thinks He Can Ticket Brooklyn Press Much Off the City Ticket, but the Gold Bugs with the Broodie and the Silver Bugs with the Votes Are the Devil and the Deep Sea.

Tammany Hall is not without its own troubles just now. Its biggest one is, of course, the revolt of the Bryan men.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

CASTAWAYS IN THE PACIFIC.

Thirteen Sailors Reach a Small Island, Where They Live Ten Months Before Rescue Comes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—A romance of the sea comes from Sydney, New South Wales. On Aug. 29 there arrived at Sydney thirteen survivors of the wrecked Norwegian bark Soland, which was lost on Stradbroke Island in August last year.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

AND W. JORDAN A SUICIDE.

SHOT HIMSELF IN THE HEAD AT HIS BOARDING HOUSE.

A Letter to a Friend Explained That He Had Lost Money in Speculation in Wall Street and Was Tired of Life—Twenty Years Ago He Was a Well-known Photographer.

Andrew W. Jordan, who was a well-known photographer twenty years ago, committed suicide yesterday in Miss Kingsland's boarding house, 57 West Thirty-seventh street, by shooting himself in the head.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

SILVER AND THE BANK OF ENGLAND

A Report That the Government Guaranteed to Protect the Bank Against Loss.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun. LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Standard records the "unpleasant rumor" that Mr. Hugh Smith, the Governor of the Bank of England, was induced to write or sign his recent letter to Sir Michael Hicks-Beech, Chancellor of the Exchequer, relative to the holding of one-fifth of the Bank's note reserve in silver, by a promise that the Government would guarantee the Bank against loss on the silver bullion it bought or sold.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

WORTH'S UTTER COLLAPSE.

HIS CANDIDATES BADLY BEATEN IN THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Woodruff-Willis-Atterbury State Goes Through by Majorities Hanging from 10,000 to 25,000—Worth Was Afraid Even to Introduce His Own Resolution—A Committee Appointed to Name Candidates for District Attorney and Coroners, if Necessary.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—The Kings County Republican Convention, which opened yesterday at the Hotel Hamilton, was a scene of confusion and disorder.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

When the vessel went on a reef two boats were lowered, both poorly provided with food and water.

WENT TO SEA ON A BOAT.

Maine Investor and His Son Trade Themelves Into a Northwest Sea.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

WENT TO SEA ON A BOAT.

Maine Investor and His Son Trade Themelves Into a Northwest Sea.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

WENT TO SEA ON A BOAT.

Maine Investor and His Son Trade Themelves Into a Northwest Sea.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

WENT TO SEA ON A BOAT.

Maine Investor and His Son Trade Themelves Into a Northwest Sea.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

WENT TO SEA ON A BOAT.

Maine Investor and His Son Trade Themelves Into a Northwest Sea.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age, and his son was a boy of 15 years.

WENT TO SEA ON A BOAT.

Maine Investor and His Son Trade Themelves Into a Northwest Sea.

The steamer Pentagone, which arrived from Eastport, had aboard Peter Bryckman, a Swedish inventor of Bar Harbor, and his son Joseph, 15 years old.

When the steamer was about eighteen miles off Mount Desert, Second Officer Haughey, who was on the bridge, saw a dark object, which he at first took for a log.

The Pentagone went astern, and it was then seen that the object was a box of explosives about 15 feet long, by 10 feet wide, and that inside the box there was a rifle.

A bowline was thrown to the inventor and he and his son were hauled up on the deck of the steamer.

The inventor was a man of about 40 years of age,