

STORY TOLD BY MRS. PLACE.

A PARTIAL CONFESSION MADE TO THE BROOKLYN POLICE.

Don't Admit Killing Her Stepmother—Says She Hacked Her to Death with a Hammer—Takes to Leek and Mrs. Place—Says That the Crime Was Well Meditated.

Mrs. Martha Place, who on Monday killed her stepmother, Ida, at her home, 598 Hancock street, Brooklyn, and tried to kill her husband, William W. Place, was removed yesterday from St. Mark's Hospital to Raymond Street Jail.

Mrs. Place remains in St. Mark's Hospital in a condition such as to encourage the physicians in attendance to believe that he will recover from the fracture of the skull inflicted by his wife with a blow on an axe.

At 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning Detective Sergeant Becker of the Fifth Avenue police station drove up to the hospital superintendent's office.

Becker was told that the woman was quite able to go to court or anywhere else. All through the night four policemen had taken turns at watching by her cot in the ward.

When Becker was shown to the ward, he walked up to Mrs. Place's cot and said: "I have come to take you to court. Please get ready as soon as possible."

When the woman was removed from her home on Monday night she was bundled into the street without shoes or street clothing. The sisters furnished her with clothing in which to leave the hospital.

When we got the woman to the station house I told her that she was not obliged to make any statement, but that she was free to make the statement she wished to make.

That angered me beyond measure. I stepped across the hall to my room and took my hat and coat and went to my room. I did not know what it was.

That is all I have to say. I am a poor woman, but I am a poor woman, and I am a poor woman.

When I heard Mr. Place come in, about 11 o'clock, I was sitting in my room. He had just hung up his coat and hat on the rack.

When he saw me, he said: "What are you doing here? You are not supposed to be here."

When he saw me, he said: "What are you doing here? You are not supposed to be here."

NITTLE WAS ASSIGNED TO TAKE CHARGE OF HER CASE.

HE WAS COMMITTED TO RAYMOND STREET JAIL.

He was committed to Raymond Street Jail for trial for examination on Feb. 12.

The autopsy upon the body of Ida Place was performed in the presence of Coroner Delap and Dr. Henderson and Dr. Henderson.

The operation of trepanning was performed upon Mr. Place early yesterday afternoon and resulted uneventfully.

On Feb. 7, three packages were sent by mail by Mr. Place to his brother, Peter D. Garretson, who delivered this morning at 11 o'clock before any opening was done.

There was a roar of laughter at this. Gen. James continued: "But we have a Board of Directors in the House of Representatives, who are sound and honest, and a cashier in charge of the Treasury Department who believes that the Government, like individuals, should pay its debts in the best money available."

BANKERS IN HAPPY MOOD.

THEIR SECOND ANNUAL BANQUET A "PROSPERITY FEAST."

The Revival of Business Activity Lightens Their Hearts and the Victory of Sound Finance Projects in All of the Speeches.

The New York City bankers, who are known as the "Money Kings," gave a very grand dinner to the spirit which the New York alumni dinner was held at the dinner.

"I congratulate you," he said, "upon the wave of prosperity that has overtaken us, although it has not overwhelmed us and although there is a manifest trend of the United States Senate who needs watching."

There was a roar of laughter at this. Gen. James continued: "But we have a Board of Directors in the House of Representatives, who are sound and honest, and a cashier in charge of the Treasury Department who believes that the Government, like individuals, should pay its debts in the best money available."

HAMILTON ALUMNI DINE.

THE NEW YORK ALUMNI OF HAMILTON COLLEGE DINED TOGETHER AT THE SAVOY LAST NIGHT.

The New York Alumni of Hamilton College dined together at the Savoy last night. As was announced beforehand, the dinner was to mark a reform in the custom, obtaining among speakers at college dinners, of speaking as long as their lungs hold out.

"These New York dinners," he said, "have done much to bring the alumni of Hamilton together. This year many things have happened that we never thought could possibly happen."

"I have heard much lately," he said, "about the difference between the college and the university. There is a discipline for the young man in the college, and not in the university, and it is a discipline that is sorely needed."

There was a roar of laughter at this. Gen. James continued: "But we have a Board of Directors in the House of Representatives, who are sound and honest, and a cashier in charge of the Treasury Department who believes that the Government, like individuals, should pay its debts in the best money available."

THE POISONERS HERSELF IN THE PRESENCE OF HER ADOPTED SON.

HELD FROM WASHINGTON, WIS., WITH AN ITALIAN EMPLOYED BY HER HUSBAND—HER DOG WENT TO THE HOUSE AND TOOK TO EATING HER OWN MEAT.

A woman who was known as Etta Rigro killed herself with carbolic acid yesterday afternoon in her dining room on the top floor of a tenement at 898 Second avenue.

From letters found in the dead woman's possession it would appear that she was a Mrs. McKay of Washington, Wis. She had been living with her husband, who was a carpenter, at 898 Second avenue.

The woman bought 25 cents worth of carbolic acid yesterday morning at a neighboring drug store. She must have drunk the poison some time during the morning, for when her body was discovered at 4 o'clock in the afternoon she had been dead three or four hours.

The discovery was due to the cries of the boy, Charles, who had seen the woman when she came out of the house at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. He endeavored to arouse her when he became alarmed at her long-continued illness, and failing in the attempt, began to scream.

The following note, which was clutched tightly in her hand, was found on her person: "I am sorry to hear that you are ill. I am sorry to hear that you are ill. I am sorry to hear that you are ill."

The "paddy" referred to in the note was the black and tan terrier, which was found by the coroner's men when they examined the body.

The coroner's men examined the body and found that she had died from the effects of the carbolic acid. The coroner's men also examined the dog, and found that it had eaten some of the woman's meat.

JUDGE WOODWARD THREATENED.

HE GIVES NOTICE AT THE LITTIMER TRIAL THAT HE WILL NOT SPEAK AGAIN.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 8.—The incident of Judge Woodward's refusal to testify at the trial of Sheriff Martin and his deputies was the announcement made by Judge Woodward that he had received a communication threatening him bodily harm because of the repeated failure of the prosecution to fix the identity of the deputies in the firing squad at Lattimer.

After the buz which the Judge's declaration had either caused or been caused by, the stand, and the trial differently. Continuing the Judge said: "I wish to say that I regard the writer of this letter as a scoundrel and a coward. A scoundrel for trying to influence my judgment in a cause at trial and a coward for sending an anonymous communication. It will not influence my judgment. I will not speak again."

The testimony of Andrew T. Adams, a commercial traveler from Glens Falls, the last interestingly told when in the Madison Avenue courtroom on the 7th inst. He said that he had seen the Sheriff shoot off his revolver, but he had not seen him hit anybody with it. He could not say whether the Sheriff had hit any of the ranks of the deputies or not when the firing squad was started to run, and had seen nothing more.
