

ALDRIDGE'S POST UNFILED.

COL. ROOSEVELT SAYS IT MAY NOT BE FOR A WEEK OR MORE.

Low, Woodruff and Atterbury suggest Col. Partridge—Governor-Elect is Looking for an Engineer—To Start for Albany To-Day—A Shake-Hands at Flat's Hotel.

Governor-elect Roosevelt was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening from 5 until 7, when he went to his sister's home in Madison avenue. He will start for Albany this afternoon.

During the day Roosevelt and other friends of Col. Partridge suggested that possibly Col. John N. Partridge of Brooklyn might make a good Superintendent of Public Works at Albany. Col. Partridge's name was not new to Mr. Roosevelt, for the reason that it was suggested to him at a private dinner a little over a week ago.

While Governor-elect Roosevelt and Senator Platt and Chairman Odell were talking upstairs in the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening, in walked Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff and Walter B. Atterbury, the Republican organization Chairman of Brooklyn.

Four Clubmen Accuse One. Plea of the Man Tamed with Repeating to Down Fred Gibbs.

The man accused of voting more than once at the Republican Club election on Dec. 20, Col. Partridge was the managing clerk of the old warehouse firm of Woodruff & Robinson, later on Woodruff & McLean.

Ill-Ty, modestly replied Roosevelt. The sentiment of the Legislature was taken up by the others in the throng, and they echoed the statement:

Governor, you are going to make a good Governor of the State of New York. "I'll try," modestly replied Roosevelt.

Ill-Ty, modestly replied Roosevelt. The sentiment of the Legislature was taken up by the others in the throng, and they echoed the statement:

Governor, you are going to make a good Governor of the State. All your friends are banking on you; you haven't any political enemies worth talking about, and all want you to make a great success because you are a good man and a sound American."

Governor-elect Roosevelt grasped their hands—as many as he could reach—and thanked them all.

TOOK $61,000 AND RAN OFF.

An Express Driver Robs the Wells-Fargo Company at San Antonio.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 29.—Sixty-one thousand dollars in currency was stolen from the Wells-Fargo Express Company yesterday afternoon by Charles A. Beeler, a trusted driver, who received the money to deliver to Southern Pacific paymaster. The money was locked in a small iron safe and the key to the safe was placed in the possession of Beeler for his use in opening the safe and delivering the money to the paymaster.

The horse and wagon were found on the road late yesterday afternoon, giving the robber a good start before his crime was discovered. The Southern Pacific Railroad forwards the money for the payment of employees west of San Antonio to this city each month, and for three years Beeler has been carrying these large sums from the express office to the payor at the station.

At any rate at the place on the road where Beeler took the $61,000 out of the safe there was a good start before his crime was discovered. The Southern Pacific Railroad forwards the money for the payment of employees west of San Antonio to this city each month, and for three years Beeler has been carrying these large sums from the express office to the payor at the station.

Beeler has been an employee of the Wells-Fargo Express Company for nine years. He is 27 years old and has made the usual distance of the city. Five miles from town again on the old wagon road to Mexico Beeler unlocked the safe, took out the money, amounting to $61,000, and left the horse and wagon to take care of themselves.

Beeler is believed to have fled to the west. The Southern Pacific Railroad forwards the money for the payment of employees west of San Antonio to this city each month, and for three years Beeler has been carrying these large sums from the express office to the payor at the station.

PAPAL LETTER TO GIBBONS.

His Holiness's Views on Americanism to Be First Published in This Country.

Rome, Dec. 29.—It is asserted that the Pope's letter to Cardinal Gibbons, expressing the views of his Holiness on the "theories of Americanism," has already been despatched to the States and will be published in the United States prior to its publication in Rome.

The letter has caused much speculation. Various versions are given of its contents, none of which is authorized. According to one report his Holiness expresses in it his full approval of the political theories propounded by Archbishop Ireland and Cardinal Gibbons, which under the name of Americanism, have been attacked by many European Catholic organs.

Another report has it that the Pope admits that the interests of the Church in the United States are being served by the teaching, but he regrets the extent to which the new methods have been indulged in in some instances.

Bill another version says that the Pope deals particularly with the doctrines enunciated in Father Hecker's biography, and guardedly approves them, but does not go over the bounds of Roman dogma and discipline.

TO PRESERVE ORDER IN HAVANA. Gen. Ludlow's Edict as to Sale of Liquor, Parades and Carrying of Arms.

Havana, Dec. 29.—The following edict has been issued by the commanding officer of the United States troops in Havana:

Gen. Ludlow has instructed me to direct that at 11 o'clock at night all places where spirituous or other intoxicating liquors are sold shall be closed. Order must be preserved in the streets and there shall be no parades of citizens on the streets and no noisy parades by day or night. No pistols or other firearms, knives or other deadly weapons shall be carried by any one except troops on duty.

From the geographical position of the reported attack it seems likely that the British party is a part of the forces under Col. MacDonald or Major Martyr, which have had orders to proceed from Uganda to effect a junction on the Upper Nile with the Egyptian expedition led by the Sudanese.
