

PUBLIC BUILDING BILLS.

A BUNCH OF SEVENTY-EIGHT REPORTED TO THE HOUSE.

They involve a total of $10,923,000—half of them acted on favorably, including that for the New York Custom House—Representatives of Both Parties Present.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The House entered today upon the consideration of seventy-eight bills authorizing the construction of public buildings, increasing the limit of cost of those now under construction or providing for additions to buildings already in existence.

The full list of places at which buildings were authorized to-day, with the limit of cost, is as follows: Newport News, Va., $75,000; Blair, Neb., $45,000; Atsada, Pa., $125,000; Elizabeth City, N. Mr. Mercer (Rep., Neb.), who was in charge of the bills, unsuccessfully endeavored to secure an order from the House limiting general debate on each bill to ten minutes.

Mr. Mercer, at the conclusion of the reading, moved the adoption of the committee amendments, but the bill (Dem., Tex.) and Mr. Dockery (Dem., Mo.) were reported, testing that general debate had not been closed, and after the roll in the face, expressed the hope that the rules of the House would be observed, at least by the Chairman, Mr. Sherman (Rep., N. Y.).

Mr. Bailey inquired upon what principle or principle or principle a committee had acted in making its recommendations.

Mr. Mercer replied that thirty-eight States were represented in the list. Mr. Rankland (Dem., Va.) asked Mr. Mercer if the question of the committee was to report the bill as amended, and if not, whether it belonged to a party whose cardinal principle is economy in public expenditures.

Mr. Dockery took the floor to impress upon the House the fact that fair consideration should be given to the bills. He said that the total charge of $11,000,000 for the buildings is a heavy burden upon the people.

Mr. Dockery said that he had introduced a bill for a public building in New York City, and that he had introduced a bill for a public building in New York City, and that he had introduced a bill for a public building in New York City.

WEEKLY VOTE FOR THE TREATY.

Senator Aldrich Secured His Resolution Not Likely to Be Passed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island, the tactical manager of the Republican side of the Senate, who is entitled to special credit for the victory of the advocates of the peace treaty, left Washington this afternoon for his home in Providence.

He will sail for Europe on Saturday. He performed hard work in basing in the ranks of the advocates of ratification and in directly responsible for the promise given by Senator McHenry a few moments before the roll call to vote for the treaty.

When the doors were closed on the executive session the defeat of ratification was admitted by the leaders on both sides. Senator Gray then made a last appeal to Mr. McHenry as a Democrat, a personal friend and a member of the Peace Commission to stand by the Government. But the Louisiana Senator shook his head and said that he would not vote for the treaty. Then Mr. Aldrich, who had worked hard for the treaty, said: "No! If the treaty is to be passed, it must be passed by a majority of the Senate. No! If the treaty is to be passed, it must be passed by a majority of the Senate."

THE ASTOR LIEBEL SUIT WITHDRAWN.

Attorneys for the London Fall Apologist For His Badly Told Story.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The action brought by William Waldorf Astor against the Daily Mail for libel in having published a story of a dinner given at the Hotel Cecil in London, in which the defendant's counsel made on behalf of his client, in open court, an unqualified retraction and expression of regret, and the case was dropped.

Mr. Astor testified that the story which the Daily Mail had published had caused him great annoyance. He said that he had written to the editor of the Daily Mail, asking him to retract the story, and that he had done so.

Lord Chief Justice Russell here interpolated the remark: "The whole thing seems to be an effort of imagination."

Mr. Astor, continuing his testimony, said he did not seek to obtain any money from the Daily Mail, but he did want a retraction.

It is proper to add, the Lord Chief Justice observed, that there is growing in the English press a certain amount of fear of the press, which Mr. Astor is better acquainted with than most of us are.

Addressing the counsel for the Daily Mail, Lord Russell added: "I think that your clients, inasmuch as this paragraph, whether libelous or not, has caused annoyance, should express regret."

The counsel replied: "I do not want your clients to say that. My clients have no wish to give annoyance. These small personal matters some people do not mind and some people do."

PRICE'S CHOP SUEY PLOT. SIMON BUTNER SAYS IT WAS JUST A COMPLAINT TO ROOSEVELT.

Had Voted for Roosevelt and Tammany Put on Him—Held for Magowan Robbery.

Simon Butner, who until yesterday was the proprietor of the Chop Suey restaurant at 1281 Broadway, better known under its former name of the Broadway Garden, was held for trial by Magistrate Mott in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday in $2,000 bail on the charge of robbing ex-Mayor Frank A. Magowan of Trenton, N. J., of $2,000 with the aid of drugs or narcotics.

Butner sold his restaurant on Monday to John J. Hatfield, closing it immediately after the signing of the bill of sale. Leo Friedman was accepted as his bondsmen.

After the hearing of the case Butner called the reporters aside and told them that the sale of his business had put him in a position to make a full and open statement in regard to the documents found in his possession at the time of his arrest.

Butner yesterday produced two copies of letters addressed to Gov. Roosevelt and signed by himself. Similar copies, he said, had been found in his pocket by Capt. Price together with the Governor's answers, and it was these that had aroused the Captain's ire.

The first letter was written by Butner to Roosevelt on the day after the last Republican State Convention. It congratulated Col. Roosevelt on his nomination for Governor, and announced Butner's intention of supporting him and proceeded: "I have in my employ thirty-four men, most of whom have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket, but whom on the night of the convention I read in the papers that you had received the nomination and acquainted them with the fact, they gave a cheer, and without exception took with one accord explained: 'It is our next Governor, and we'll vote for him.'"

The second letter was dated after the election. It said that the police soon heard of the election, and that they had taken the night of the convention I read in the papers that you had received the nomination and acquainted them with the fact, they gave a cheer, and without exception took with one accord explained: "It is our next Governor, and we'll vote for him."
