

EGGING ON THE STRIKERS.

ATTITUDE OF PART OF THE PUBLIC CAUSE OF CLEVELAND RIOTS. Firmness and Police Officers Sympathetic with the strikers...

CLEVELAND, July 27.—Nothing could be more thorough than the work of the military in preventing rioting. They are going about their work with an earnestness that leaves no room for doubt in the minds of the classes from which the rioters are drawn that they mean business.

The strikers had a big mass meeting announced to be held in the public square to-night, but Mayor Farley refused to permit it, and although thousands came downtown to attend it was compelled to move on as fast as its feet.

An appeal meeting of the City Council was held to-night to devise methods for securing the settlement of the street railway strike. The previous strike was settled by a committee of the Council...

Several Councilmen objected to the passing of the resolution on the ground that it did not give the committee any authority to negotiate for a settlement. Mayor Farley objected to the resolution on the ground that it would interfere with the executive branch of the city administration.

It is impossible to truthfully reflect the conditions incident to the strike here and not recognize the fact that a certain kind of public sympathy has been shown to the strikers...

The sympathy for the cause of the strikers against the fire department, and to-day a fire captain was on trial for making an incendiary speech against the operations of the police.

The sympathy has even invaded the Police Department, and the patrolmen have not failed to do their duty, not as a result of orders, but in some cases made in violation of the dictates of their own desires.

This sympathy is being recognized by the politicians, and already the Third and Seventh District Republican Clubs have adopted resolutions which have been adopted by the representatives of the organization of four wards.

Whereas, We the members of the Seventh District Republican Club, deeply deplore the present condition of affairs in this city...

NEWSBOYS GET NEW LEADERS.

TEAR UP BOYCOTTED PAPERS BY THE THOUSAND.—Mob Kid Blink—He Is Arrested. The striking newsboys raised Cain yesterday in Frankfort street...

A mob of newsboys numbering about 500 collected in Frankfort street, and the boys who were seen coming around from William street into Frankfort street...

Mr. Shepard received the committee in his office yesterday and discussed the subject with them fully and freely. The committee argued that 17 cents an hour was not enough pay for the work, which is very laborious.

There is scarcely any danger of a strike now, and the newsboys will get their 17 cents an hour. It was said that a committee of the newsboys had been organized...

Boys on the East River and Station Island ferriesbought up with "demands." The strike fever has caught the bootblacks. Next Sunday the shino boys on the East River and Station Island ferries will throw up their brushes and quit work unless their demand for $1 a week is granted.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.—Actuated by the experience of the strike in New York, the men employed by the Western Union Company at its various offices in this city struck at 8 o'clock this morning.

Special Force of Inspectors Looking Out for Stuff Spoiled in the Strike. Eight Sanitary Inspectors in charge of a special force of 100 men are looking out for stuff spoiled in the strike.

MANNA OIL HANDLERS' STRIKE SETTLED. ASTORIA, O., July 27.—The oil handlers' strike in the M. A. Hand oil dock is settled, and the men returned to work at noon today.

ROSSITER CASE DISMISSED. AL Johnson Satisfied That He Sued Under a Misapprehension. The arrest of President Clinton L. Rossiter of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company for criminal libel of Albert J. Johnson...

Three Held for Attacking a Motorman. George Vanderhook, Hugh Brown, Thomas H. Brown, and Michael J. Brown, who were held in $2,000 bail by Magistrate Mott on a charge of assault on July 21 on Motorman Jay E. Rice of a Madison avenue car...

SCARED BY CLAIRVOYANT.

Left Clothing, Letters and a Sentimental Notebook on Shore of Newark Bay. Some boys early yesterday morning found a man's coat, waistcoat and hat, a notebook, a package of papers and a bundle of letters lying on the beach of Newark Bay at the foot of West Twenty-second street, Bayonne.

Until five days ago we were assured of better times. But very many gave up going and tickets were returned just as an account of this story that was circulated. The boys who were seen coming around from William street into Frankfort street...

MASSACHUSETTS TAKES A CANALBOAT HERE. Off the foot of East Fifty-fourth street yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Massachusetts Canalboat Company's boat, the "M. A. Hand," was seen in the harbor.

THE KENTUCKY FEUD AT AN END. Inspector Lester Reports to Gov. Bradley That Peace Is Again Restored. FRANKFORT, Ky., July 27.—State Inspector and Examiner C. W. Lester, Gov. Bradley's special agent, who was sent to Clay county to investigate the Clay county feud and make a complete report, returned today and filed his report with the Governor.

STOLEN SAILBOAT FOUND. Westin Sailed the Tak-It-Easy from Salem, Mass., to This City. About two weeks ago James F. Appleton, manager of the Underwriters' Salvage Company of North William street, went to his summer home at Salem, Mass., to spend the summer months.

HIRAX. A distinguished member of the Hiram Club, who has been in the city for some time, has been discovered. He is a member of the Hiram Club, and has been in the city for some time.

OBITUARY. The Rev. Abel G. Hopkins, Ph. D., D. D., who had occupied the chair of Latin, English and literature at Hamilton College since 1860, died at his home in Clinton, N. Y., yesterday afternoon.

IN MEMORY OF MR. AND MRS. POLOK. Their Nieces Offer 100,000 Francs for the Best Device for Saving Lives at Sea. WESTMINSTER, July 27.—Ferdinand Polok, Commissioner General of the United States to the Paris Exposition of 1889, has informed the State Department that three nieces of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Polok of Washington have offered a prize of 100,000 francs for the best device for saving lives at sea.

INHABITANTS OF THE ISLAND OF KUSARE WANT UNITED STATES PROTECTION. SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The inhabitants of Kusare, one of the Caroline Islands, recently to Germany by Spain, have sent a petition to the American Congress, through J. F. Cunningham, the city agent, asking the United States to buy the island. The petition says: "We have been in intercourse with the American people for many years, and we, the American missionaries, traders and whalers, and many of our people have been to the island and have been treated with kindness and respect by the natives."

FREE TRANSPORTATION FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS. PITTSBURGH, July 27.—The committee that has charge of the arrangements for the reception of the Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment, due here from Manila next month, succeeded today in securing subscriptions for the purpose of the free transportation of the soldiers.

WHAT DID SHE DO WITH IT?

VALENTINE APPARENTLY A WINNER IN BALL STREET. Two Firms of Brokers with Which the Perth Amboy Defuncts' Money by Speculation—Strange Disappearance of the $225,000 He Stole from the Bank. Whenever George M. Valentine was asked, after he became a prisoner in the Middlesex County Jail at New Brunswick, N. J., what he had done with all the money he stole from the Perth Amboy Bank, he would say that he had lost it in Wall street.

According to the latest figures, Valentine stole something like $225,000 of the bank's funds, if anything, when looking for the account sustained by a certain Wall street speculation, it is possible for those entitled to know to find out the details. Although those engaged in straightening out the affairs of the bank have tried, they have never been able to trace the course of Valentine's speculation.

STOLEN SAILBOAT FOUND. Westin Sailed the Tak-It-Easy from Salem, Mass., to This City. About two weeks ago James F. Appleton, manager of the Underwriters' Salvage Company of North William street, went to his summer home at Salem, Mass., to spend the summer months.

HIRAX. A distinguished member of the Hiram Club, who has been in the city for some time, has been discovered. He is a member of the Hiram Club, and has been in the city for some time.

OBITUARY. The Rev. Abel G. Hopkins, Ph. D., D. D., who had occupied the chair of Latin, English and literature at Hamilton College since 1860, died at his home in Clinton, N. Y., yesterday afternoon.

IN MEMORY OF MR. AND MRS. POLOK. Their Nieces Offer 100,000 Francs for the Best Device for Saving Lives at Sea. WESTMINSTER, July 27.—Ferdinand Polok, Commissioner General of the United States to the Paris Exposition of 1889, has informed the State Department that three nieces of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Polok of Washington have offered a prize of 100,000 francs for the best device for saving lives at sea.

INHABITANTS OF THE ISLAND OF KUSARE WANT UNITED STATES PROTECTION. SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The inhabitants of Kusare, one of the Caroline Islands, recently to Germany by Spain, have sent a petition to the American Congress, through J. F. Cunningham, the city agent, asking the United States to buy the island. The petition says: "We have been in intercourse with the American people for many years, and we, the American missionaries, traders and whalers, and many of our people have been to the island and have been treated with kindness and respect by the natives."

FREE TRANSPORTATION FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS. PITTSBURGH, July 27.—The committee that has charge of the arrangements for the reception of the Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment, due here from Manila next month, succeeded today in securing subscriptions for the purpose of the free transportation of the soldiers.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS.

Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS.

Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS.

Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.

BEATEN BETWEEN THE ACTS. Little Cigars are clean—all through. They are made of clean material and in a clean manner. There is no feature of the process of making them that would not please the most fastidious smoker.