

COAL MINERS VOTE STRIKE.

BIG LABOR STRUGGLE ALREADY UNDERWAY IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Strike to begin on Jan. 1, but some of the men have quit already—Others awaiting the decision of the National Officers—The Bituminous Field Affected.

ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 30.—The bituminous coal miners about the Pennsylvania Railroad, between this city and Johnstown, took the initiative in the great strike movement at a convention held at Portage last night. Delegates representing about 8,000 miners, after receiving an unfavorable reply to their demand for an increase of wages, voted a strike to go into effect on Jan. 1.

This practically means that 10,000 miners will be out on Jan. 2. The operators have steadfastly refused to grant the wage increase asked, asserting that it would be ruinous. The entire region, employing about 50,000 men is closed, unless the operators consent to a general strike, unless the operators consent to a general strike, unless the operators consent to a general strike.

ORIENTED ACQUITTED SOLDIER.

State of Nebraska Will Not Accept a Federal Court Martial Action in a Shooting.

Fort Union, Neb., Dec. 30.—A conflict between State and national authorities in military matters was begun here today in the arrest by the State of Corporal Fair and Private Jackson on the charge of murder. They are charged with killing Private Morgan, near here, a few weeks ago.

RICHARD LAW CRUMP MISSING.

Well-Known Lawyer of New London Not Heard Since Oct. 11 Last.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Dec. 30.—One of this city's well-known young lawyers, Richard Law Crump, has disappeared and his relatives here have had no tidings of him since Oct. 11 last. He is about 33 years old and a son of the late Judge W. C. Crump and brother of the late Judge John G. Crump, editor of the Inquirer. His mother and three sisters reside here. The lawyer was on his way here from Albany to remain over Sunday when he disappeared.

DEATH OF AN OLD MUSICALIAN.

He Disappeared After His Wife's Death and the Cause of His Death is Now Known.

HARRY BROWER, a musician of 47 years old, died early yesterday morning in his home at 121 West 121st street, Williamsburg, under circumstances which caused Coroner Delap to order an investigation. Brower was born in Scotland and came to this country when he was 17 years of age. He had been married 17 years and had one child, a son, who is now 12 years of age. He had been a member of the 10th Regiment, New York Infantry, and had served in the war of 1861-62.

MR. BOOTH'S HOME FOR CONVICTS.

A Statement Regarding It Issued by Her Secretary—Mrs. Booth III.

Mrs. Booth III is at her home at Montclair, N. J. Her secretary, Miss Hutchins, issued this statement yesterday relating to the disposition of the home of Mrs. Booth's establishment among them of Mrs. Booth's property home for released convicts.

STUCK DOWN BY A ROBBER.

Bridge Contractor Hit With an Axe in His Office in Sioux City.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Dec. 30.—John E. Robson, contractor for the superstructure of the combination bridge over the Missouri River, erected by Sney Smith & Co., New York, in 1885, is hovering between life and death as a result of an assault by a night laborer who surprised last night in the dark. He was struck down with a hatchet and his skull being penetrated three times. His skull being penetrated three times. His skull being penetrated three times.

PRICE TO BE PAID FOR DIAMONDS.

The Tenderloin Police Captain Wins a New Jeweled Badge.

In a few days Police Capt. James K. Price's gold badge will be replaced by one studded with diamonds. Tiffany & Co. are putting the finishing touches on the diamond-studded badge and when it is finished it will be presented to the commander of the Tenderloin by the Rev. Michael O'Farrell, pastor of the Holy Innocents in West Thirtieth street.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Dec. 30.—Miss Edmie Corlies, daughter of Mrs. J. Edgar Corlies, married today at 11 o'clock.

IN MEMORY OF FATHER MALONE.

Flowers Sent to the Parish House—Many Friends Call—Priest's Name Dismissed.

Many people went to the parish house of the Church of St. Peter and Paul, Williamsburg, to look at the body of Father Malone, who was a warm friend of the dead priest, and a laurel wreath sent by Chauncey O'Leary, the actor, were placed on the casket. A mass funeral was celebrated in the parish house of the Church of St. Peter and Paul, Williamsburg, on Friday night.

COMPANIES FROM FOUR STATES AGREE TO FORM A LONG-DISTANCE SERVICE.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 30.—A committee representing the independent telephone companies of Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Pennsylvania has been at work in this city for a few days perfecting plans for a long-distance service and a working combination between the independent companies in these States. The plan was completed this noon and the committee adjourned. Each company will maintain its individuality. A clearing house will be established, similar to that of the banks, through which the various companies will do their business and balancing of accounts with one another.

CONNECTICUT'S STATE COMMISSIONER INVESTIGATING REPORTS THAT HAVE COME TO HIM.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 30.—Persistent rumors have been current here to the effect that several insurance companies in Connecticut have been investigating the insurance tax which is being levied against speculating in stocks. When soon-to-be State Commissioner of Insurance E. I. Scheffold, who has been carrying on an investigation when it is not yet complete, gave out the following statement:

GIANT RIDING ACADEMY.

New York to Have the Largest Structure of Its Kind in the World.

New York is to have the largest riding academy in the world next year. Ground has already been cleared for it on the north side of Sixty-sixth street, a hundred feet wide and 1,000 feet long. The building will be a half million dollars has been subscribed by New York men interested in indoor horseback riding, and the company which will own and control the building will be incorporated in a few days. William Durand will be the manager and will give up his present academy in the Grand Circle at Central Park. The new institution will be known as the Durand Riding Academy. Mr. Durand gave the following description of the new riding school yesterday:

THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

A Movement on Foot in Syracuse to Outdo the Present Management.

SYRACUSE, Dec. 30.—A movement headed by Theodore C. O'Brien, former Secretary of the New York State Bar Association, and J. H. Durand, President of the State Association of County Judges, is under way to outdo the present management and Board of Directors. One of the board and President of the bar is Leonard T. Woodruff. The following circular letter has been sent out by the Durand party:

PHILADELPHIA CONFERENCE.

English Agents Watching the Men Who Are Expected to Attend It.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—Men who are at the head of the various societies of Irishmen in this city profess to know nothing of the Irish conference which is to be held here tomorrow by the British Consul, Sir George Balfour, and the British Consul, Sir George Balfour, and the British Consul, Sir George Balfour.

THREE FURNACES IN BOSTON.

Firms Carried Down by the Globe Bank Failure and Tightness of Money.

Boston, Dec. 30.—Three assignments were made today as a result of the suspension of the Globe National Bank and the tightening of the money market. The concerns involved in the assignments were the Globe National Bank, the Globe National Bank, and the Globe National Bank.

"VICTORY TO THE BOERS" IN TORONTO.

Sent to Canada by a New Jersey Firm and Sold at Toronto.

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 30.—A few days ago a large number of buttons, on which were inscribed the words "Victory to the Boers," both in French and in English, were seized by the customs officials in Toronto and forwarded to the British Consul in Toronto. The Department has the buttons and is now in possession of them.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

IN DEFENCE OF CANADA.

FORCE OF 60,000 MEN COULD BE ASSEMBLED IN A SHORT TIME.

The Artillery Branch of the Militia Inspector-General's Office has just received from Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 30.—The recent talk of a Fenian invasion of Canada from the United States suggests an inquiry as to what extent the military resources of the Dominion are capable of affording successful resistance to a formidable attack from an enemy beyond its borders.

INSURANCE COMPANIES IN STOCKS.

CONNECTICUT'S STATE COMMISSIONER INVESTIGATING REPORTS THAT HAVE COME TO HIM. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 30.—Persistent rumors have been current here to the effect that several insurance companies in Connecticut have been investigating the insurance tax which is being levied against speculating in stocks.

PHILADELPHIA CONFERENCE.

English Agents Watching the Men Who Are Expected to Attend It.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—Men who are at the head of the various societies of Irishmen in this city profess to know nothing of the Irish conference which is to be held here tomorrow by the British Consul, Sir George Balfour, and the British Consul, Sir George Balfour.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

WINDY SMASHER CAUGHT.

Broke Plate Glass in a Jewelry Store for No Apparent Cause.

A fairly well-dressed man smashed one of the plate glass windows of Mrs. Leven's jewelry store at Broadway and Fourteenth street last night with a brick. The man was arrested and is now in the police station.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

And Mrs. Hauser Saw P. C. A. Hauser's Tricked to Punish the Torturers.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards. This was the only place where the owner of the cat, Mrs. Myles Randall, animal society, found the cat.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

MAIMED CAT, KILLED KITTENS.

A woman went to Capt. Haslach of the East Twenty-second street police station yesterday afternoon and told him that an Italian boy, who lived in the house at 435 First avenue, had caught and mangled a cat in front of that house. After cutting off the cat's hind legs, and with the assistance of two companions chopping the kitten into small pieces, the boy had released it. The cat then went down the street to a livery stable at 316 East Twenty-sixth street and crawled under a pile of boards.

FOR BUSINESS MEN!

THE COMMERCIAL'S SPECIAL BUSINESS NEWS.

All the Important News of the Day, and the Commercial's Special Business News Condensed and Classified For the Convenience of Business Men.

UNDER THE FOLLOWING HEADS:

GENERAL NEWS RÉSUMÉ.

FOREIGN NEWS. DOMESTIC LOCAL.

WASHINGTON.

THE COMMERCIAL'S SPECIAL BUSINESS NEWS.

FINANCIAL. COMMERCIAL INDUSTRIAL.

THE MARKET. FOREIGN TRADE. TRANSPORTATION.

THE COMMERCIAL'S BUSINESS RECORD.

BUSINESS FAILURES. BUSINESS FIRES. OBITUARY.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISES. BUSINESS CHANGES. JUDGMENTS, ETC.

"EVERY BUSINESS MORNING" IN THE

NEW YORK COMMERCIAL

396 BROADWAY cor. Walker Street.

All News Stands. 3 Cents.

NEW HAVEN BOILER'S COIL SUPPLY.

Intervention of J. Pierpont Morgan Said to Have Prevented a Serious Shortage.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 30.—The New Haven Boiler Works has been in serious need of coal. It is said that the intervention of J. Pierpont Morgan saved the coal from serious difficulty. The company is one of a number of consumers of great quantities of soft coal in the East which have contracts for the coal supply that have not yet run out. In the West there are also consumers of coal, and the situation is a serious one.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

STREET ACCIDENTS IN BROOKLYN.

Two Persons Run Down by a Wagon and One by a Trolley Car.

JAMES BULIN, 39 years old, and Miss Queen Fairbank, 17 years old, of 225 South First street, at its junction with Court street, yesterday afternoon were knocked down by a wagon, owned by E. Kane, a liquor dealer of Hamilton avenue and Union street. Mrs. Fairbank's collar bone was broken and Mr. Bulin suffered a slight scalp wound. The fire was attended by an ambulance and a fire engine. The driver of the wagon was arrested.

FOR BUSINESS MEN!

THE COMMERCIAL'S SPECIAL BUSINESS NEWS.

All the Important News of the Day, and the Commercial's Special Business News Condensed and Classified For the Convenience of Business Men.

UNDER THE FOLLOWING HEADS:

GENERAL NEWS RÉSUMÉ.

FOREIGN NEWS. DOMESTIC LOCAL.

WASHINGTON.

THE COMMERCIAL'S SPECIAL BUSINESS NEWS.

FINANCIAL. COMMERCIAL INDUSTRIAL.

THE MARKET. FOREIGN TRADE. TRANSPORTATION.

THE COMMERCIAL'S BUSINESS RECORD.

BUSINESS FAILURES. BUSINESS FIRES. OBITUARY.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISES