GARDNER HEARING DRAGS.

Complainants Present Cases of Alleged Delays and Incompetency.

Not much progress was made yesterday in the hearing of the charges against Col. Gardner. The principal witnesses were complainants who had their cases brought to the court, but their cases belonged to the civil, not the criminal courts, and in any instance it appears that they had been told in their previous District Attorney's case, as well as under the present one.

The case of George W. Dorney was of another kind. Dorney was indicted in September, 1898, for manslaughter on a charge of causing the death of Joseph T. Foy. A month later Justice Fursman dismissed this indictment. Mr. Dorney said that he brought this case up for the purpose of showing that Assistant District Attorney McIntyre's son, Granville, was counsel for the defendant.

"But," said Mr. Undermyer, "this is one of the cases in Schedule I of your charges which are referred to as delayed cases. There is nothing here to show that this case was delayed. When the case was brought into court Justice Fursman dismissed it, saying that the man should never have been indicted." "It is our intention to show incompetency on the part of McIntyre," said Mr. Undermyer. "The District Attorney hadn't competent assistants."

PASTOR TROMPEN DEPOSED.

Classis Gives Judgment Against the Ramseyer's Minister.

PATERSON, N. J., Feb. 28.—The Rev. J. N. Trompen, pastor of the Christian Reformed Church at Ramseyer, was generally known as the Classis of Hackensack at a secret meeting held here this afternoon. The Rev. John H. Voorhis of Hackensack presided, and there was only one vote in Mr. Trompen's favor. The charge upon which he was deposed was contumacy in refusing to appear before the Classis for trial on five accusations brought against him. His adherents contended that this is not a proper cause for deposition under the rules contained in the manual of the Classis, and that Mr. Trompen was perfectly willing to be tried by an impartial body, and has already appealed to the General Synod of the church, which will meet at Grand Rapids, Mich., in June. His opponents say that the Synod can do nothing beyond referring the matter back to the Classis or endorsing its action.

"I can tell you have a dozen excellent cabinet makers in the neighborhood, holding out a torn sample book. 'Want you take a look at these?'" "No, but I'll show what it is you carry inside your eye," the sergeant said and grabbing the stranger he tore the fellow's coat open and pulled out a pair of eyes.
