BOUWELL SELF-CONDENMED.

Congressman Moody Convinces the Anti-Imperialists in Massachusetts. BOSTON, Aug. 30.—Congressman W. B. Moody of Massachusetts made a ringing speech in reply to the attitude of former Gov. Boutwell and his anti-imperialist friends, at the midsummer dinner of the Essex Club, at Salem Willows, this afternoon...

Mr. Moody quoted from a speech by Mr. Boutwell, delivered at Cooper Institute, New York, on May 27 last. He said that in his speech Gov. Boutwell made it perfectly clear that in his opinion while the United States have the power to acquire and govern territory, the territory immediately upon its acquisition should be placed under the provisions of the Constitution as its fundamental law...

Mr. Moody also quoted from a speech by Mr. Boutwell published in 1897. In this volume printed and published in the Springfield Republican in 1898, on the threshold of the great contest between liberty and slavery, it is entitled "Mr. Douglas' Popular Sovereignty." It contains a discussion of Douglas' doctrine of popular sovereignty. He quotes the preamble of the constitution as "A sufficient evidence and refutation of all Mr. Douglas' theories..."

COFFEY STILL IN POLITICS.

Has No Intention of Abandoning the Fight Against Willoughby Street.

Senator William J. Coffey, who lost the Democratic leadership in the Ninth Assembly district in Brooklyn at the recent primaries by only a majority of two in a vote of over three thousand, announced yesterday that he was going to acquiesce in the result and would not bother himself by starting a suit for a review of the figures. At the same time he wished to announce that he was still in the political arena and had no intention of abandoning his fight with Willoughby Street. Hugh McLaughlin will be back in Brooklyn to-day or tomorrow and a list of about thirty-three delegates who are to represent his political dominions at the State convention will be prepared under his direction...

SAYS EUROPE'S FOR BRYAN.

DEWEY FINDS THE OLD WORLD COMMERCIALLY AFRAID OF US.

Consequently, He Declares, a Panic Such as the Election of Bryan Would Cause Would Delight Our Competitors Abroad—Speech Made at Republican Club.

Mr. Dewey made his first speech since his return from Europe at a reception given in his honor at the Republican Club last night. Robert C. Morris, chairman of the club's Campaign Committee, was master of what little ceremony there was, and about 500 of the members were present. "This policy of silence is certainly a new departure on Mr. Bryan's part," said Senator Gibbs. "Hitherto, though not escaping the charge of inconsistency, Bryan has not been chargeable with evasion. He has always been ready to talk about his various principles. In season and out of season he has expounded the cause of free silver, and at Kansas City he insisted upon it as the leading issue, but now he has suddenly become dumb and refuses to state his intentions as to what would be the most important matter in his administration. He said plainly enough at Indianapolis what he would do with regard to the tariff, but now he has refused to say anything together to haul down the flag in the Philippines; but now he will not say what he would do about the vital question concerning the national honor and solvency."

"No, too," George Fred Williams, who has never before made a speech of silver immediately decided, declined to answer, and claimed they were trying to take an unfair advantage of him. The Democratic leaders are becoming scared of the very word tariff, and they do not dare to follow them out to their logical and righteous conclusions. That is all there is about it."

GOV. SCOFFIELD IN THE CAMP.

Not Likely That His Personal Grievance Against McKinley Will Be Allowed to Influence His Campaign.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 30.—The strong objection of Gov. Scofield to the Republican candidate for Governor Robert M. La Follette, which he has not hesitated to express and which has led to talk of his bolting the ticket, is due entirely to personal reasons. There is no doubt of Gov. Scofield's antipathy to La Follette and it is possible that he may refuse to run in his election, but that he will publicly announce his opposition and make an organized effort to encompass La Follette's defeat is not deemed probable. Henry C. Payne, vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee, says that he feels sure that Gov. Scofield will not do anything to injure La Follette in any way. He says that he has no personal grievance against La Follette, and that he has no objection to his running for Governor. He says that he has no objection to his running for Governor, and that he has no objection to his running for Governor.

REPUBLICAN FIGHT IN NEBRASKA.

A Thorough Organization of the State in Progress—Secret Populist Tactics.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 30.—In Nebraska the Republicans are following the example of Republicans in other close States, and are organizing the State down to the road districts. This is a more complete organization than has ever before been secured, and the Republicans are making considerable gains through it.

TILLMAN'S NAME SCRATCHED.

His Defeat of His Enemies Nearly Costs Him His Seat in the Senate.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 30.—Although the returns from all the counties in the primary this week are not complete the results are known. It is quite evident that if Senator Tillman had made his defiance a few weeks earlier, inviting his opponents to scratch his name and declare that he would not return to the Senate if a majority failed to vote for him, it would have been forced to retire. While there was no concerted action or organization against Tillman, and the uncertainty whether a "scratched" ballot would be counted, fully 81,000 out of 84,000 voters scratched his name. He ran away behind the other candidates in the State except Charleston, where his name was helped materially. Charleston and S. Senator, and not enemies, have buried the hatchet. The Senator is working for a naval station and dry dock and an appropriation for the Charleston Exposition.

LOUISIANA REPUBLICANS HUSTLING.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 30.—For the first time in a quarter of a century the Republicans have opened the political campaign in Louisiana. They have held a dozen or more mass meetings, while the Democrats have not held one as yet. They have started white Republican clubs in each of the parishes of New Orleans, and are now engaged in starting precinct clubs. The movement so far has been confined entirely to the whites, no negroes whatever taking part in it.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS FROM CHINA.

Forty-seven Men of the Ninth Infantry Landed at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—The transport Thomas arrived last evening with a large number of sick and wounded soldiers, marines and officers. Some of the patients in the ship's hospital are from the battlefield at Tientsin, and among these is Capt. Edwin V. Bookmiller of the Ninth United States Infantry, who fell in the advance of the American forces on the Tientsin front. The Chinese and Chinese were transferred to the steamer at Yokohama, where the Thomas stopped on her way from Manila. The sick men were landed at San Francisco on Monday, and will be taken to the hospital at the Presidio. Seven deaths were reported during the voyage from Manila.

FIFTY FOREIGNERS KILLED.

Gov. Yu of Shensi Province Accused of Luring Them to Death.

CHEFOO, Aug. 29.—It is reported here that Yu, the Governor of Shensi province, eight days ago invited all foreigners to enter the Yangtze and to be present at the time they would receive ample protection. Fifty foreigners accepted. All of them were massacred.

3,000 TAMMANYITES GOING.

Forty-four Pullman Cars Will Take Them to the Saratoga Convention.

Senator George W. Plunkitt has engaged forty-four Pullman cars to take Tammany's delegates and rosters to the State convention at Saratoga on Sept. 10. The cars will be in the morning of Sept. 10, and will be room in each car for thirty-six persons, and this will make Tammany's representation at the convention more than 1,500. Every day new applications for accommodations are received by Senator Plunkitt and it looks as though Tammany's crowd at the convention will number 2,000 at the least.

One of the Tammany trains will leave the Grand Central station at midnight on Sept. 10. It will carry the Sullivan and Engels. The other Tammany train will start at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, but Senator Sullivan has arranged a picnic on that day and it was decided to have the picnic go out to Saratoga afterward.

Republican Named for Congress in Virginia. RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 30.—J. R. Whitehead was nominated for Congress in Whitehead in the Richmond district in convention at Martinsville to-day.

DOGGING PLAIN QUESTIONS.

The Country Understands Bryan's Sudden Demise, Says Mr. Gibbs.

The Hon. Frederick S. Gibbs, member of the Republican National Executive Committee, remarked yesterday that the refusal of William Jennings Bryan to answer the plain questions on the silver issue which have been put to him within a few days was a singular departure from the frank habit and one which the voters of the country would not be slow to understand. Mr. Gibbs said that he had noticed also that other distinguished Popocrats dodged the questions which were put to them nowadays.

"This policy of silence is certainly a new departure on Mr. Bryan's part," said Senator Gibbs. "Hitherto, though not escaping the charge of inconsistency, Bryan has not been chargeable with evasion. He has always been ready to talk about his various principles. In season and out of season he has expounded the cause of free silver, and at Kansas City he insisted upon it as the leading issue, but now he has suddenly become dumb and refuses to state his intentions as to what would be the most important matter in his administration. CHAGRIN FELT IN ENGLAND.

OUR CHINESE POLICY LIKELY TO BE FOLLOWED IN RUSSIA.

The Latest Developments Regarded as a Success for Russia—British Desire to Keep the Allied Forces in Peking—Envoy in China May Now, It is Said, Remove to Tientsin. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Aug. 31.—It is not likely that the proposal of the Washington Government regarding China will be seriously opposed by the European Powers, except, possibly, Germany. It is recognized by England that the main work of the relief force has already been accomplished, the Envoy having been recalled and the humiliation of a hasty flight from the capital. It is not denied that further punishment is due, but unfortunately there are many craves that the world is compelled to leave unpunished. It is impossible to pursue the Dowager Empress across China, and if that cannot be done the Powers have secured the security of the country except on terms she will be willing to accept.

The London newspapers exhibit chagrin at seeing the Russo-American cooperation. "The Daily Mail," in an editorial headed, "Produce the Empress," says that Russia, with America and France, to doubt how to form a triple alliance and create the other Powers a policy in the Far East which will have but one aim, the consolidation of Russian power and influence in northern China. Until the allies hold a stable government again in power it would be madness to withdraw the forces in Peking. The surest way to secure the removal of the Dowager Empress is to accept intermediaries in the negotiations with the Emperor and the Dowager Empress.

The Standard says it recognizes that it would be hard to overrate the importance of the Washington decision. It adds that Russia and the United States have both strong motives for regarding the proposed settlement as the earliest possible moment. The Powers have shown that they only ask for an open door for commerce, the security of their subjects and compensation for the past offences. It is the Chinese Government which still acts as though it intended to force a more violent partition of the country. The Dowager Empress may clear away in the immediate future, but the Powers must retain their hold on the capital. The proposal of the United States Government, though not inconsistent with its own dignity, is quite impracticable for others, since a withdrawal from Peking would be counted as a triumph of the Dowager party, and be regarded in all parts of the Empire as due to European cowardice.

The Telegraph says that Li Hung Chang seems to be once more master of the Chinese situation. Whatever may be thought of his character and career the usefulness of his diplomacy for the Dowager party is not to be denied. The General must be superseded by an ambassador, in whose hands the punishment of China and the future settlement with that country will rest.

In an interview Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister, said: "The Powers cannot leave Peking in the hands of the Dowager Empress, who is the nominal head of the Chinese Government, or his representative. Either he should send for us or we for him. Whatever may be said, we have to recognize him as the head of the Government."

MARCHED THROUGH THE PALACE.

The Troops of All Allied Nations Take Part in the Celebration of the Fall of Peking.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Department of the Interior has published the following telegram from Minister Conger, received this morning through John Fowler, the United States Consul at Chefoo: "More Russian, German, French and Italian troops arriving. Imperial palace will be entered in a few days. The Chinese are being guarded. Prince Ching is expected in a few days. CONGRS."

SENATOR HANNA'S PLANS.

He Will Leave for the West With His Family Next Tuesday.

United States Senator Nathan B. Scott will be the only member of the Republican National Committee at the headquarters in this city during the early part of next week, and the full burden of the campaign will fall on his shoulders for four or five days. Senator Hanna will be at the headquarters on Monday, but he will start for Ohio on Tuesday, taking his family from Elberon to their home in Columbus. On Sunday Senator Hanna will go to Chicago to take command of the delegates in the campaign. He will speak at Skowhegan, Augusta and Biddeford. On Sept. 14 he will speak at the opening of the New York city campaign, and later he will speak in Chicago.

CHINESE FOUGHT HARD.

Major Regan of the Ninth Infantry Tells of the Taking of Tientsin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Among those who saw service at Tientsin and who arrived to-day on the transport Thomas was Major Regan of the Ninth Infantry. "I went through that little chagrin at San Juan Hill," said Major Regan, as he lay in his cot at the Presidio Hospital. "I have seen some of the queer fighting down about Manila, but I never before saw war as it is in the modern days until I went up against these untutored Chinese at Tientsin. It was about 10 o'clock in the morning when we started out, Americans, Japs and British. The Russians were around on the other side of the city. We scale the first mud wall and got over into the rice paddies and flat lands, which were lined with ditches and covered with water. We were told to march on and not to stop. We had only got fairly started through the mud and slush when the Chinese opened up on us with a fire like which I had never seen. Our men dropped like flies and we had to hunt for shelter in one of the small trenches. Behind this we lay and covered with water. I was directing my men when I was struck and rendered unconscious. When I came to, I examined myself and found I could use my body and started to get up. The moment I showed myself I was shot again, though I was not hurt. I was taken to the hospital. I was there for several days, but I did not get out of bed until I was well enough to go to work."

HAS DESERTED BRYANISM.

Melville E. Ingalls Will Turn In and Work for the Republican Ticket.

The Hon. Melville E. Ingalls, President of the Big Four railroad system, a life-long Democrat, has an article in the September North American Review, which will be published to-day, in which he gives the reasons which now lead him to support the Republican national ticket. Some months ago Mr. Ingalls was approached by a prominent capitalist and was asked to put himself in communication with William J. Bryan. The result of this communication was that Mr. Ingalls was asked to let him have the use of his name in support of the national Democratic ticket in this campaign. Mr. Ingalls' answer to that question is embodied in his article.

ROW OVER POLLING PLACES.

Republicans Protest That Elections Bureau Has Not Been Impartial.

Secretary Manchester of the Republican County Committee in a communication to Police Headquarters yesterday, filed protests with the Police Commissioners, stating that the Republican party was not getting its share of the polling places this year. The Police Commissioners select the polling places on the recommendation of the Elections Bureau of Elections, which is made up of members of the board each of the two great parties is allowed to recommend his own polling places which thus fall to the lot of the Republican County Committee. However, the Police Commissioners have rejected forty on the ground that they did not in all respects conform to the rules of the law. Mr. Manchester has appealed to the Commissioners for more time in which to select new polling places, and they have refused to let him have the use of the polling places for those which have been rejected.

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE CONVENTION.

It Will Meet at Saratoga Next Monday—To Make a Hastening Campaign.

The Republican League of the State of New York will hold its second biennial convention at Congress Hall, Saratoga, on Monday afternoon. Officers will be elected for the ensuing two years, and an Executive Committee consisting of one delegate from each of the counties will be chosen as will delegates to represent the league at the National Republican League Convention to be held in 1902. President Frederick Easton, in issuing the call to the convention, makes a strong appeal to all its members and to all Republicans in every county to send delegates to the convention. The league will make a campaign for the Republican nomination on the national and State tickets in every county, and will hold a series of public meetings in all parts of the State to rouse the voters.
