

MATTERS IN STAGELAND.

A NEW PIECE OF BURLESQUE IN THE SHOW AT WEBER & FIELDS.

Fay Templeton Mimics Ethel Barrymore as the Prima Donna in "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines"—An Address by Richard Mansfield to Dramatic Students.

The burlesque that was acted for the first time at Weber & Fields' last night was not short that had it been either a dull failure or a brilliant success, it would have made no material difference in the entire show.

In the music of this John Stremberg had copied the time and manner of the originals with new and pretty tunes, as he had done cleverly for the mimicry of the popular songs.

Richard Mansfield spoke entertainingly for some time to the graduates of the exercises of the American Academy of Dramatic Art at the Empire Theatre yesterday afternoon.

For this he blamed the critics and the managers as much as the audience. Emotional in his speech, he said that he had made a mere turn on his knees and the black and white man in a different way.

Mr. Mansfield touched on another subject that had been discussed lately with him as the central point of his address. He said that he had spent his money as usual, and that a national bank had been established in New York.

The Brito was hunched yesterday over the radio which George W. Lederer said he had made that his chorus women must be accompanied by choruses.

Paul Potter disappeared after his "Tribby," again after "The Conquerors," and is back to do once more after "Under the Stars." During these absences he has been in Europe, founding and observing until a serene for a play comes to him.

ACCUSED JUDGES ACQUITTED.

North Carolina Democrats Fail to Drive Republicans From the Bench.

Raleigh N. C. March 28.—The North Carolina Senate, which has been sitting as a High Court of Impeachment for three weeks, acquitted to-day Chief Justice D. M. Purches and Judge R. M. Douglas, who were charged with "high crimes and misdemeanors."

The vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

After the vote on the first article, the managers from the House sought to withdraw the other articles, but the Senate objected. The judges were suspended by the Constitution when the trial began and they will resume their seats to-morrow.

G'WAN, AL, SAYS R. T. BOARD TOO MUCH JOHNSON AND NOT ENOUGH TUNNEY SPECIFICATIONS.

The Trolley Man Told That He is Altogether Too Vague. So Far, to Do Business With and the Brooklyn Trolley Application Will Go as It Stands—He May Fire When Ready.

Al Johnson's proposition reached the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners yesterday and was turned down with great firmness. Mr. Johnson was treated politely, but the commission sent a letter to him in which it said that it really thought he was not worth while fooling with.

Mr. Johnson's letter to the board said that he did not think that he should be expected to enter on a binding obligation on the mere strength of what President Johnson was willing to say that he would recommend to the board.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

Mr. Johnson did not reply to the request of the commission for a copy of his plan further than to write to the board and say that he would not do so.

WILLIE SMASHED A CARTRIDGE.

And Great was the Havo on His Play-mates Who Were Looking On.

Somebody who should have known better gave an unexploded cartridge from the military tournament to eight-year-old Willie Shannon of 23 East Thirty-first street and yesterday Willie called in Robby Talbot, who lives in the same house, Willie Doherty of 32 East Thirty-first street, Letty Kisch, who lives there, too, and a few more play-mates, to see him smash it with the hatchet.

The cartridge held its own very well till Willie turned it upside down. He struck just once and there was an explosion which was heard five blocks away.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

Each bluecoat grabbed a youngster and Letty's mother carried her to the Bellevue dispensary. There the children were plastered with the medicine, rightly got most of the powder, with Robby Talbot a close second. The little girl's face was out.

MRS. WANDELL OFTEN ILL.

DR. BROCKWAY HAD TO SIT UP WITH HER TILLS ORG IN THE MORNING.

She Paid Him Nothing for His Services. Had an Insurance Policy on His Life and His Patients' Checks—She Denies Clothing Regalia Story—Smoked Cuban Cigarettes.

Mrs. Charlotte M. Wandell told her story yesterday before Justice Blanchard in the Supreme court in the case against her former lawyer, Dr. Brockway, who had secured her divorce. She denied positively the statement of a prior witness that she had a man's night gown on her clothesline at her flat in St. Nicholas avenue two years ago while she was living with her grown daughter.

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

There was a hitch as to how far the court could inquire into a servant's night of the former maid of Mrs. Wandell, Gertrude Nelson, had testified against her mistress and Mrs. Wandell said she discharged the young servant for coming in at 2 A. M. when discharged the maid had said "I'll fix you."

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Ready Friday, March 29.

APRIL CENTURY

CONTAINS: "DOLCE," A complete story of art-life in Florence by the author of "Madame Butterfly." An Oklahoma Story, A New York Story, A Southern Story, A Mexican Story, A Travel Story, A New England Story by the author of "Deacon Bradbury."

ARTICLES ON "The Transportation of Iron" (Illustrated), "Malaria and Certain Mosquitos," Queen Victoria (Personal Reminiscences), English Gardens (Illustrated), The Rhine (Illustrated), "DRI AND I," the new serial novel by Irving Bacheller.

"THE HELMET OF NAVARRE," Miss Runkle's very successful serial. Etc., Etc.

35 Cents. THE CENTURY CO. Sold Everywhere.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Ready Friday, March 29.

APRIL CENTURY

CONTAINS: "DOLCE," A complete story of art-life in Florence by the author of "Madame Butterfly." An Oklahoma Story, A New York Story, A Southern Story, A Mexican Story, A Travel Story, A New England Story by the author of "Deacon Bradbury."

ARTICLES ON "The Transportation of Iron" (Illustrated), "Malaria and Certain Mosquitos," Queen Victoria (Personal Reminiscences), English Gardens (Illustrated), The Rhine (Illustrated), "DRI AND I," the new serial novel by Irving Bacheller.

"THE HELMET OF NAVARRE," Miss Runkle's very successful serial. Etc., Etc.

35 Cents. THE CENTURY CO. Sold Everywhere.

THE OCTOPUS BY FRANK NORRIS. A GREAT NOVEL OF THE WHEAT GROWERS AND THEIR FIGHT WITH THE RAILROAD. READY TO-MORROW. DOUBLEDAY, PAGE AND CO. PUBLISHERS. NEW YORK.

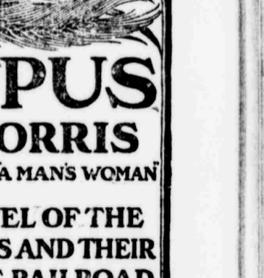

CUBAN DELEGATES AT ODDS. SENOR SANGUILLY RESIGNS FROM CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

He Favours the Acceptance of the United States Proposal. While Others of His Party Are Opposed. Conflicting Ideas in the Committee on Relations—Katharine's Board.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN. HAVANA, March 28. Senor Sanguilly has handed his resignation as a member of the constitutional convention to the Executive Committee.

Several of the delegates asked him to reconsider his determination, and he will leave the matter to the convention. Senor Sanguilly considers that if the convention refuses to accept his resignation it will show that a majority of the delegates favor the Platt amendment.

Colonial Auction Rooms. 232 5th Avenue, Cor. 27th Street. BENJ. S. WISE, Auctioneer. ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY. GENUINE ANTIQUES.

THE OCTOPUS BY FRANK NORRIS. A GREAT NOVEL OF THE WHEAT GROWERS AND THEIR FIGHT WITH THE RAILROAD. READY TO-MORROW. DOUBLEDAY, PAGE AND CO. PUBLISHERS. NEW YORK.

Colonial Auction Rooms. 232 5th Avenue, Cor. 27th Street. BENJ. S. WISE, Auctioneer. ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY. GENUINE ANTIQUES.

MR. WINSTED BURDETTE, Richmond, Virginia. Together with the entire antique shop belonging to Mr. J. M. W. who is retiring from business, and removed from 247 West 42d St.

At Absolute Sale To-day (Friday) AND SATURDAY. AT 1:30 P. M. SHARP. Colleges and Schools. For Boys and Young Men—City & Country.

Regents' Central Preparatory School. 18 & 19th St. New York City. Principals: W. S. M. and J. S. M.

Regents' and College. Examination in 21 and 22 count courses, $100.00. Central Preparatory School. 18 & 19th St. New York City. Principals: W. S. M. and J. S. M.

CITY HALL PARK TREES MUST FALL.

Staking Out the Tuned Loop To Begin Work on the Rapid Transit.

The engineers of the Devoan-McLean Company and of the Department of Parks began to stake out the route of the rapid transit loop through City Hall Park yesterday.

Finally the contractor interfered and refused to let the workers return to their work. They consented, threatening, however, to have the contractor's work done.

Finally the contractor interfered and refused to let the workers return to their work. They consented, threatening, however, to have the contractor's work done.

Finally the contractor interfered and refused to let the workers return to their work. They consented, threatening, however, to have the contractor's work done.

CONTRACTOR SHOOTS BOSS PAINTER.

They Quarreled Over a Decorating Contract.

Henry Von Dietz, a boss painter of 1707 Avenue A, was shot in the jaw yesterday by Louis F. Mans, a contractor of 40 West Thirty-second street, in a quarrel over business.

Henry Von Dietz, a boss painter of 1707 Avenue A, was shot in the jaw yesterday by Louis F. Mans, a contractor of 40 West Thirty-second street, in a quarrel over business.

Henry Von Dietz, a boss painter of 1707 Avenue A, was shot in the jaw yesterday by Louis F. Mans, a contractor of 40 West Thirty-second street, in a quarrel over business.

Henry Von Dietz, a boss painter of 1707 Avenue A, was shot in the jaw yesterday by Louis F. Mans, a contractor of 40 West Thirty-second street, in a quarrel over business.

SCARED INTO A FOUR-STORY FALL.

Wine Bottle Explosion Made Penny Tambo Out of the Window, but He's Not Much Hurt.

Benny Fetschowski of 406 Sixth street, who is 3 years old, was hanging out of the window of his home in the fifth story yesterday afternoon while his mother was bottling wine in the kitchen.

Benny Fetschowski of 406 Sixth street, who is 3 years old, was hanging out of the window of his home in the fifth story yesterday afternoon while his mother was bottling wine in the kitchen.

Benny Fetschowski of 406 Sixth street, who is 3 years old, was hanging out of the window of his home in the fifth story yesterday afternoon while his mother was bottling wine in the kitchen.

Benny Fetschowski of 406 Sixth street, who is 3 years old, was hanging out of the window of his home in the fifth story yesterday afternoon while his mother was bottling wine in the kitchen.

GRAYS AND TANS FOR SPRING OVERCOATS CONTINUE IN THE SADDLE OF PUBLIC FAVOR.

Grays and Tans are what you find in our Spring overcoats.

Grays and Tans are what you find in our Spring overcoats. From $12 to $35.

Grays and Tans are what you find in our Spring overcoats. From $12 to $35.

Grays and Tans are what you find in our Spring overcoats. From $12 to $35.

Grays and Tans are what you find in our Spring overcoats. From $12 to $35.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY.

232 Broadway, New York.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY. 232 Broadway, New York.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY. 232 Broadway, New York.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY. 232 Broadway, New York.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY. 232 Broadway, New York.