

HUGHES BAFFLED BOSTONS.

Brooklyn's Outright Outfield and Bat Visitors. Capt. Davis of the New Yorks put out of the game at Cincinnati, St. Louis and Brooklyn.

The Cincinnati-American League. The Cincinnati are playing with their usual early season speed and yesterday they took the lead in the National League.

White James Hughes was taking a year off, far from the turmoil of National League baseball, his pitching arm was not suffering.

Many vicious balls were driven through the diamond by Columbus. In dealing with these the Boston made errors which were the cause of their defeat.

Brooklyn's only error was a fly which Davis drove for reasons which made the play quite excusable. Steadman, Dahlen and Davis were for the by which Davis could have taken easily if the netting had not been there.

CHAMPION TRAVIS BEATEN.

Travis was far and away the highest class of horse show ever held in Brooklyn came to an end last night at the Riding and Driving Club before the largest attendance seen during the three days of its run.

An ex-champion beat a title holder at the Club of Lakewood yesterday, for F. S. Douglas won from W. J. Travis, but only by one up in nineteen holes.

The star contest, with Douglas and Travis as the actors, was well played. It was pugnacious rather than brilliant golf. The long game by Douglas took on nearly every hole.

The summary follows: First Cup—F. S. Douglas, beat W. J. Travis, Garden City, by 1 up in 19 holes.

Second Cup—H. H. Billings, Essex Court, beat F. S. Douglas, Lakewood, by 1 up in 18 holes.

Third Cup—C. E. Fenner, Essex Court, beat F. S. Douglas, Lakewood, by 1 up in 18 holes.

Fourth Cup—C. E. Fenner, Essex Court, beat F. S. Douglas, Lakewood, by 1 up in 18 holes.

STUDENTS DRAW AT CHESS.

Two Victories and Two Drawn Games Make the Final Score Three Points Each—Colman Forces Perry of Harvard to Resign—Hunt Is Defeated by Davidson of Oxford.

The wind-up of the third international chess match between the American and English Universities proved a great disappointment to the Yankee students, who struggled for two days in the theatre of the Knickerbocker.

The final score was three points each. Colman forced Perry of Harvard to resign. Hunt was defeated by Davidson of Oxford.

When Perry resigned his game his position was greatly cramped and his bishop was practically of no service.

FATHER DOWLING'S WILL. A Little to Relatives—Greater Part to Father James J. Barry.

PORT GREENE, N. Y., April 27.—The will of the Rev. Martin Dowling, pastor emeritus of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, who died at his mansion on the Boston Post road April 9, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office today.

The will, which was executed March 14, 1901, bears the names of Bernard Baruch of New York and Dr. Edward Quinan of Port Chester as witnesses.

The dead priest out of his old parish of Port Chester without a cent and gave the bulk of his wealth to the Rev. James T. Barry of New York, formerly an assistant of the church of the Immaculate Conception of St. Monica's New York city. At present Father Barry is pastor of the church of the Resurrection in Bay Ridge.

The terms of Father Dowling's will are a great disappointment to the parish over which he presided for nearly half a century. It was believed that he would leave his old parish of $25,000 which would be enough to pay the expenses of the church.

His act has created criticism. He had a large amount of it was in the hands of the Rev. Richard Cushman of Bay Ridge, who was a wealthy landowner in Ireland. The Rev. ATHLETE PUNCHES SPECTATOR.

W. F. McLaughlin Resents the Intrusion of a Man at Dual Week in Brooklyn Army.

There was a merry fracas in the one-mile handicap at the dual athletic meeting of Battery E, Thirtieth Regiment Heavy Artillery and Company I, Twenty-second Regiment, at the Thirtieth Regiment armory, Brooklyn, last night.

The sixth lap a spectator interfered with the race and the runner was shoved over on the track and interfered with W. F. McLaughlin of Company I, the scratch man, who was at the time closing the race.

McLaughlin was also at the time closing the race from him, but he refused to believe it and members of the command interfered.

USEFUL FRIEND, BUFFALO BILL.

After an Opinion on His New Horse Bought Hegeman Said and Got His Money Back.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 27.—John R. Hegeman, President of the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Company of New York, said Col. Charles W. Bailey of Kentucky in the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday to recover part value of a horse which Mr. Hegeman bought from Col. Bailey for his son, John W. Hegeman, Jr., and which was brought in a verdict of $684, the price paid for the horse.

Hegeman contended that Col. Bailey agreed to change the horse if it was not suitable for the purpose for which it was bought, and he refused to carry out his stipulation. Young Hegeman testified that when he saw the horse he did not like it, and he refused to pay for it.
