MORNING DARK WITH STORM.

Sixty-six-mile Gale With Bangling Thunder and Niagara Rain. One of the blackest of thunderstorms swept down upon the city yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

The velocity of the wind was sixty-six miles an hour and the temperature fell from 83 degrees to 73 degrees in ten minutes. The thunder came in sharp, quick bursts and lightning were fierce and fast.

The darkness which was caused by the storm was one of its most remarkable characteristics. Down town, between the high office buildings it was so dark that all the electric lights were turned on.
