5,000 Pairs

Lace Curtains

Came into our hands last week at less than half regular market prices. The lot consists of casting pieces and patterns that for some technical reason or another were discontinued for the season, which does not affect the wearing worth or the appearance of the curtains by any means—but how it does affect prices!

Nottingham Lace Curtains.

Regular $3, $4 and $5 Nottingham Lace Curtains—the choice of a lot of the richest designs that ever came off an American loom—highly artistic designs in conventional, scroll, rosette and floral effects; per pair 2.25, 2.80, and 2.98
Regular $3 and $4 Nottingham Lace Curtains—in every artistic combination of scroll and floral effects—also in beautiful Arabian but designs, 54 inches wide—these are superb curtains. Per pair 1.50, 1.75 and 1.98

Gems From Furniture Sale!

Last week's successful selling swept the Furniture stock pretty clean, but there are enough specials left to make this a very interesting week. And every piece is new, bright and fashionable, for it is fresh from the maker—AT SACRIFICE PRICES.

This Solid Mahogany Parlor Suit, Value $65.00 for 39.75

The above illustration conveys but a meagre conception of this ELEGANT 5-PIECE SOLID MAHOGANY PARLOR SUIT—covered with high grade Silk Damask (in choice colorings and patterns); in the make-up are the best silk tempered springs—real value, $65.00, for this sale.

Marqueterie Pearl Inlaid Parlor Suit, Value $75.00 for 49.50

Here again is another attempted illustration of a BEAUTIFUL MARQUETERIE PEARL INLAID BACK, FIVE-PIECE PARLOR SUIT—pearl inlaid on highly polished frame—covered with fine quality Damask—real value $75.00, for this sale.

About 450 Parlor Suits Are in our possession, and as we want them to get in yours this week, we quote prices that are practically half regular figure.
