HAYES TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Testimony Showing That He Expected to Escape With Miss Cooke.

Tommyron, Conn., Oct. 16.—Testimony in the trial of John T. Hayes, the murderer of Winifred Cooke, was introduced rapidly to-day by the State before the Superior Court at Litchfield.

Hayes told his side of the circumstances of the case and said he expected opposition from the family.

The inquest of Hayes in regard to the police force of Millerton shows that he expected that if Miss Cooke eloped with him an attempt would be made by telegraph to interfere with the ceremony.

The circumstances attending the shooting were brought out in detail today.

Some other changes will be made in "Hoty-Toty," the present first act having the first scene of the second added to it.

Fay Templeton will have a new negro song to displace "Ma Japanese Cherry Blossom," and new costumes are being made for it.

Charles Hawtrev decided yesterday to give a matinee of "A Message From Mars" on Monday afternoon.

Arrangements were made yesterday for Annie Russell to succeed Bertha Galland at the Lyceum early in November.
