

MAY LEAD TO PEACE CONF.

DELAWARE'S RELEASE OF METHUEN FURNISHES OPPORTUNITY.

Kitchener Goes to Klerksdorp and May Meet the Boer Leaders—Belief That Delaney Told Methuen What Terms Boers Would Accept—Conservator Close.

WINE FOR CRUISE DENVER.

Miss Wright Won't Present the W. C. T. U. to the Water at the Lameck. DENVER, Col., March 15.—Miss Roberta Wright, the Mayor's daughter, still declares that she will use champagne and not mineral water in naming the cruiser Denver.

HEAD WATER METERMAN OUT.

McGaffney Sought to Have Discovered. Commissioner Dougherty of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity announced yesterday that he had removed from office Edward J. McGaffney, the general inspector of water meters.

GIRL STUDENTS TOO GIDDY.

Stricter Rules of Discipline for the Coeds in Syracuse University. SYRACUSE, March 15.—Chancellor James R. Day of Syracuse University thinks the young women students are a bit too giddy, and has formed some new rules to go into effect next year.

BOOTH TARKINGTON LEADS.

Runs Ahead of All the Rivals in the Indianapolis Primaries. INDIANAPOLIS, March 15.—The Board of Chosenmen that is tabulating the vote in yesterday's Republican primaries will not have the totals compiled before morning, as there were more than forty candidates for the several offices and 165 precincts in the city and county to be recorded.

MINISTER TO SPAIN RETURN.

Bellamy Storer, United States Minister to Madrid, returned by the St. Louis, which anchored in Quarantine last night. When Mr. Storer left Madrid it was rumored that he would not return, but this was denied.

BOYS FIGHT OVER TOY PISTOL.

Blank Cartridge Explodes and One of the Boys Will Lose an Eye. Twelve-year-old Herman Murch of 313 East Twenty-ninth street and one of his playmates, Joseph Carr of 125 East Twenty-ninth street, fought yesterday morning over the possession of a toy revolver.

BOYS FIGHT OVER TOY PISTOL.

Blank Cartridge Explodes and One of the Boys Will Lose an Eye. Twelve-year-old Herman Murch of 313 East Twenty-ninth street and one of his playmates, Joseph Carr of 125 East Twenty-ninth street, fought yesterday morning over the possession of a toy revolver.

BOYS FIGHT OVER TOY PISTOL.

Blank Cartridge Explodes and One of the Boys Will Lose an Eye. Twelve-year-old Herman Murch of 313 East Twenty-ninth street and one of his playmates, Joseph Carr of 125 East Twenty-ninth street, fought yesterday morning over the possession of a toy revolver.

BOYS FIGHT OVER TOY PISTOL.

Blank Cartridge Explodes and One of the Boys Will Lose an Eye. Twelve-year-old Herman Murch of 313 East Twenty-ninth street and one of his playmates, Joseph Carr of 125 East Twenty-ninth street, fought yesterday morning over the possession of a toy revolver.

GAUTHIER CAUGHT IN CANADA.

MAUDE GENTILE'S SLAYER FIRED TO HIS MOTHER IN MONTREAL.

He Told His Friend Bernstein He Was a Cousin of Maude's—Jack Gentile Thinks Gauthier Took $2500 Beaded Diamond Ring, Which is Recovered. Eugene Gauthier, the French-Canadian tailor who is suspected of the murder of Maude Gentile at Glotzka's Hotel in East Forty-second street, near Third avenue, on Thursday night was arrested in Montreal yesterday.

ITALY KEEPS HER ANARCHISTS.

Seven Taken From a Ship Bound for This Country and Locked Up. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, March 15.—Seven dangerous Anarchists were arrested the other day at Naples on board a steamer that was about to sail for New York.

CECIL RHODES SINKING.

Frequent Attacks of Heart Failure—Oxygen Being Used. CAPE TOWN, March 15.—Cecil Rhodes is weaker. He is now hardly able to speak. LONDON, March 15.—The British South Africa Company has received the following despatch from Cape Town, dated today:

TRUTHS FROM ADIRONDACKS.

Kilburn Swamped by Hungry Trout—Famous Shot at a Goose V. The Amalgamated Association of Frank-Tellers, sometimes known as the Frank-Tellers Society, had its annual dinner last night at Delmonico's.

JUDGE HARNEY DECIDES.

Denies the Motion for a New Trial of the Minnie Healy Whiting Case. BOSTON, March 15.—Judge E. W. Harney of the District Court today finally decided the motion for a new trial of the noted Minnie Healy Whiting case and denied it.

ONCE WAS TOWN'S RICHEST MAN.

Old Friend of Jay Gould, Hind and Penniless, Goes to Poorhouse. WASHINGTON, N. J., March 15.—Josiah Lynn, who was sent to the County Poor Farm at Karryville yesterday, was the richest man in his section thirty years ago.

HARLEY REPORT ON MAULIFFE.

Commissioner Partridge Has It—Some Police Men Agree. Inspector Harley has submitted to Commissioner Partridge his report on the investigation into the death of James Mauliffe, who died by violence on Feb. 15.

PAINTINGS FROM MISS GOULD.

She Needs Copies of Alma Tadema to a North Carolina Girls' School. RALEIGH, N. C., March 15.—The Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, a State institution for young women studying to be teachers, has received a gift of paintings from Miss Helen Gould.

THE BEER WAS GOOD.

And While the Tare Brank the Big Steamship Had to Wait. Three thirty German tars delayed the sailing of the North German Lloyd steamship Brasilia from Hoboken for fifteen minutes yesterday.

STONE IN THE LEAD FOR YENT'S SEAT.

MEXICO, Mo., March 15.—Former Governor Stone and V. H. Wallace are now the only candidates for Yent's seat in the United States Senate. Congressman De Armas and Charles Mack having both withdrawn.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

YOUNG KING NOT STRONG.

Report to the Pope on His Condition Gave Rise to Recent Stories.

LONDON, March 15.—Some sensational statements have been made here recently respecting the young King of Spain. It has been hinted not obscurely that he is weak-minded. These reports are grossly exaggerated. The actual facts are that a short time ago the Papal Nuncio in Madrid wrote to the Pope that Alfonso was not qualified to take over at present the full functions of Kingship because his intellectual faculties, in spite of careful training, were not sufficiently developed for his high estate.

CRUSADE ON LICENSES NOW.

PARKHURST SOCIETY'S NEW PLAN TO ENFORCE RAJES LAW.

It Has Got Some Cases Into the Supreme Court Already Through the Excise Department, and Proposes to Go Ahead Sundays on That Line. Agents of the Parkhurst society will be abroad today to get evidence of violation of the liquor tax laws in order to obtain the revocation of saloon licenses. Supt. McClintock said last night that this is to be a line on which the Parkhurst society will proceed, "putting it up," he said, to the Excise Commissioners and inspectors as well as to the police and the District Attorney.

STOLEN SPONGES RECOVERED.

Steals Say Thieves Were Hoarding Them to Bet on Lord Quex. Police Captain Schmittberger says that while he is in charge of the temporary station at the foot of Thirty-fourth street, where the Hohenzollern was tied up during the visit of Prince Henry, flat-roof robbers invaded his district in swarms.

TO SEND A GERMAN SQUADRON.

Prince Henry Will Discuss the Plan With the Kaiser. BERLIN, March 15.—It is understood that Prince Henry intends to discuss with his brother, the Emperor, the best and most convenient way of arranging for a visit of German warships to the United States, which it is understood here, President Roosevelt will welcome.

JUDGE HARNEY DECIDES.

Denies the Motion for a New Trial of the Minnie Healy Whiting Case. BOSTON, March 15.—Judge E. W. Harney of the District Court today finally decided the motion for a new trial of the noted Minnie Healy Whiting case and denied it.

ONCE WAS TOWN'S RICHEST MAN.

Old Friend of Jay Gould, Hind and Penniless, Goes to Poorhouse. WASHINGTON, N. J., March 15.—Josiah Lynn, who was sent to the County Poor Farm at Karryville yesterday, was the richest man in his section thirty years ago.

HARLEY REPORT ON MAULIFFE.

Commissioner Partridge Has It—Some Police Men Agree. Inspector Harley has submitted to Commissioner Partridge his report on the investigation into the death of James Mauliffe, who died by violence on Feb. 15.

PAINTINGS FROM MISS GOULD.

She Needs Copies of Alma Tadema to a North Carolina Girls' School. RALEIGH, N. C., March 15.—The Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, a State institution for young women studying to be teachers, has received a gift of paintings from Miss Helen Gould.

THE BEER WAS GOOD.

And While the Tare Brank the Big Steamship Had to Wait. Three thirty German tars delayed the sailing of the North German Lloyd steamship Brasilia from Hoboken for fifteen minutes yesterday.

STONE IN THE LEAD FOR YENT'S SEAT.

MEXICO, Mo., March 15.—Former Governor Stone and V. H. Wallace are now the only candidates for Yent's seat in the United States Senate. Congressman De Armas and Charles Mack having both withdrawn.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

CRUSADE ON LICENSES NOW.

PARKHURST SOCIETY'S NEW PLAN TO ENFORCE RAJES LAW.

It Has Got Some Cases Into the Supreme Court Already Through the Excise Department, and Proposes to Go Ahead Sundays on That Line. Agents of the Parkhurst society will be abroad today to get evidence of violation of the liquor tax laws in order to obtain the revocation of saloon licenses. Supt. McClintock said last night that this is to be a line on which the Parkhurst society will proceed, "putting it up," he said, to the Excise Commissioners and inspectors as well as to the police and the District Attorney.

STOLEN SPONGES RECOVERED.

Steals Say Thieves Were Hoarding Them to Bet on Lord Quex. Police Captain Schmittberger says that while he is in charge of the temporary station at the foot of Thirty-fourth street, where the Hohenzollern was tied up during the visit of Prince Henry, flat-roof robbers invaded his district in swarms.

TO SEND A GERMAN SQUADRON.

Prince Henry Will Discuss the Plan With the Kaiser. BERLIN, March 15.—It is understood that Prince Henry intends to discuss with his brother, the Emperor, the best and most convenient way of arranging for a visit of German warships to the United States, which it is understood here, President Roosevelt will welcome.

JUDGE HARNEY DECIDES.

Denies the Motion for a New Trial of the Minnie Healy Whiting Case. BOSTON, March 15.—Judge E. W. Harney of the District Court today finally decided the motion for a new trial of the noted Minnie Healy Whiting case and denied it.

ONCE WAS TOWN'S RICHEST MAN.

Old Friend of Jay Gould, Hind and Penniless, Goes to Poorhouse. WASHINGTON, N. J., March 15.—Josiah Lynn, who was sent to the County Poor Farm at Karryville yesterday, was the richest man in his section thirty years ago.

HARLEY REPORT ON MAULIFFE.

Commissioner Partridge Has It—Some Police Men Agree. Inspector Harley has submitted to Commissioner Partridge his report on the investigation into the death of James Mauliffe, who died by violence on Feb. 15.

PAINTINGS FROM MISS GOULD.

She Needs Copies of Alma Tadema to a North Carolina Girls' School. RALEIGH, N. C., March 15.—The Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, a State institution for young women studying to be teachers, has received a gift of paintings from Miss Helen Gould.

THE BEER WAS GOOD.

And While the Tare Brank the Big Steamship Had to Wait. Three thirty German tars delayed the sailing of the North German Lloyd steamship Brasilia from Hoboken for fifteen minutes yesterday.

STONE IN THE LEAD FOR YENT'S SEAT.

MEXICO, Mo., March 15.—Former Governor Stone and V. H. Wallace are now the only candidates for Yent's seat in the United States Senate. Congressman De Armas and Charles Mack having both withdrawn.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

CRUSADE ON LICENSES NOW.

PARKHURST SOCIETY'S NEW PLAN TO ENFORCE RAJES LAW.

It Has Got Some Cases Into the Supreme Court Already Through the Excise Department, and Proposes to Go Ahead Sundays on That Line. Agents of the Parkhurst society will be abroad today to get evidence of violation of the liquor tax laws in order to obtain the revocation of saloon licenses. Supt. McClintock said last night that this is to be a line on which the Parkhurst society will proceed, "putting it up," he said, to the Excise Commissioners and inspectors as well as to the police and the District Attorney.

STOLEN SPONGES RECOVERED.

Steals Say Thieves Were Hoarding Them to Bet on Lord Quex. Police Captain Schmittberger says that while he is in charge of the temporary station at the foot of Thirty-fourth street, where the Hohenzollern was tied up during the visit of Prince Henry, flat-roof robbers invaded his district in swarms.

TO SEND A GERMAN SQUADRON.

Prince Henry Will Discuss the Plan With the Kaiser. BERLIN, March 15.—It is understood that Prince Henry intends to discuss with his brother, the Emperor, the best and most convenient way of arranging for a visit of German warships to the United States, which it is understood here, President Roosevelt will welcome.

JUDGE HARNEY DECIDES.

Denies the Motion for a New Trial of the Minnie Healy Whiting Case. BOSTON, March 15.—Judge E. W. Harney of the District Court today finally decided the motion for a new trial of the noted Minnie Healy Whiting case and denied it.

ONCE WAS TOWN'S RICHEST MAN.

Old Friend of Jay Gould, Hind and Penniless, Goes to Poorhouse. WASHINGTON, N. J., March 15.—Josiah Lynn, who was sent to the County Poor Farm at Karryville yesterday, was the richest man in his section thirty years ago.

HARLEY REPORT ON MAULIFFE.

Commissioner Partridge Has It—Some Police Men Agree. Inspector Harley has submitted to Commissioner Partridge his report on the investigation into the death of James Mauliffe, who died by violence on Feb. 15.

PAINTINGS FROM MISS GOULD.

She Needs Copies of Alma Tadema to a North Carolina Girls' School. RALEIGH, N. C., March 15.—The Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, a State institution for young women studying to be teachers, has received a gift of paintings from Miss Helen Gould.

THE BEER WAS GOOD.

And While the Tare Brank the Big Steamship Had to Wait. Three thirty German tars delayed the sailing of the North German Lloyd steamship Brasilia from Hoboken for fifteen minutes yesterday.

STONE IN THE LEAD FOR YENT'S SEAT.

MEXICO, Mo., March 15.—Former Governor Stone and V. H. Wallace are now the only candidates for Yent's seat in the United States Senate. Congressman De Armas and Charles Mack having both withdrawn.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

CRUSADE ON LICENSES NOW.

PARKHURST SOCIETY'S NEW PLAN TO ENFORCE RAJES LAW.

It Has Got Some Cases Into the Supreme Court Already Through the Excise Department, and Proposes to Go Ahead Sundays on That Line. Agents of the Parkhurst society will be abroad today to get evidence of violation of the liquor tax laws in order to obtain the revocation of saloon licenses. Supt. McClintock said last night that this is to be a line on which the Parkhurst society will proceed, "putting it up," he said, to the Excise Commissioners and inspectors as well as to the police and the District Attorney.

STOLEN SPONGES RECOVERED.

Steals Say Thieves Were Hoarding Them to Bet on Lord Quex. Police Captain Schmittberger says that while he is in charge of the temporary station at the foot of Thirty-fourth street, where the Hohenzollern was tied up during the visit of Prince Henry, flat-roof robbers invaded his district in swarms.

TO SEND A GERMAN SQUADRON.

Prince Henry Will Discuss the Plan With the Kaiser. BERLIN, March 15.—It is understood that Prince Henry intends to discuss with his brother, the Emperor, the best and most convenient way of arranging for a visit of German warships to the United States, which it is understood here, President Roosevelt will welcome.

JUDGE HARNEY DECIDES.

Denies the Motion for a New Trial of the Minnie Healy Whiting Case. BOSTON, March 15.—Judge E. W. Harney of the District Court today finally decided the motion for a new trial of the noted Minnie Healy Whiting case and denied it.

ONCE WAS TOWN'S RICHEST MAN.

Old Friend of Jay Gould, Hind and Penniless, Goes to Poorhouse. WASHINGTON, N. J., March 15.—Josiah Lynn, who was sent to the County Poor Farm at Karryville yesterday, was the richest man in his section thirty years ago.

HARLEY REPORT ON MAULIFFE.

Commissioner Partridge Has It—Some Police Men Agree. Inspector Harley has submitted to Commissioner Partridge his report on the investigation into the death of James Mauliffe, who died by violence on Feb. 15.

PAINTINGS FROM MISS GOULD.

She Needs Copies of Alma Tadema to a North Carolina Girls' School. RALEIGH, N. C., March 15.—The Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro, a State institution for young women studying to be teachers, has received a gift of paintings from Miss Helen Gould.

THE BEER WAS GOOD.

And While the Tare Brank the Big Steamship Had to Wait. Three thirty German tars delayed the sailing of the North German Lloyd steamship Brasilia from Hoboken for fifteen minutes yesterday.

STONE IN THE LEAD FOR YENT'S SEAT.

MEXICO, Mo., March 15.—Former Governor Stone and V. H. Wallace are now the only candidates for Yent's seat in the United States Senate. Congressman De Armas and Charles Mack having both withdrawn.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

MRS. OULICH TO BUILD HOTEL.

Will Erect a $2,000,000 Structure on a Hill in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A hotel to cost $2,000,000 is to be erected here by Mrs. Herman Oulich at the summit of California Street Hill.

MAJOR AND MRS. LOW HOUSE HUNTING.

GREENWICH, Conn., March 15.—Major and Mrs. Low were house hunting today at Greenwich with a view of renting for the summer. They stayed in town about two hours.

CRUSADE ON LICENSES NOW.

PARKHURST SOCIETY'S NEW PLAN TO ENFORCE RAJES LAW.

It Has Got Some Cases Into