

COLD RACING AT BENNING.

FOUR FAVORITES WIN AND REWARD THE TALENT.

Pigeon Post Beats Elizabeth Moan, but His Owner Refuses to Make a Match with August Belmont's Blue Peter.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—It was winter racing in earnest at Benning this afternoon and a very light crowd attended owing to the very cold weather. The programme was poor owing to light fields, yet the racing was interesting and four favorites won, forming the best race to be seen in the city since the opening handicap at five furlongs. Elizabeth Moan, Pigeon Post and Elmo fought it out at the end with Pigeon Post half a length to the good and Elizabeth Moan a neck before the goal. The last-named was placed in the race on the rail all through the stretch. Booker made a protest of foul, but it was not allowed. Fred Lowe, owner of Elizabeth Moan, was dissatisfied with the name's race and he wanted to match her against Pigeon Post for $1,000 a side, but the owner of Pigeon Post, M. S. Skiles, did not accept the offer.

Nine maiden two-year-olds took part in the fourth event, and August Belmont's colt Blue Peter was backed from 2 to 1. He led from start to finish and beat Ted Knight by four lengths. Illuminate looked so much the best of the four that he was the favorite, but he was a 2 to 1 chance, but the 10 to 1 favorite, Filibuster, raced with Illuminate all the way and then beat him by a length in a hard drive.

Fred Lattfield's two-year-old Fiekie Merle stepped into a hole while being galloped this morning and had to be destroyed, as he broke his leg. The Lotus Stable horses, owned by W. J. Arkell, will be shipped to Morris Park to-morrow in charge of Trainer Ed Heffer. W. W. Walker, who trains the Morris Park horses, complained to the stewards to-day that one of the assistant starters kicked the filly Filibuster at the starting line. The stewards promised to investigate the matter. Summary:
