

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE
FOR TOWN OR COUNTRY HOUSES,
Our Austrian, Flemish, Weathered or Fumed Oak, is much admired for its medieval flavor. Arm chairs, Rush Seated, $10.00; Leather, $20.00, or strong, thick cowhide, artistically colored. Flint Swings, $11.50. Then there are Tables for porch and loggia, from $3.25, square, round or eight-sided—each as original in design as the other.
Lawn furniture in "Old Hickory," our own designs in braided rush, or stained and enameled reed. Our stock boasts unique specimens, not only hard to classify, but impossible to find, unless you

WEBER PIANOS
That which gives the Weber Piano its charm, its real worth, apart from the quality of the materials which enter into its construction and the artistic beauty of its exterior, is that Pure, Rich and Sympathetic Tone in the possession of which it stands alone.

Trimmed Millinery, $5.98 to $24.98 for the Kind Others Sell at $7.50 to $35.00.
The foregoing is a long line brimful of large importance. We don't believe there is a woman in town who, when she pauses to think about the subject, will fail to realize the possibilities that Trimmed Hats afford the retail dealer for levying extortion. An exquisite Hat, one that admirers call a "dream." Who can fix its commercial value? Not you. Only the merchant who knows its actual cost. But does he mark it according to a fair percentage of profit on the amount he paid? Or does he consider the art, and beauty, and grace, and effective lines of the Hat, and decide upon a price that he thinks represents the utmost penny you will pay? There are two schools of merchandising. One takes pride in commanding high prices. The other, Macy's, strains its energies in the opposite direction. We feel as much pleasure in giving big money's worth as you feel in receiving it.

Our Trimmed Hats at $4.74.
The great demand for Trimmed Hats at $5.00 prompted many stores to make a special feature of them. We learned exactly what others were offering. With that knowledge supplemented by the determination to surpass combined competition, in variety of styles and richness of trimmings, at less money, we evolved our $4.74 Hats. They are beauties.

69c. for $1.00 French Chip Flat Hats; soft, pliable brims, may be bent into almost any shape—black, brown, navy, cardinal, gray, mauve and castor.
89c. for $1.25 black Imitation Hair Hats, sewn in the new wavy designs, all the best shapes.
$3.49 for $5.00 Fancy Chip Straw Hats, draped over wire frames, trimmed in back with Alsatian bow of black moire, peau de soie or silk velvet ribbon.

Our 94c. Negligee Shirts.
Our 94c. Negligee Shirts are other stores' $1.50 Negligee Shirts. Made in our own factory. That accounts for the price-difference. We narrow the cost down by taking immense quantities of materials, and you must know that cutting out the maker's profits, that others pay, is another source of large saving. Plainly stated, these Shirts are every whit as good, if not better, than the well known brands that retail everywhere else at $1.50.

The new spring styles in madras, neat black and blue figures on white grounds, are very pretty and fresh; two pair detachable cuffs, 94c., instead of $1.50.

Something About the Store.
You can't appreciate this store unless you know how it differs from other stores. Certain methods control our plan of merchandising that are unique, original and successful. They are peculiarly Macy's. Mere theories nearly half a century ago, to-day, tried by the test of all the years that have rolled past since their inception, they have come to be the specific authority that dominate the entire business. The basic rule is plural. There are two primal, fundamental ideas that overshadow all others. The dual law of selling only reliable qualities and charging less for them than others is never violated. Macy's is the exponent of other distinctive features in retailing, but they simply prevail in order to make the leading principle possible.

Families whose members have been our patrons throughout three generations know and believe in us. But newcomers are sometimes doubtful concerning the qualities of our goods, because our prices are so much less than elsewhere. That's the only difficulty arising from our practical efforts to serve you best. When strangers who are not in touch with our policy find our prices from fifteen to thirty per cent. lower than others charge, they unjustly and ignorantly assume that the merchandise is not right. If such skeptics will stop and consider that the whole force of a great ramifying manufacturing and retailing organization is exerted to accomplish that one result, and then if they will indulge in a few trials or intelligent comparisons, they will end by giving us their confidence, and in giving it to us save a generous sum of money on their aggregate purchases throughout the year.

Women's Jackets.
This is April—and yesterday was prime for wearing furs. For weeks to come the handy Jacket should not be relegated. Even in blazing midsummer these jaunty garments will not be laid aside by women who turn their faces toward mountain or beach. Days of blow and drip and mist will come—and the sail, drive or tramp—that extends beyond twilight into the chill of evening—calls for a Jacket to reinforce the gauze-thin waists.

That's why our stock of Jackets—light weight ones—rises to floodtide just now. We are showing all the newest styles—at prices that are to the liking of the thrifty. The short dip front cover ones are considered the smartest and snappiest sorts of the season. Plenty of them here. When you see the variety here you'll wonder why other stores tell you they are scarce.

Enamelled and Brass Beds.
We have sold more Enamelled and Brass Beds during the period covered by this sale than we ever before sold in the same time. That fact claims your interest for one reason. Our distribution of these goods has been phenomenally large, because the prices were—and are—phenomenally small.

From the tumult and confusion of other announcements you failed to glean strong, concrete facts. It remained for the Macy advertising to put you on the track of the best Metal Beds at bargain rates.

White Enamelled Iron Beds, brass trimmings, all sizes, sold elsewhere at $3.50; our price $1.99.

New Spring Carpets.—Annex.
There is no magic about the Macy method of selling carpets. It is will, not wand, that gives you value and gives us vantage. We just want to sell you the best qualities at the lowest prices—and the way to do it grows clear through the power of achievement. We don't stop to tell you of the thousands of dollars we have invested in these goods. The stock is before all visitors. And you'll say that choosing would be much simplified if the variety was smaller. But all tastes and preferences cannot be guessed accurately, so we provide immense assortments as a warranty that every whim of fancy will be satisfied. Dealing direct with the leading makers and buying large quantities assure us of every economy in collecting. And our popular, established usage of underselling competition guarantees that there is money-saving for you in buying here. The following quotations refer to standard qualities of the very best and newest patterns and colorings:—

43c. for 65c. Tapestry Brussels Carpets, all wool face—elegant styles to choose from.
49c. for 75c. ten-wire Tapestry Brussels Carpets, choice designs and color combinations.
59c. for 75c. All-wool Extra Super Ingrain Carpets—Lowell's and Higgins' and Hartford's.
