

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, JUNE 8, 1902.

Macy's

We will move to our new building when completed this fall, Broadway, at Sixth Avenue, 34th to 35th Street.

Women's $35.00 Suits at $26.67

Made of Cheviot These suits are made of the three most fashionable materials—cheviots, etamines, canvas. They are highly tailored—excellence marks every step of the workmanship. Trimmed Eton and blouse styles, lined with rich silk, flounced skirt falling over taffeta slip; the early-season price was $35.00; the passing of a few weeks clips nearly ten dollars off the price, choice now at $26.67.

Women's Shirt-waist Suits, made of taffeta silk, plain black and changeable blue and red, liberally patterned and heavily stitched, flounced skirt—more elegant than the price would indicate $12.90

Women's Dresses, made of figured lawn, tucked lawn yoke with figured lawn ruffle, trimmed with lace and beading; skirts have two flounces falling over white lawn slip..... $9.74

The Muslin Underwear Sale.

The "buying season" for you is not over. It will never be so long as bargains like the ones we tell you of to-day are possible. The alert will exert themselves to possess the economies we announce. They are timely—all of them—and bigger money's worth cannot be found.

The Muslin Underwear, made in our own factory, proves that modern machinery has attained the delicacy and precision in labor that it was formerly thought nothing could possess but the human hand.

Women, who are instinctively sensitive to any inequalities of appearance between hand and machine sewing, have searchingly examined the workmanship in our Undermuslins and frankly admitted that the difference is too slight to be of the smallest consequence. With such excellence in workmanship we unite low prices, and a combination is formed that is matchless.
