

NEW YORK YACHT CLUB CRUISE

BIG FLEET OF VESSELS TO GATHER AT NEW LONDON TO-MORROW

Will Start for Newport on Tuesday Morning—Astor Cup Races on Wednesday—Squadron Will Go to Marblehead and Race There Before Departing.

The cruise of the New York Yacht Club, which begins to-morrow, promises to be one of the best in the history of the club. By order of Commodore Lewis Cass Lyford, the fleet will rendezvous at New London, and the squadron runs will begin on Tuesday, when the yachts will race to Newport. The fleet will consist of 100 yachts, and on that day the crack schooners and ketches will race for the cups offered by Col. John Jacob Astor. Then the fleet will go to Vineyard Haven, Provincetown and Marblehead, where the yachtmen will be met by the Eastern Yacht Club. It is expected that a visit was paid to this club, and a royal cool time is expected by all.

During the week all the racing yachts have been thoroughly overhauled and put in the condition for service. The yachts have been hauled out to clean and sails have been run and rigger overhauled. To-day and to-morrow vessels of all description will be heading for New London, where the Regatta Committee will be on hand to receive them. It is expected that the largest fleet ever seen in a port will be at New London to-morrow. This is an exceptional year for sailing yachts and those will be on hand to take part in the regatta. Steam yacht owners have not been far away from town this year for many reasons. The coal question has been a troublesome one, but many have signified their intention of going to the cruise, and as Secretary Curtis has arranged to have nearly five hundred tons of coal on barges in Marblehead Harbor on the arrival of the fleet, it is expected that nearly the whole of the steam yacht fleet will be around the city.

At this meeting it will also be decided how the cups given by cards, Commodore Lyford's Royal Phelps Carroll and the flag officers are to be disposed of. Commodore Lyford's cups are offered for the run to Provincetown and the Navy Challenge cups are to go to the schooner and ketch sailing the most square-rigged, ketches sailing the most class and single-masted vessels and yachts in one class.

Early on Tuesday morning the fleet will start for Newport. Commodore Lyford will signal the time for starting under way. The yachts that take part in the race will be started from Sarah's Ledge buoy and the finish will be at Brenton's Reef light vessel. The Regatta Committee will be on hand to receive the yachts on Tuesday at 11 o'clock the Astor cup races will be started. The cup for schooners will be on hand at 11 o'clock for the ketches. The course over which the yachts sail for these cups is three-eight miles in length. There are three courses, one to Block Island and then to Seal Island and the other is around the Vineyard Sound and then to Chicken light ship. The course selected will be signalled from the committee boat before the preparatory signal is made.

Referring to these races, the Regatta Committee, Sir Nicholas Knize, Secretary of the Yacht Club, and Edward H. Wales has just issued the following notice: The Yacht Club, Vineyard Haven and Nantucket have been chartered for the use of the members of the New York Yacht Club, and the use of the club will be on the 10th of August. The committee at the office of the New York Yacht Club, 100 West 42nd Street, New York, N. Y., will be on hand to receive the yachts on Tuesday at 11 o'clock. The committee at New London, in order to facilitate the arrangements, will be on hand to receive the yachts at 11 o'clock. The committee at Seal Island will be on hand to receive the yachts at 11 o'clock. The committee at Seal Island will be on hand to receive the yachts at 11 o'clock.

At the rendezvous to-morrow owners intending to make the squadron runs will be asked to express their names to the committee at the hour at which the taking of time shall close.

On his return from Europe last month Commodore Bourne invited the Regatta Committee to make the cruise of the Regatta, but the members of the committee had already accepted the invitation of Col. M. Thompson to go on the Lady Toronto. They will make the runs from New York to the Navigator. Members up to twenty-five in number can be accommodated on the Navigator. The committee on the evening before the start. The yachts that are expected to take part in the daily runs from port to port, classified with their racing number and racing length, follow:

GREAT TENNIS IN PROSPECT.

KEEN STRUGGLE EXPECTED FOR THE DAVIS CUP

England Will Be Represented at Day Ridge by Her Best Men, Pin and the Doherty Brothers. Largest American Doubles and Ward Will Play for America.

The International lawn tennis matches at Day Ridge this year will bring together the greatest all experts of the game, and the contest is expected to produce a battle royal in each match. John Bull has been fully aroused to the skill of Uncle Sam's players at the game, and he has sent his very best over the water to meet the English. The failure of the first importation two years ago was a serious disappointment for our English cousins, and they were very much incensed to make good their challenge after the preparations for the present year. The matches over here added to the feeling of challenge, and this season the English authorities secured a promise to come from the men they wanted to represent them before they left for England.

The challenging team is made up of three men, all of whom are champions in the highest sense of the term. Dr. Pin held the English and the Irish championships many times both in singles and doubles, and he is now the champion of the world. He is a younger brother, H. J. Doherty, has just "ascended the throne." Both have also held the Irish championship, which is also in importance abroad to the English title. Pin has held the championships in doubles of lawn tennis in America, England, and the Continent for year after year. In fact, the Doherty brothers have long been in a class by themselves in doubles, and any title they cared to play for was at once conceded to them. Dr. Pin is a veteran of many campaigns and was for many years considered the most brilliant player the world had ever seen, amateur or professional. It was of him that Mahony declared, "I would rather see Pin than any other man on the tennis court." For the last six or seven years Pin has been a practicing physician in Dublin, and he thinks it injures his practice to play tennis in tournaments under his own name. He is, however, a member of the club, and he is reported this spring to be in excellent condition and it is well known that he never needs much practice to get into shape.

A well-posted English correspondent writes that Pin is probably as good today as ever he was, if not a little better. He is expected to be surprised next week to find him the strongest member of the challenging team. He did not play for the English championship this year, so that Doherty's victory at Wimbledon does not imply any inferiority on his part.

The Doherty brothers are radically different from each other in all of their play and yet perfect partners for doubles. R. F. Doherty was rated for three or four years as absolutely perfect in all his play. He is a brilliant player of the highest type; he always "sees for his stroke" no matter how difficult the shot may seem, how small his chance for success or how much he needs the point. He never misses the court by a couple of yards or puts a ball into the middle of the net. He is a player of other players, but his errors are either a few inches beyond the court, as a result of playing too long and too close, or he is too close. On his day, R. F. Doherty is considered almost a phenomenon, and none can withstand him.

His younger brother, on the other hand, is a model of accuracy in a passing game. He is many inches shorter and two years younger than R. F., but he covers his court every inch. He is always ready to take the ball, and he looks for his opponent's playing so well that it has often been said of him that he is a "ball player." He is a player who never seems to be in a hurry to win, but he just waits for it to come to him.

The younger brother has a long, slow swing that is wonderful in its accuracy. He is a player who never hits the ball as hard as his older brother, but he travels last enough to make the ball travel in an overcast smothering hit. He is unerring and his volleys depend on careful playing rather than on exceptional speed. He is a player who never seems to be in a hurry to win, but he just waits for it to come to him. They have played so long together that they never seem to be in a hurry to win, but they just wait for it to come to them.

These three are treated with the prestige of Great Britain tennis, and they are well able to stand up to the best yet which two will win in a match. It is practically certain that the Doherty brothers will play in the final of the Davis cup. The younger brother will be able to play in place of either who might not be well, and for the single match he will show more form than the other. DR. BARNEY IN JAIL WHILE

Man Who Said He Inoculated Woman With Tuberculosis Arrested for Libel.

Dr. George D. Barney of 403 Third Street, Brooklyn, who got notoriety by declaring that he had inoculated Emma D. King with tuberculosis germs taken from a cow, was arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Dooley in the Adams street court on a charge of libel. The case was brought by Gilbert Evans, assistant manager of the Brooklyn Eagle, the complaint. He alleges that Dr. Barney furnished to an evening newspaper the following statement: "The reason why the Eagle has taken the attitude toward me that it has, is that Evans tried to blackmail me. He offered me $5,000 to publish an article in which I would be accused of being a tubercular. I turned him down and that is why these articles are printed." Evans' counsel, Attorney Clark, and the latter drew up the complaint and will take charge of the prosecution. Mr. Barney pleaded not guilty and Magistrate Dooley adjourned the case until August 14, at which time the accused had to go to Raymond Street Jail in the prison van. He was soon released, however, by Mrs. Mary Barney, furnishing bail.

About a year ago Dr. Barney declared that he had inoculated the King woman and that the members of that family had been cured by within a couple of months. She recently committed suicide in New Jersey.

On Thursday he received his commission to sail from San Francisco on Aug. 21 for his post. He left here to-day and will sail at the appointed time for Tahiti.

Mr. Doty, who holds the position for twelve years, was formerly chief of the United States consulate in Honolulu. He was graduated from Princeton University with honors in 1896 and entered the seminary, but ill health forced his retirement, and he went as a missionary and United States educational agent to Alaska. Last September he resumed his studies in the theological seminary.

He is specializing in the study of comparative religion and will continue this study at Tahiti.

TO RECLAIM GULF LAND.

Territory Nearly as Large as Holland to Be Brought Under Cultivation.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 2.—Illinois capitalists have a bid for the Barataria marshes, on the west bank of the Mississippi opposite New Orleans and stretching from Lake Salvador to the Gulf of Mexico, for the purpose of leveling and draining them. The marshes, which are about 100,000 acres in area, have been bid in during the last few months, four purchases, embracing $50,000 acres, having been made in the last four months by the Barataria Land and Reclamation Company. The company is now in the process of reclaiming the marshes after the manner prevailing in Holland.

The success of the plan is problematical and the expense heavy, but if successful it will bring under cultivation a territory nearly as large as Holland.

A Definition of the Law Sent to the Proprietors of Baines Hotels and a Ride in the Wagon Awaiting Retrayctory Persons in Whatever Business

Police Captain Knipe, who took command at the Coney Island station yesterday morning, replacing Capt. Dennis Driscoll, was ordered to the Flatbush station, created a panic among the proprietors of the Baines hotels and 10-cent shows by issuing an order that all Sunday laws must be observed to the letter.

After a short talk to the patrolman on the floor of the station at 8 o'clock Capt. Knipe called his four precinct detectives—Murray, Bahman, Taylor and Lynch, and said:

"I want you to visit the proprietors of every place on the island holding a hotel license. Tell them that the letter of the law as well as its spirit must be obeyed. Define the hotel law about as follows:

"No hotel is complete to do Sunday business unless it has a dining room, kitchen, quarters for the help, and at least ten rooms for guests."

"I will not stand for any technical violations. A sandwich will not go with me. Tell all hotel proprietors that the law distinctly calls for fire escapes on their buildings."

Subsequently a second order was issued by the captain to notify all proprietors of shows that nothing but sacred music will be permitted. Neither can the subrequisite law be violated by the use of obscene or profane language.

Within an hour after the word was passed, a peculiar crowd of hotel proprietors met in the West Eighth street station house.

"The captain's order, gentlemen," said the sergeant. "He left orders, however, that you were to be told that his instructions must be obeyed or no man shall do business from other walks of life are very many."

There is in Washington a group of ten or fifteen prominent citizens who are always mentioned when there is a vacancy on the board. It is surmised that these gentlemen will be treated to their usual disappenment, and that the new Commission will be a man of some originality and force who is up to the standard established for the board by President McKinley.

There is some possibility that a man will be appointed who has never been suggested in public prints.
