Some Exceptional Offerings In Men's Clothing

AFTER a month of holiday generosity to one's friends, it is gratifying to learn that one's own needs in the matter of clothes can be supplied at very little cost. The season has favored the man who wished to wait, and serve himself last. Today a new pair of trousers, a new overcoat, or a new suit may be secured at a very gratifying saving in price. Read on:

- Men's Trousers at $5. Some of the finest Striped Worsted Trousers of this season's make are offered at a saving of three dollars today. About one hundred pairs in the lot—best $5 value, at $5. Men's $25 and $30 Overcoats at $20. About eighty Overcoats of extra quality close finish Oxford and black cheviot; silk-lined throughout. Prices were $25 and $30, now $20. Men's $18 Suits at $12. About one hundred Men's Black and Blue Cheviot Double-breasted Sack Suits that were good value at $18. Some blue ones in the lot, too. All sizes. Now $12 a suit. 8 co'd floor, Fourth ave.

Two Extraordinary Offerings In Men's Neckwear

FIRST is a vast collection of Imperials, English Squares, Puffs, Tecks and Four-in-Hands from one of the leading makers in the business—his entire surplus stock of $1 and $1.50 scarfs, which we offer today

At 50c Each! They are made of superb silks, in most extensive variety; all made up in the best possible manner for regular holiday selling. Now at one-half and one-third of their regular selling prices—50c each.

Second, is a superb collection of rich and heavy French De Joinville Scarfs

At $1, Worth $3.50! These present some of the most sumptuous effects in scarfs shown this season. To secure such really elegant scarfs at a dollar is an opportunity no well-dressed man will want to miss. Broadway and Ninth street.

Men's Fine Pajamas

At $1.75. Worth Double and More WE HAVE secured about a hundred dozens of fine Pajamas from the best manufacturing concern in the business. The collection includes the higher grades, selling regularly at $3.50 to $5. They are made of the finer novelty materials, such as fancy chevots and madras, sateen, Mercerized cottons of various sorts, and silk-striped Oxford; and they are made up in the smartest styles brought out in pajamas. We offer them today at half, even a third of their real worth—$1.75 each. Broadway and Ninth street.

An Unexpected Opportunity In Women's COATS

WE offer today about a hundred and seventy-five spic-span-new Coats, that have never been on sale until today, at a third to a half below their real value. The weather was too warm for the manufacturer to sell them; but now it's plenty cold enough for you to enjoy them; and the pleasure of possession will be doubled at the thought of the little price paid. The coats are in various styles—Double-breasted or fly-front with loose and fitted backs; all about 42 inches long; lined throughout with satin; handsomely tailored. Most attractive styles in kersey, pebble and rough chevots and various winter-weight fabrics. They are regularly worth $18 to $25, and are the smartest coats those prices could buy—until today, when you may choose as you wish for

Our Highest-Grade Suits for Men, At Seventeen Dollars,

FORMERLY UP TO $33.00.

Your impression of the significance of highest grade may be unfair to these suits. Our highest grade and the average differ materially. With us it means the absolute limit of the tailor's art—in a word, perfection. It is evident in every garment which this offer embraces. Individuality and character, augmented by true elegance, are attributes of every one of them. At Seventeen Dollars most of them are less than half their actual worth.

Men's Suits, single or double-breasted Sack, Chesterfield or English Frock models of the finest Cheviot mixtures, Scotch Tweeds and Imported and Domestic Worsteds; many are silk lined throughout; all sizes. Formerly up to $33.00. On sale to-day at $17.00
