

NEW BOOKS.

Continued from Seventh Page.

veal, sausages, cold roast goose, chicken... The author of this book is a well-known...

Sears, a Christian Educator, His Making... by Mrs. L. L. D. (Silver, Burdett & Co.).

A Charming Girl of Virginia. A rather peculiar book with an unusual charm...

Congo Land Denounced. The civilized world has made many allowances for the shortcomings in the administration of the Congo Free State...

Mr. Fox Bourne writes with great moderation of the Congo, but he is not to be taken too literally...

One Man Who Entered Tibet. There is little likelihood that any European will succeed in entering Tibet far enough to bring back sufficient results of importance...

Watteau. It is useless to treat Watteau and Boucher and the other French painters of the eighteenth century too seriously...

Pictures of Parliament. Though "Parliament Past and Present," by Arnold Wright and Philip Smith, two volumes (Hutchinson & Co.; E. P. Dutton & Co.), is evidently written for popular use...

Three Theological Leaders. On the occasion of the bicentenary of John Wesley's birth, the Fleming H. Revell Company publishes a condensation of his journal in one volume...

Commercial Language. What seems to be an extremely useful and helpful book for persons who wish to acquire the commercial forms of the French language is published by E. P. Dutton & Co. under the title, "French Commercial Correspondence."

Of a wholly different character is "Barnes' Commercial Language," by Barnes, which is a book of reference for the student...

guage must be learned irrespective of the student's ultimate object. There is plenty of time to specialize later.

A Wall Street Book. "The Work of Wall Street," by Sereno S. Pratt, published by D. Appleton & Co. as one of their Business Series, is a well-written and generally thorough digest of the operations of the financial district, undertaken to deal comprehensively with the subjects of speculation, investment and money.

Other Books. There is no doubt enterprise in preparing for school use a play that created a sensation in Spain only a year ago, Benito Perez Galdos' "Electra," edited by Otis Gridley Bunnell (American Book Company).

Mr. Sydney Burton, M. P., who has written on a number of political subjects, turns aside to sporting subjects in "Fishing and Shooting" (E. P. Dutton & Co.). It is a book that should interest all sportsmen, and Mr. Archibald Thomson's admirable illustrations help it out.

An excellent account of "Government Bonds" as they have been in the past and as they are nowadays, has been issued by the National City Bank of New York. The information is put in clear and simple form, so that any one interested in bonds can understand it, and is practically official.

Princeton University has issued a volume of an unusual character in "Academic Honors in Princeton University," compiled and edited by John Rogers Williams (Princeton University). It is a notable roll, and in the earlier years certainly tends to discredit the general belief that honor men usually do not amount to much in later life.

A new and revised edition of Mr. T. Jenkins Hains' exciting series, "The World's Jammers," is published by F. M. Buckles & Co. The book has already been noticed in THE SUN, and we can only repeat the praise then given to it.

Books Received. "Some Notes on Our Lord's Passion," The Rev. Hermann Lillenthal, (Thomas Nelson & Sons, New York). "The Lives of the Most Holy Fathers," Bernhart Beck, Ph. D., D. D. (F. & W. Wadsworth Company).

Argentine Republic May Have to Answer for False Arrest. Lawyers Arthur B. Archibald and Richard Doherty of Jersey City said yesterday that they have called the attention of the State Department at Washington to the arrest of Herbert S. Edwards, an American citizen, at Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, and his detention in jail from Dec. 17 until Dec. 23.

Edwards was the South American agent for a Manhattan firm of coffee importers, and had an office in Caracas, Venezuela, until he was ordered to Buenos Ayres, pending a settlement of the troubles in Venezuela.

The lawyers said that Edwards was arrested at Buenos Ayres, taken 165 miles to Rosario, and lodged in jail without being told what charge was against him. He was starved for twenty-one hours. Three times in this period Leon Corrado, head of the Rosario police, visited him and advised him to sign a confession of guilt under penalty of being deprived of food indefinitely.

Edwards insisted on knowing what he had been arrested for and requested that the Argentine consul be notified. His brother, Ayres merchants who could identify him, Corrado, he says, denied both requests, and gave orders that nobody should be allowed to see him.

YOUNG TRIAL WELL UNDER WAY

MURDER TRUNK IN COURT, BUT PRISONER WON'T LOOK AT IT. Blood-Atonement Yarn Won't Figure. Prosecutor Tells the Jury Again—Young Identified as the Hitter of the Buggy Which Took Victim's Body to Jersey.

The jury which is to try William Hooper Young for the murder of Mrs. Anna Pulitzer was completed yesterday before Justice Herick in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court in a very few minutes after the trial, by the selection of George W. Wells, a clerk of 138 West 104th street, and Michael Cunningham, a real estate dealer of 707 Columbus avenue, as eleventh and twelfth jurors.

As soon as the jurors were seated the trunk in which the body of Mrs. Pulitzer was carried to the Morris Canal cut at Kearny, N. J., and which Young used in shipping the woman's clothing to Chicago was brought into the court room. Young, who had up to that time remained in his customary attitude—elbows on the table and his face buried in his hands—saw the trunk when it first came in, and immediately turned around in his seat so that he wouldn't see it again. He appeared afraid to look at it.

In his address to the jury Assistant District Attorney Clarke made it clear that the blood-atonement yarn could hardly be injected into the case by the prosecution. He said that nothing so petty and irrelevant would be touched on, and that the fact that the defendant is a grandson of Brigham Young would not be used in any way against him. Mr. Clarke rehearsed the story of the finding of Mrs. Pulitzer's body in the Morris Canal cut on Sept. 17 last, and of the report in which the case against Young developed in the following week.

Mr. Clarke talked for about fifteen minutes, Young showing not the slightest interest. Young Powell, the moorman and his wife, who were in the canal boat, told his story, and John T. Kiley, an inspector on the trolley road, described taking the body from the canal. The trial was adjourned until Monday.

EL CID HITS A FREIGHTER. Hump Off Liberty Island Lets Dastard Into a Brethless. The Morgan line freighter El Cid, which sailed yesterday morning for Galveston, collided with the British steamship Himeria, anchored in harbor, off Liberty Island, and a hole about the size of a watermelon was made in the side of the Himeria.

PARADE FOUND. The Police Light Upon the Tallest Building in America. Parade, the tallest building in America, owned by J. H. Mullins of 81 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, which strayed or was stolen from his lot a few days ago, was returned yesterday by the police to the Madison street, Manhattan, station.

LITTLE TRANT KILLED. Seven-Year-Old Boy Run Down by a Street-Cleaning Cart. Edward Rickett, 7 years old, who lived at 1130 First avenue, was run over and killed by one of the iron carts belonging to the Street-Cleaning Department. Peter Kenny of 310 East Forty-eighth street, the driver was arrested.

NEW HOME FOR MOHLEAN CLUB. Plans have been filed with the Building Bureau for the remodeling of the three-story and basement dwelling at 211 East Forty-fifth street, owned by Alderman Thomas P. Baldwin, into a clubhouse for the Mohlean Club of the Twenty-second district, at present located at 311 East Forty-second street. A new 46-foot extension is to be constructed, making the building 96 feet deep, and a new entrance is to be fitted as a gymnasium. The improvements are to cost $6,000.

NO CRIME TO HAVE MILK NOT FOR SALE. In reversing the conviction of John Timmerman, a milk wagon driver, who was convicted in Special Sessions of having adulterated milk on his wagon, the Appellate Division holds that the mere possession of adulterated milk, not for sale, is not punishable. Timmerman was driving with the milk from one dairy to another.

FREE SHINES FOR ERIC TRAINHANDS. The Erie Railroad has fitted up a room near the conductors' headquarters at the Jersey City terminal, where its employees may have their uniforms cleaned and pressed in the city. The room is free of charge. Monthly tickets have been issued which must be shown to the bootblack and tailor every time work is done.

POLICE PARADE ON MAY 3.

Courtesy Will Head the Procession and There'll Be Many Changes. Police Commissioner Greene announced yesterday that there would be a police parade this year. The last was in 1900. The Commissioner's order sets the date for May 3. Heretofore it has occurred on the day following Memorial Day. Gen. Greene made this explanation:

"The Memorial Day parade is of course a big event, and I won't let the police parade second fiddle. Besides, the extra work they have to do on Memorial Day and their own parade, coming so soon after, give them a very busy time."

Chief Inspector Cortright, who is the head of the uniformed force, will ride at the head of the procession. The order to Cortright says: "This notice is sent to you so long in advance in order that you may give the necessary instructions in regard to drills, equipment and uniforms, and in the confident expectation that your subordinates of all grades will heartily cooperate with you and that the force will present the fine appearance of which the citizens of New York have justly been proud."

The parade this year promises to be interesting to those acquainted with the force. One feature will be the presence of the police band, which is comparatively new. Then some families' faces will be missing, while other old-timers will get their first chance to show themselves in public. Schmittberger, whom Devery kept in the background, is likely to be on view. Some of the ex-detective sergeants will have to parade in an ordinary patrolman's uniform.

KILLING THE ASHCART MEN. Thirty-five on Half Pay and 100 in Because of Heavy Receipts. Supt. Clarke of the Street-Cleaning Department in Brooklyn yesterday declared his intention of enforcing the law against householders who use other than the regulation ash receptacles, alleging that 100 men of his department have been injured by being heavy-lifted by the ash-carts.

PARADE FOUND. The Police Light Upon the Tallest Building in America. Parade, the tallest building in America, owned by J. H. Mullins of 81 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, which strayed or was stolen from his lot a few days ago, was returned yesterday by the police to the Madison street, Manhattan, station.

Extremely favorable... 88 Favorable... 14 Non-committal... 3 Adverse... 2

This analysis of the one hundred and seven press reviews recently published of LIZETTE EDWARD MARSHALL'S poignant story of a Latin Quarter girl is a reflection of the opinion of the book-buying public and explains why 10,000 copies were sold within three weeks of publication. The sixth edition is now ready.

"A pleasant and felicitous romance." —N. Y. Sun. "Wholly new and decidedly entertaining." —Springfield Republican. "Can hardly fail of a popular vote of approval." —Boston Transcript.

THE LIGHTNING CONDUCTOR, $1.50. Henry Holt & Co., New York.

BOOKS OF TESTED MERIT

THE BLAZED TRAIL Indian Boyhood. A full-blood Sioux's account of his own youthful life in the wilds. Chas. A. Eastman. Net, $1.60.

The Madness of Philip. The quaint antics of children, as they are, and not as they should be. Josephine Dodge Daskam. $1.50.

The Court of Boyville. A realistic account of the adventures of boys when grown-ups aren't around. William Allen White. $1.50.

EMMY LOU, Her Book and Heart. How an adorable little girl went to school and what she learned. "The most winsome little heroine in contemporary fiction."—Lafayette Times. "It is a thing for both laughter and tears, a classic of child life."—Louisville Evening Post. George Madden Martin. Illustrated, $1.50.

McClure, Phillips & Co., New York. MERCANTILE LIBRARY. ASTOR PLACE AND EIGHTH ST., Near Broadway. New Books Purchased as soon as Published and largely DUPLICATED to meet demands. Books are delivered by coach at Residences or Places of Business in New York.

Without a parallel in modern literature. THE JOURNAL OF ARTHUR STIRLING ("The Valley of the Shadow"). Revised and Condensed, with an Introductory Sketch. "A large audience is eagerly awaiting it."—Jeannette L. Gilder in New York Herald. "Will certainly have a large share of popularity and be much talked of."—Editorial in New York Times Saturday Review. "Whether one reads his journal as the real record of a man or as the clever conceit of anonymity, it is a most remarkable production."—New York World.

A VIRGINIA GIRL in the CIVIL WAR. Being the Authentic Experiences of a Confederate Major's Wife who followed her Husband into Camp at the Outbreak of the War, Dined and Supped with Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, ran the Blockade to Baltimore, and was in Richmond when it was evacuated. COLLECTED AND EDITED BY MYRTA LOCKETT AVARY. 12mo. Cloth, $1.25 net; postage, 12 cents additional.

MISS McCABE'S. DANING ACADEMIES. HARVARD ACADEMY. 136 AND 138 WEST 23D. ED. J. PINNEGAN, DIRECTOR. The leading dancing academy of all New York. Accessible, attractive, popular, and always the best patronized. Extensive alterations and improvements have just been completed, greatly enlarging the floor space and increasing the comfort and convenience of our pupils. Glile and half-time waiting taught.

Branch Offices "THE SUN." Advertisements and Subscriptions may be left at these offices, where the rates are the same as those charged at main office.

ANY BOOK WANTED—Old books, Irish Gaelic, Scotch English books. PRATT, 161 West 47th St. For Young Men and Women—City and Country REGENTS' AND COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS N. Y. PREPARATORY SCHOOL. 15 West 43d St., N. Y. Telephone 4908-32. New Term Just Beginning. Day, Evening or Private. Send for Catalogue.

WEST SIDE SCHOOL. FORMERLY RUGBY MILITARY ACADEMY. New management, increased facilities. Second year opens Feb. 15. GIVES A FLEXIBILITY TO THE INDIVIDUAL. Primary to College. Gymnasium. Excursions a feature. Address: LITTLE AND HOPKIN AVE., 221 Broadway, 7th St. Tel. 1200—Riverside.

Women Who Dress Fashionably keep up to date by reading the Fashion Notes and studying the dress illustrations printed on the Women's Pages of THE SUNDAY SUN and THE EVENING SUN.—Ad.